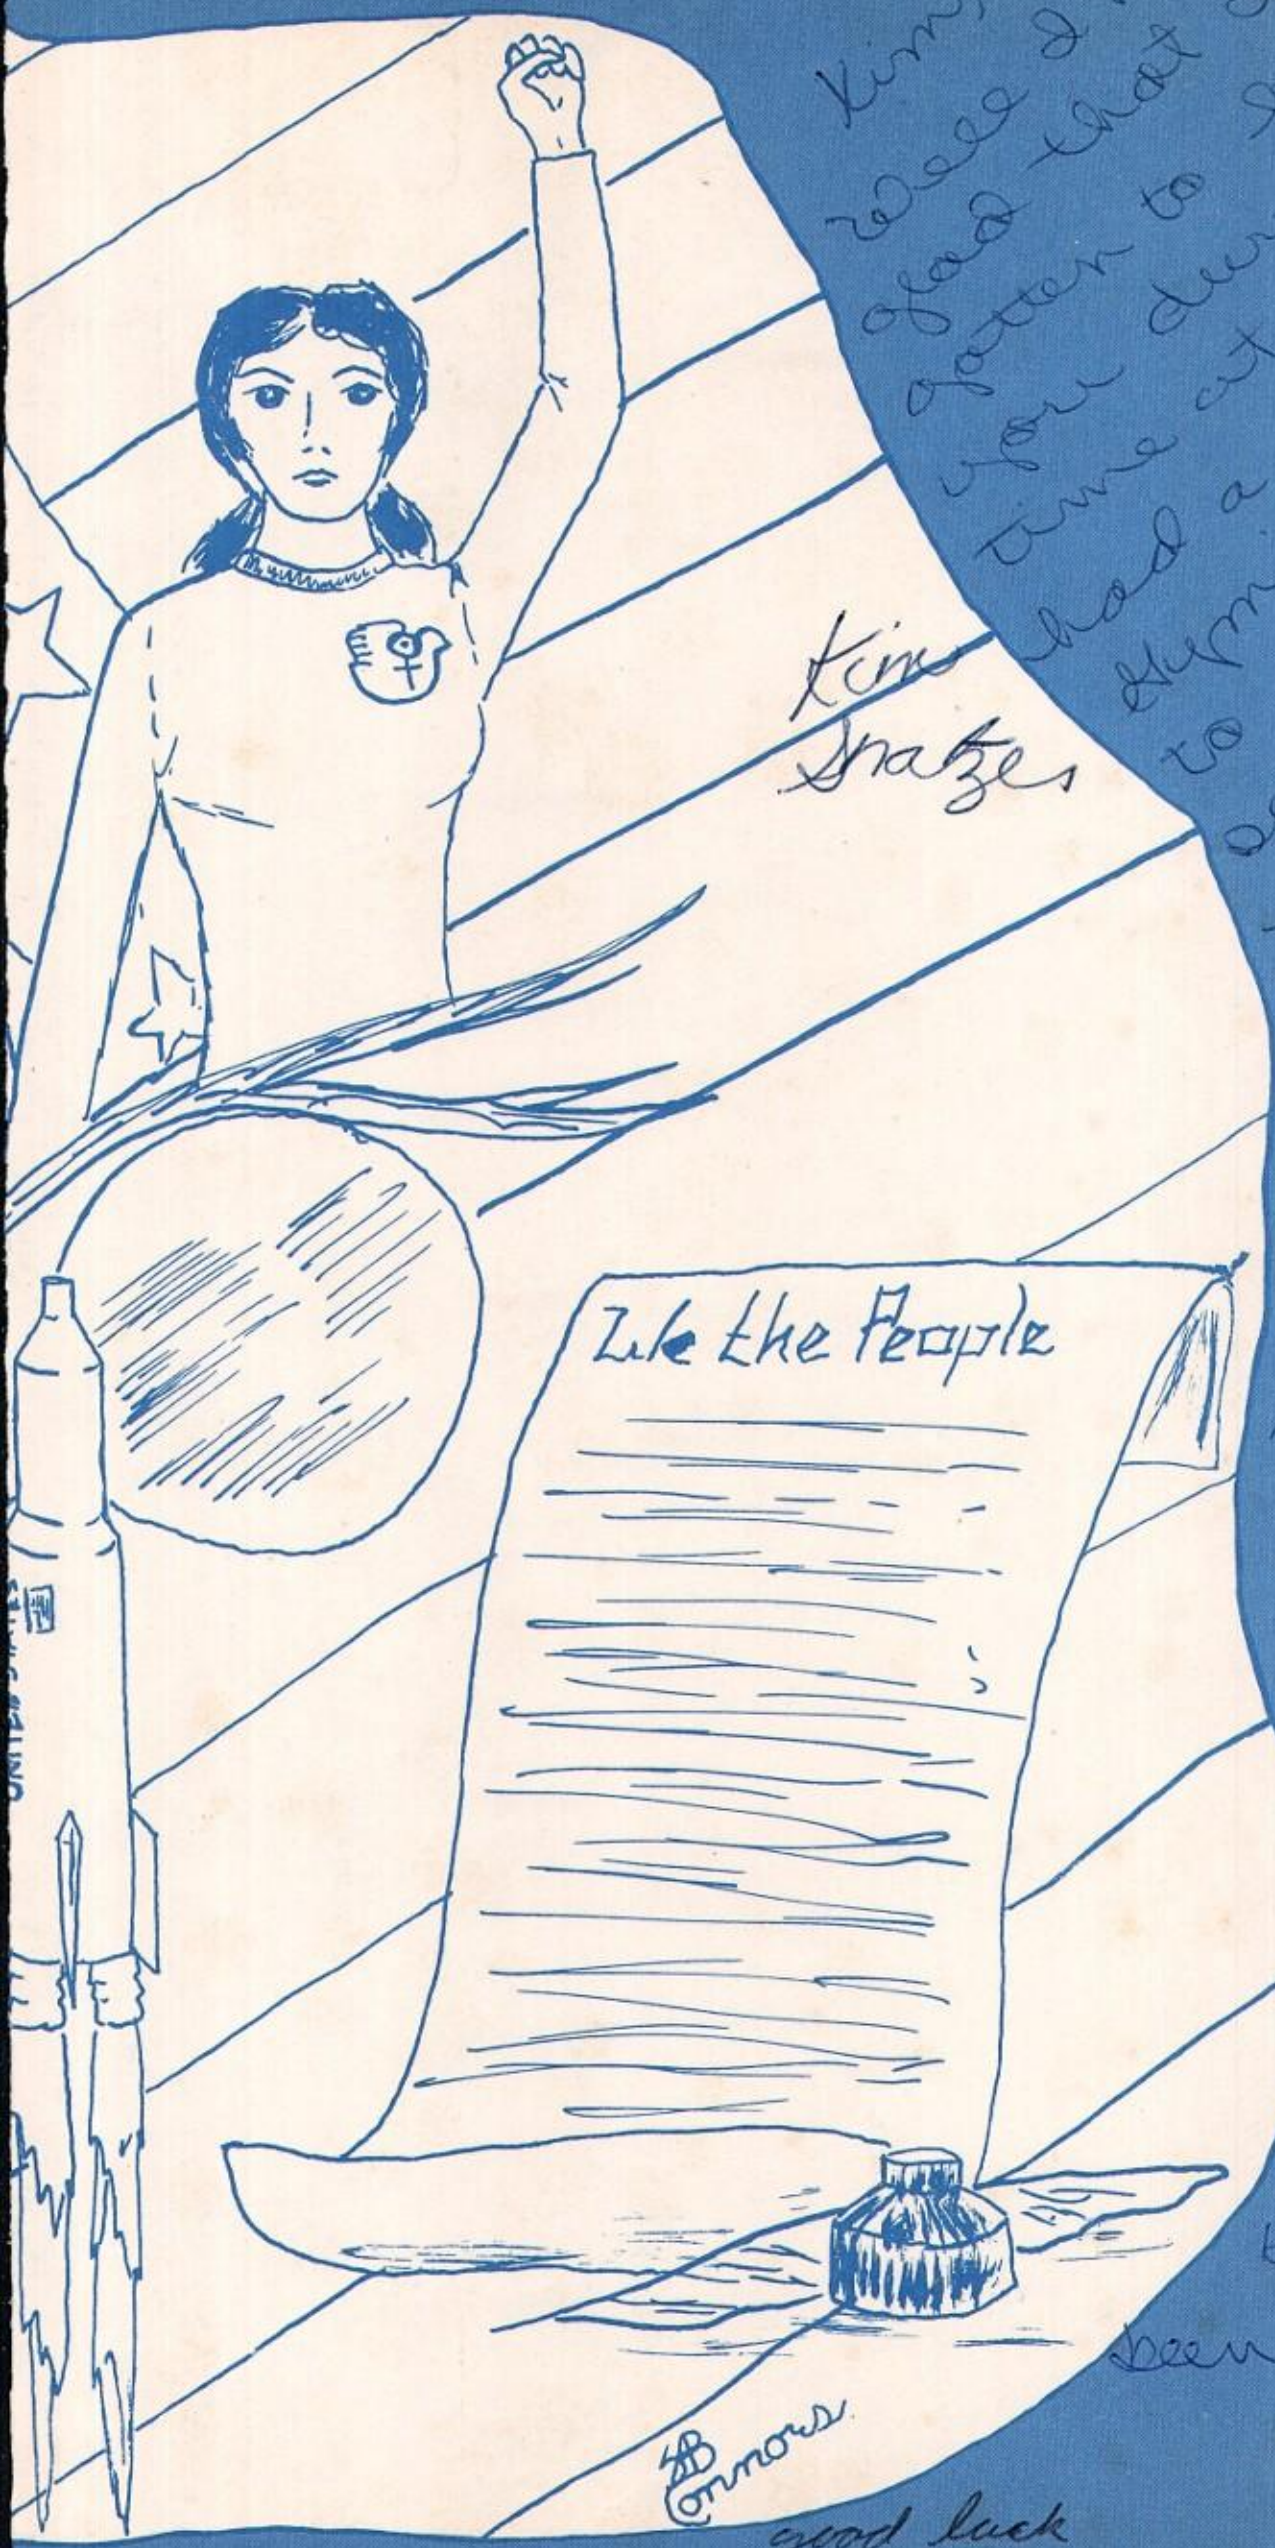
Kim.



Kim,
Wasn't I glad that I've gotten to know you during our time at WHS. We had a lot of fun at Kim's on a Saturday sometime. I'm so glad to get together with you again. Call me & I'll need a ride. Love ya Mom

Kim
We had alot of good times in math class, hope new year and a happy life there after.
Always Pat

Kim,
I Hate Really Know you very long but I'm glad that I did get to know you and it's been an Experience.
Good luck

To a real happy-go-lucky girl. I'm sorry about Sam, but maybe he should be the one who is sorry because he's the one who is getting the worst end of it. But anyway don't let him get you down, because life has more to give you. (Hopefully happy things!) Have a great Summer. Good Luck in your future years here at W.H.S.

The Bicentennial of the United States is a time to look back with pride upon our glorious history. It is a time to recognize our weaknesses and strengths, our failures and successes, our ideals and our beliefs as a nation and a people. We are united by the iron-clad bonds which were welded by our Founding Fathers over 200 years ago. These bonds, stated in the Declaration of Independence, and in the United States Constitution, are those of freedom, liberty, justice, and equality for all men.

Have been a fun Remember Eng. Keep Bud. Good luck in teaching. See you students. Munchkins and the Patriots Beginning Bo, Jen, Lennie Summerl in your good year

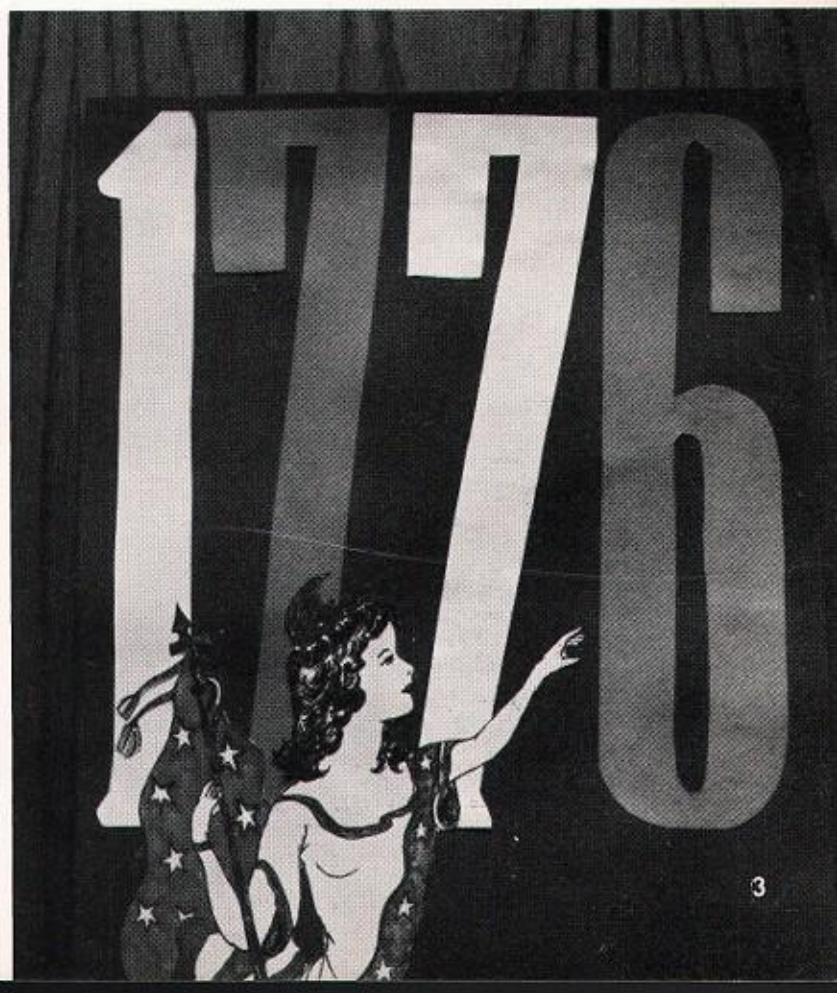
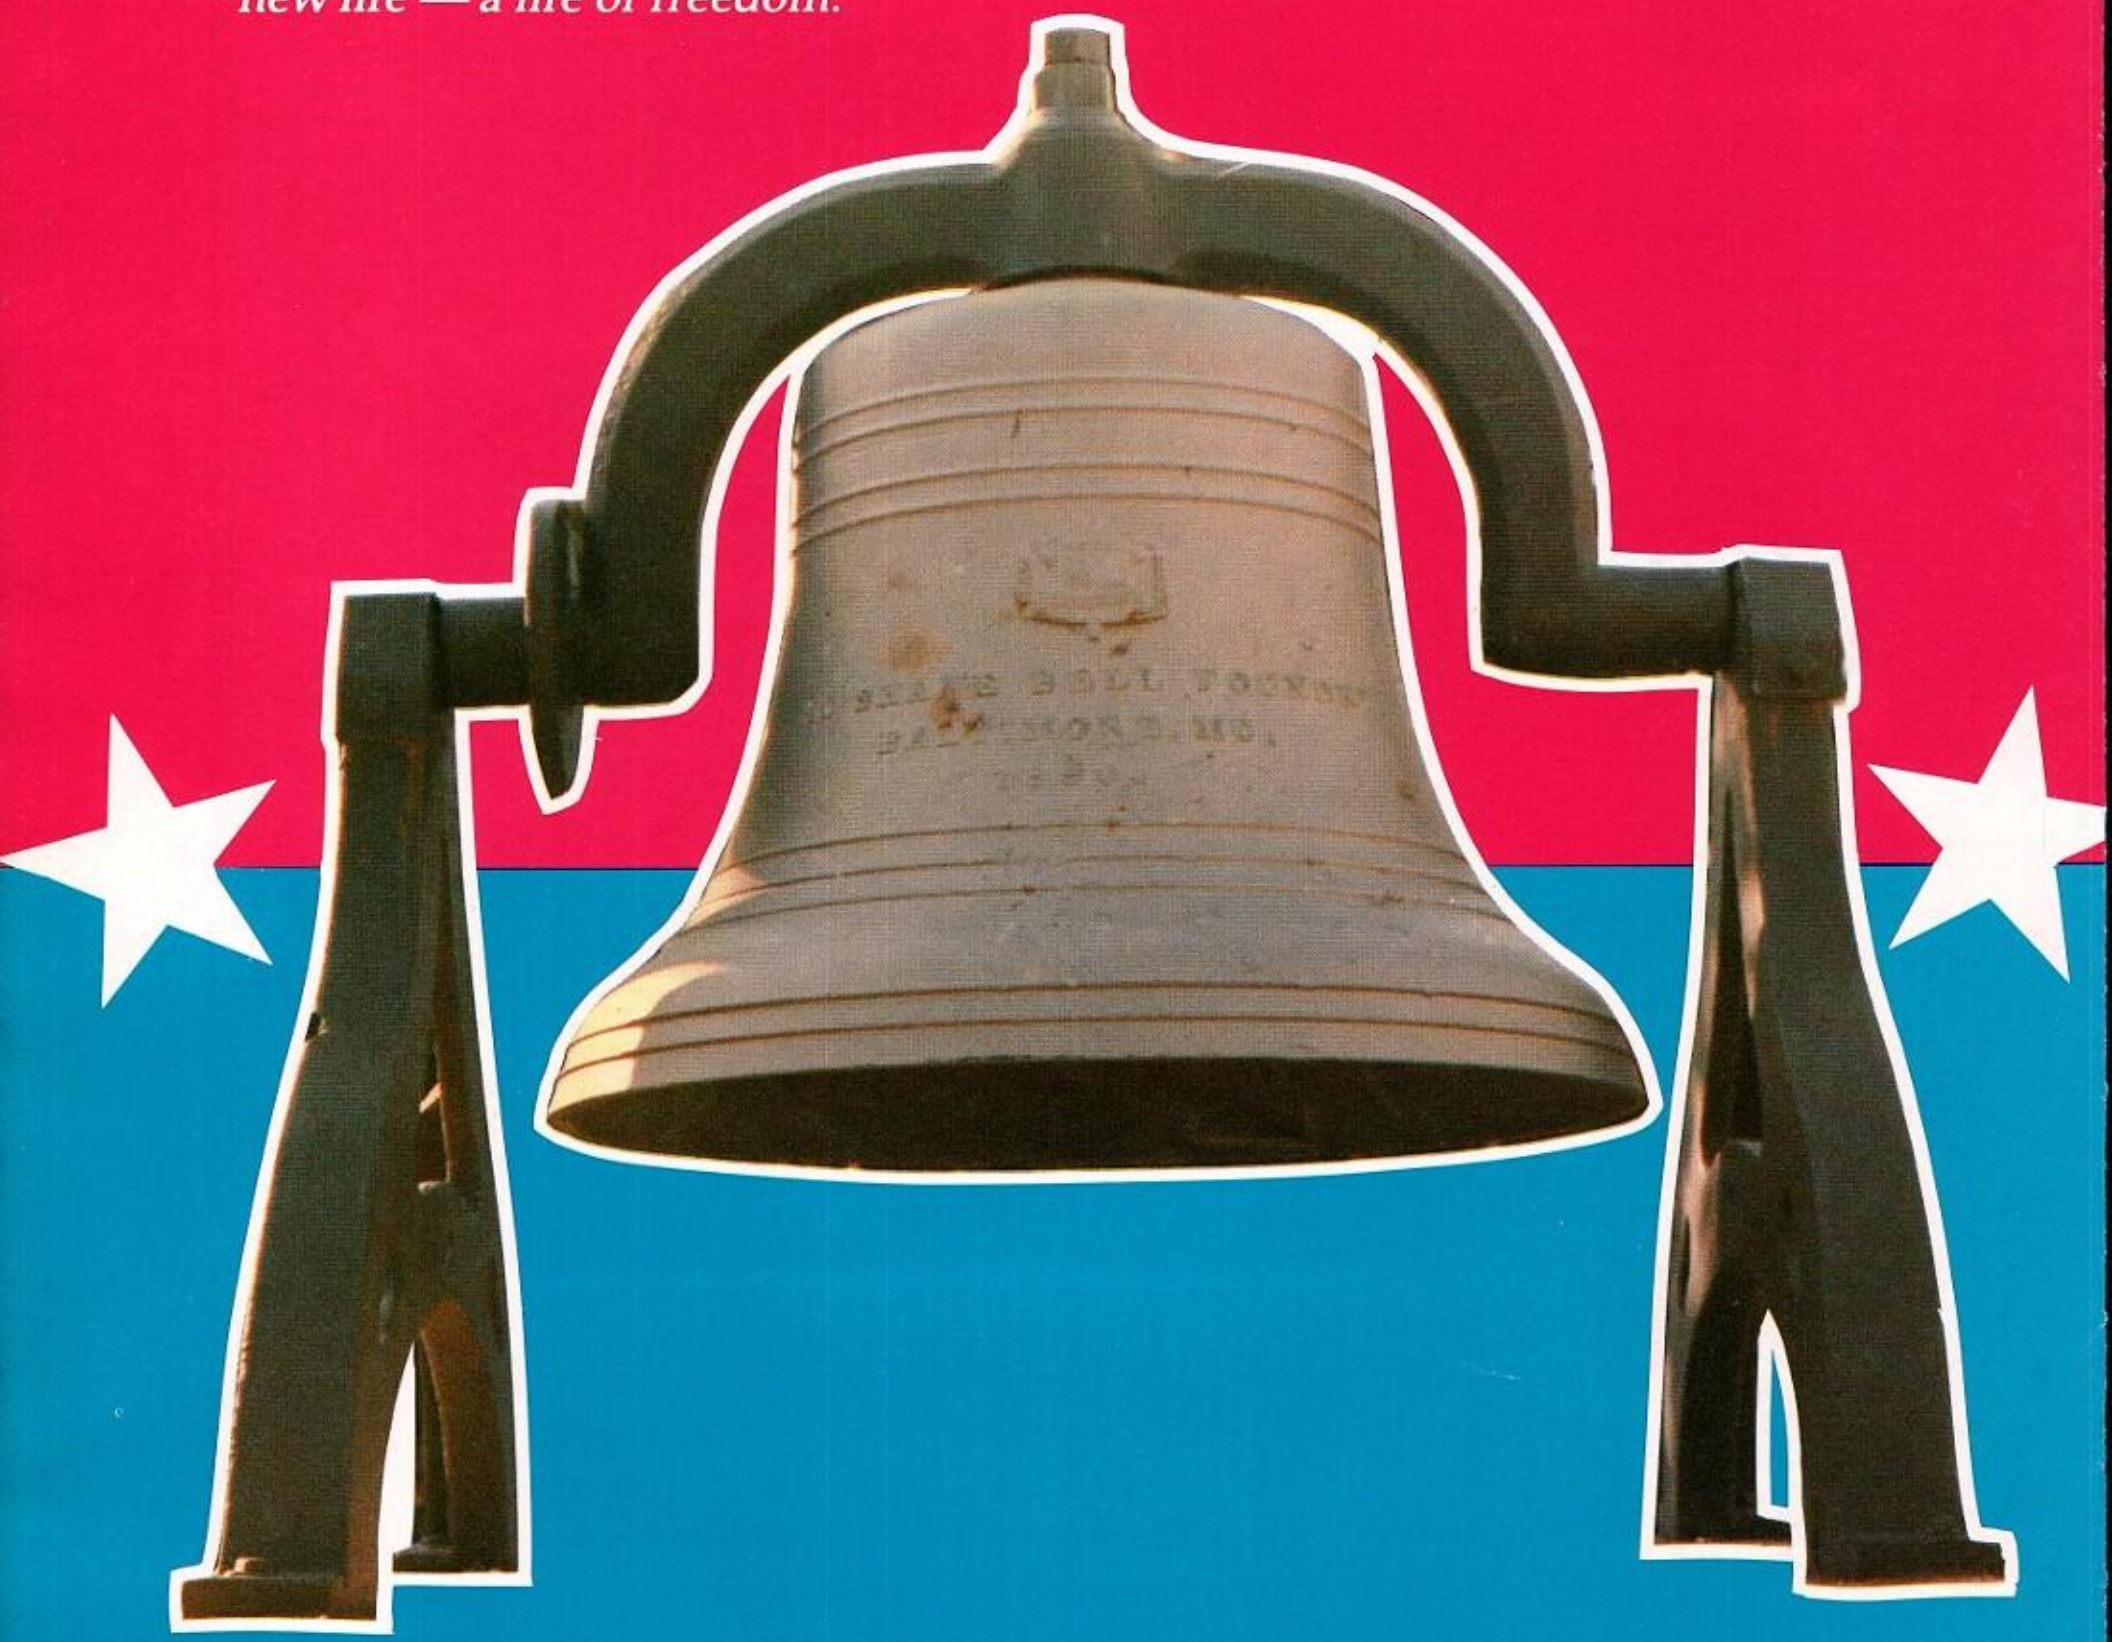
From the time our young nation took its first faltering steps, until its stride became strong and straight, bonds have been tested and re-tested through domestic and foreign conflicts, greed, prejudice, and hatred, but never have they failed us. We remain "one nation under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

But during this Bicentennial year, our thoughts should not be restricted solely to pride in our nation's past. We should also look back with pride upon the past of our nation, state, county, city and even our school. For it is the history of these which is woven into the rich and colorful heritage of these United States of America.

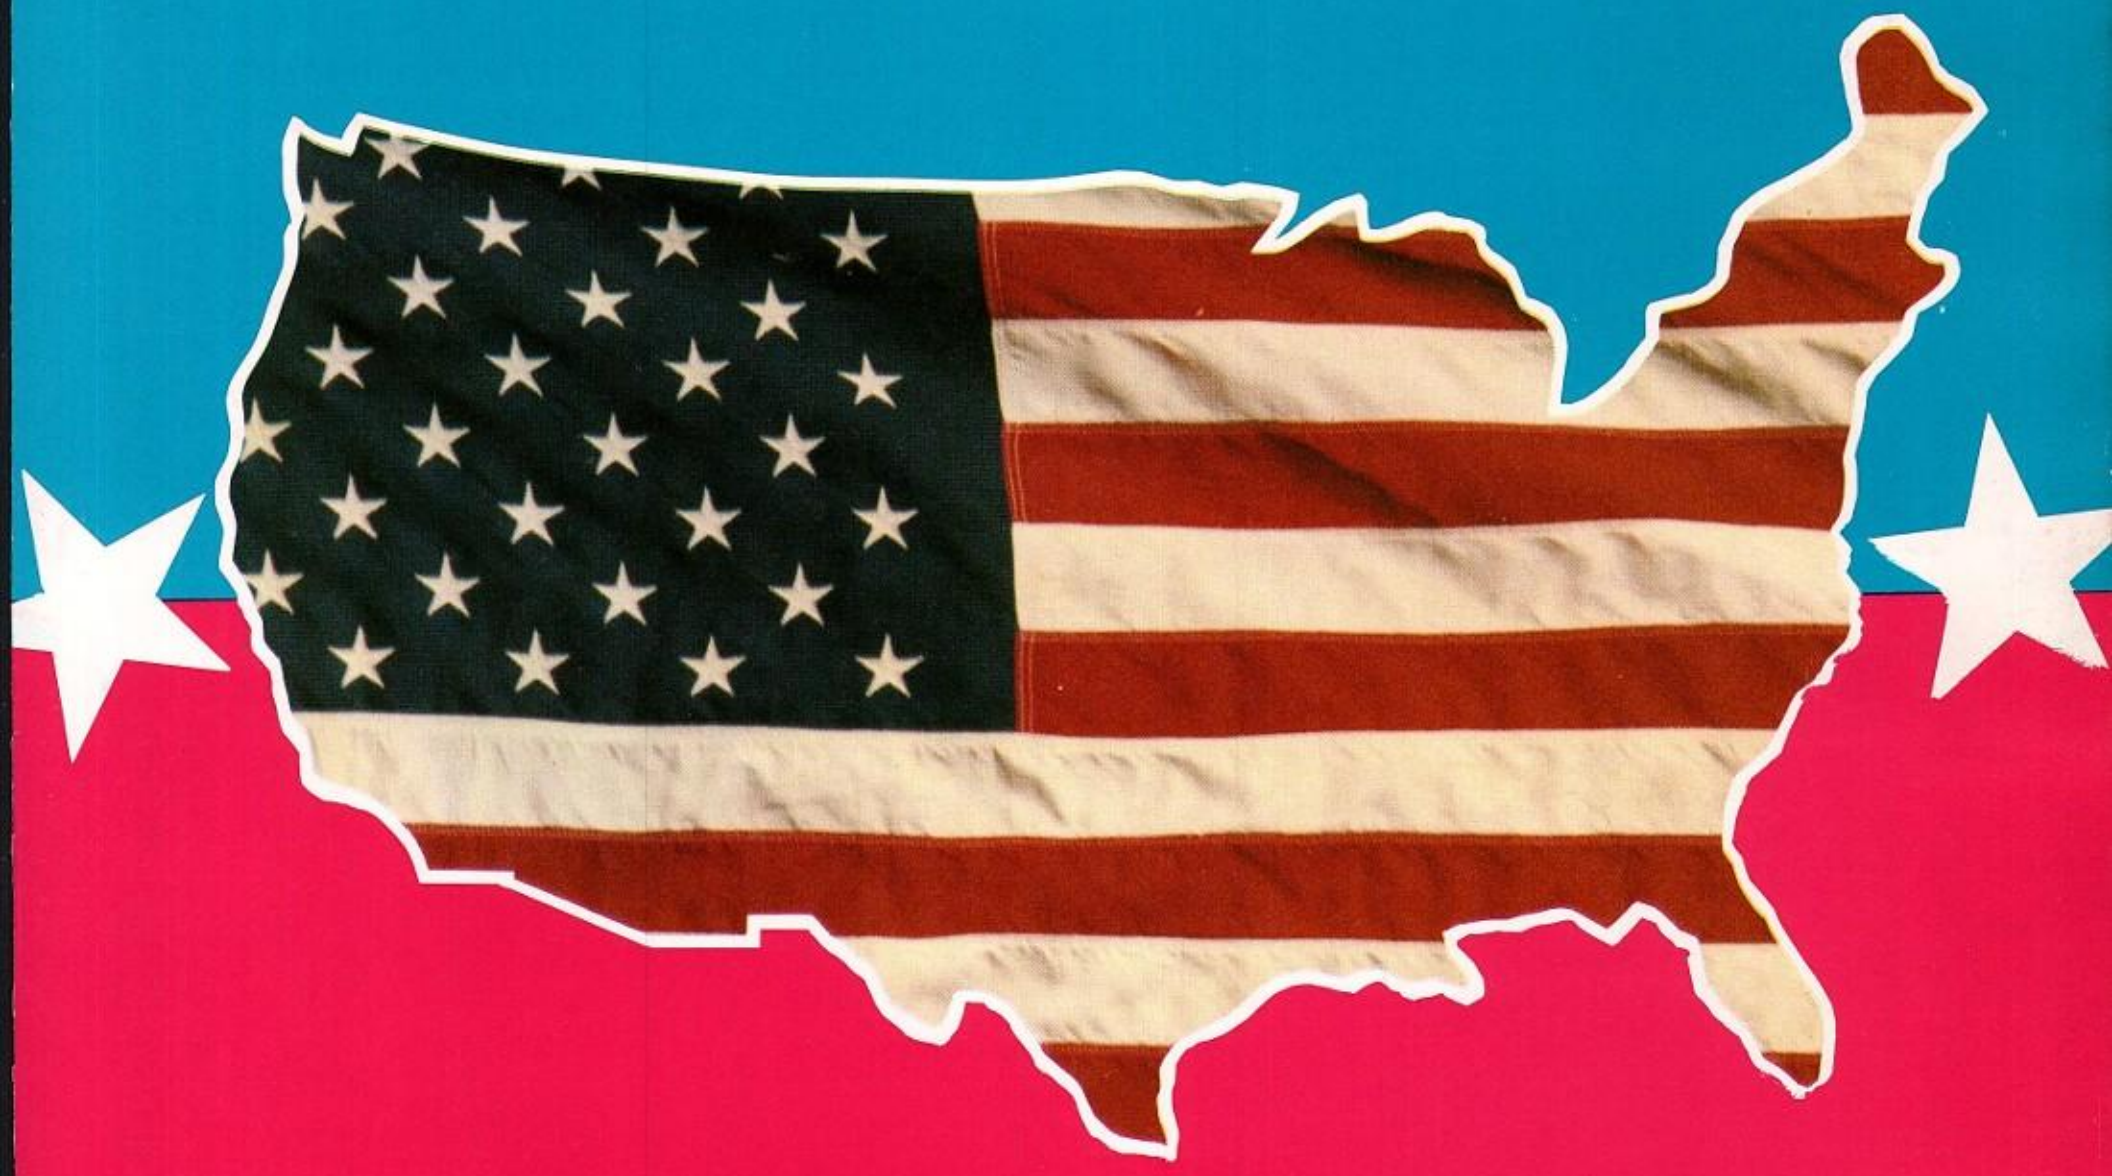


They came from across the sea, searching desperately for something which couldn't be found in their native land. The trick of this new world was at first undertaken by only a handful of courageous Pilgrims, but hundreds followed in their path. Noblemen and paupers, endentured servants and freemen, political rebels and Puritans came to this wild and savage land. Together they fought disease, starvation, and harsh winters. They put their faith in the strength and tender mercy of God that he would guide them, protect them, and show them a new life — a life of freedom.



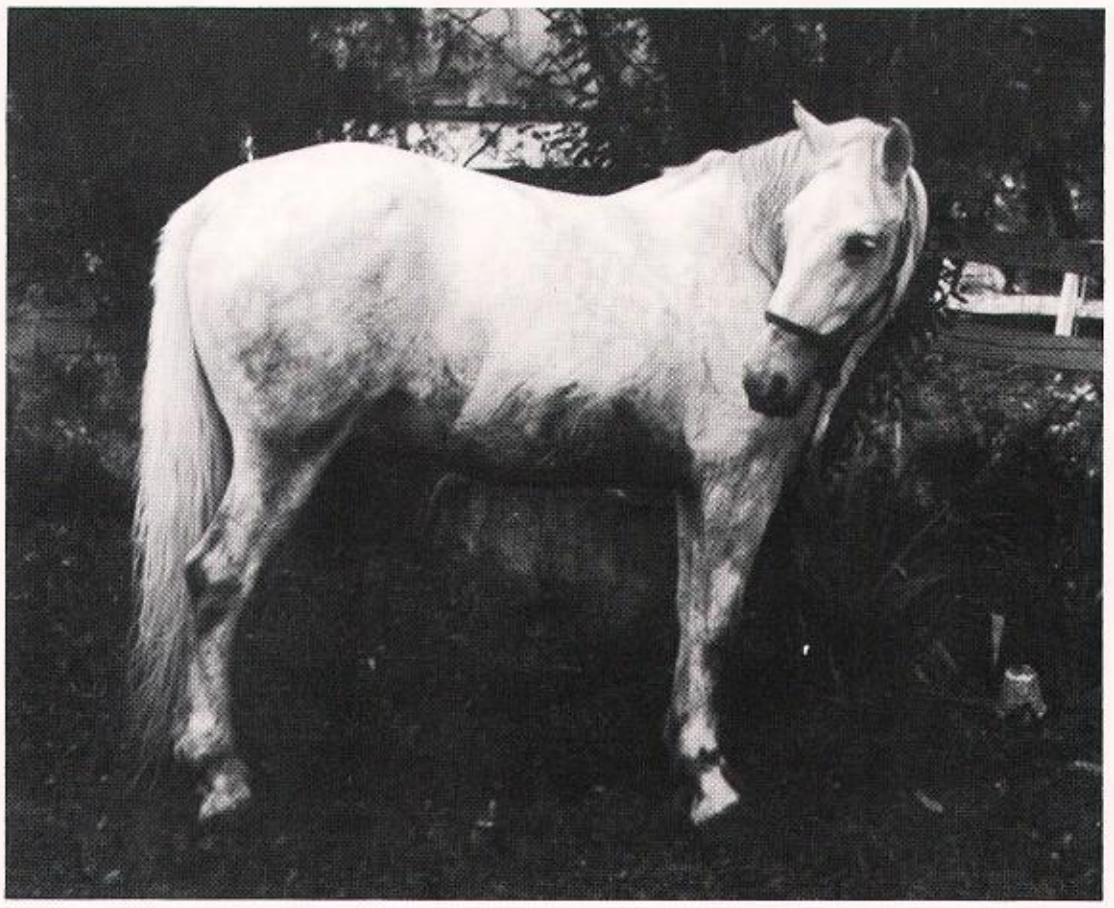
From this basic yearning for freedom, there slowly grew the need for independence from the tyrannical hold of England upon the inhabitants of this newly tamed land. It began as a small seed which rooted itself in the hearts and minds of the colonists. It drew nourishment from their outrage at the unjustified control England had on their lives and soon the roots of independence were strong and firm.

The people rebelled in the name of liberty, justice, equality, and independence. The conflict grew and developed into a great war, the Revolution, which freed America from its ties with Great Britain. At last, independence was achieved. Although the nation was weak and unsure, a strong, free spirit and will to survive, and a devoted people willing to sacrifice their very lives for America, strengthened and preserved this great country.

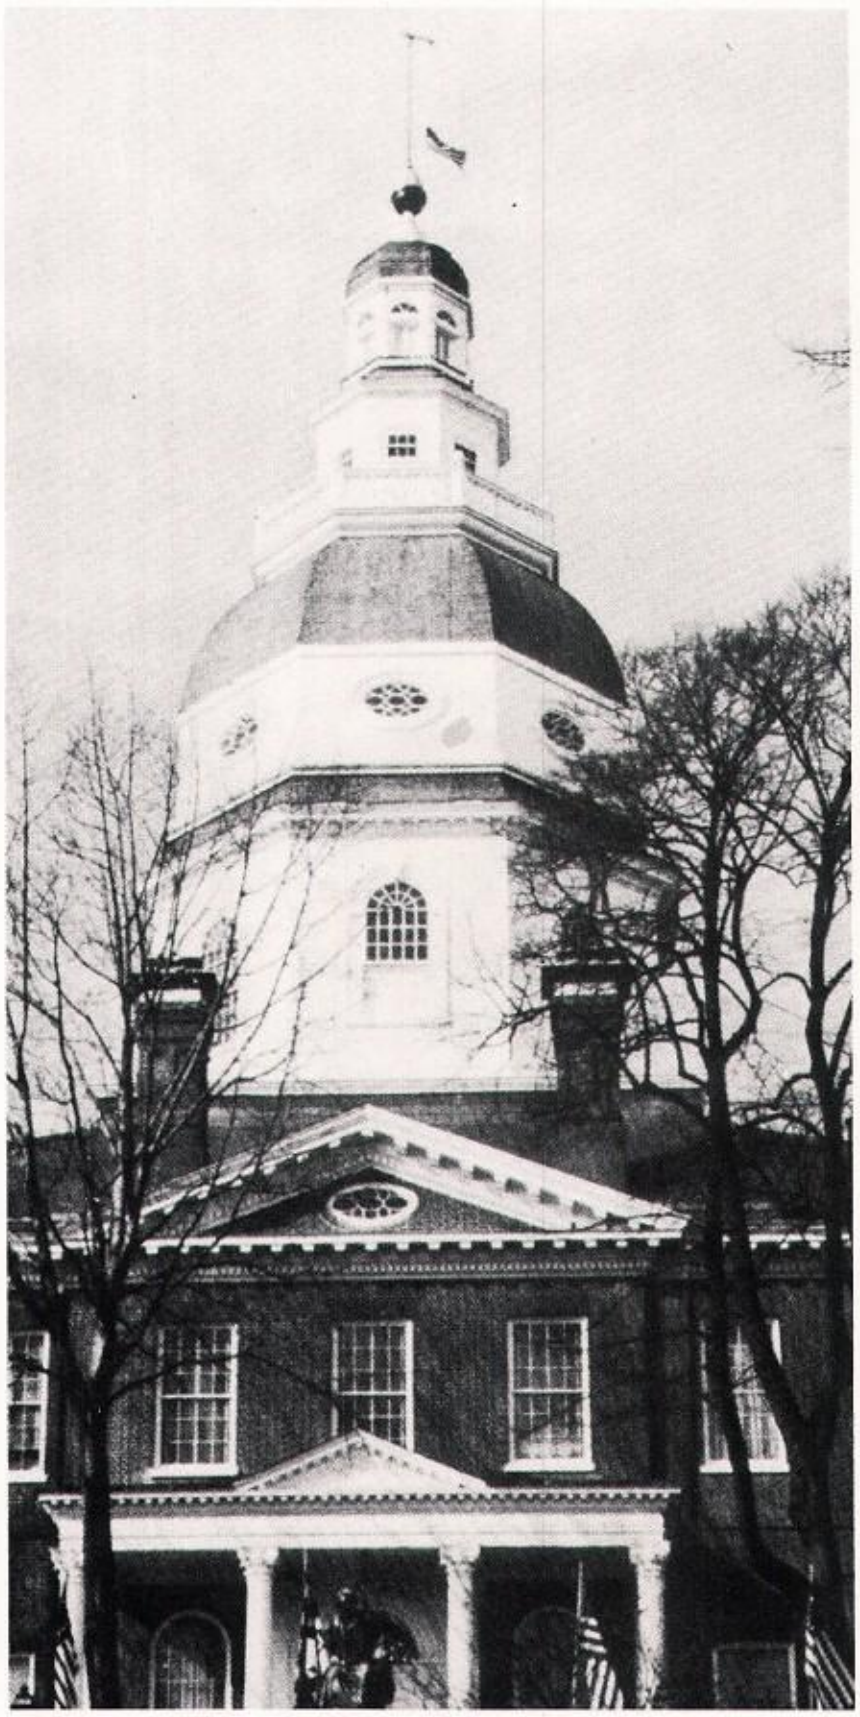


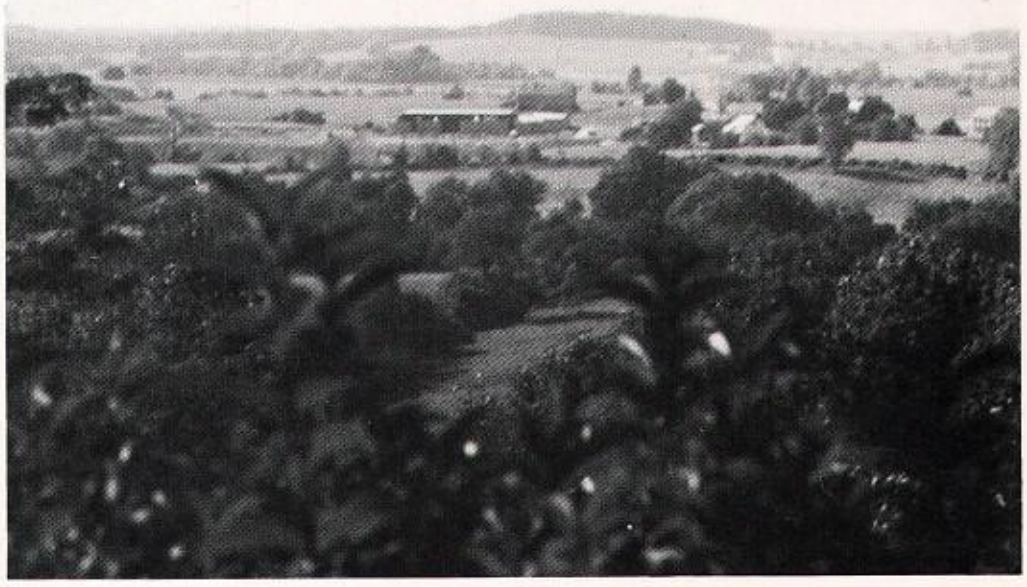
We owe a great deal to the courageous men and women who helped to shape this young country. For in doing so, they made the America of today a reality. Never could they have dreamed that such a great and powerful nation would grow from the thirteen colonies they originally settled. Never could they have imagined that the United States of America would be a place looked to by the people of all nations as the land of freedom, opportunity, and equality. A place where the poor, tired and oppressed might rest and take refuge. Now is the time to give thanks and to be proud that we are Americans!

Kim,
I'm glad I got to know you this year. I know you'll never forget the English term we learned in Bud. Remember how crazy I hope I see you next year and that our senior year is really great!
Love,
Kathy



Elegant estates and rambling plantations, the splendor of a clipper ship cutting its way through the tranquil blue waters of the Chesapeake, the majestic State House, its white dome towering about the narrow streets and stately homes of Annapolis. In these historical scenes is captured the grandeur, lavish beauty, and the free, lighthearted cavalier spirit of colonial Maryland.





There is much more to the history of Maryland than its colonial past. Throughout history, Maryland has been the site of many crucial battles during the Revolutionary and Civil Wars. Our National Anthem was written by Francis Scott Key as he watched "the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air" over Fort McHenry during the Battle of Baltimore in the War of 1812. Throughout its history Maryland has served as an important center for commerce with other states and with foreign countries. And even since Indians inhabited the savage forest of this state, the Bay, teeming with life, has supplied Maryland with her greatest natural resources; the crab and the oyster. Thus the history of Maryland is not only our heritage as Marylanders, but it is truly part of every American's heritage.

Snow dapples the gently rolling hills and a fierce, biting wind whips the bleak, barren fields of winter. With the coming of spring, the farmer enters his field to sew anew the seeds which yield this year's bountiful harvest. Beneath the sun's golden warmth and the clear azure heavens, tiny sprouts peep above the rich earth. Patiently, the farmer nurtures them until, with the arrival of summer, the fields are filled to the brim with their succulent yield. The gilded leaves of autumn are illuminated by the orange glow of sun. A sharp fresh breeze rustles the corn stalks, laden with full maize-colored ears, their gift to the fall harvest. Cattle graze peacefully in frost-nipped pastures, and the farmer waits for the arrival of another spring, another harvest. This is our home, Carroll County. The Carroll County of today and yesterday. It is a county whose roots lie in the agricultural development of its rich, fertile fields and pasturelands. The farmer has played a major role in the development of this area as it grew and prospered until it became a county where industry and agriculture exist in harmony with each other.

Above all, Carroll County is a place where the rustic simplicity of the past has been preserved in its farmlands, cities, and in its people.

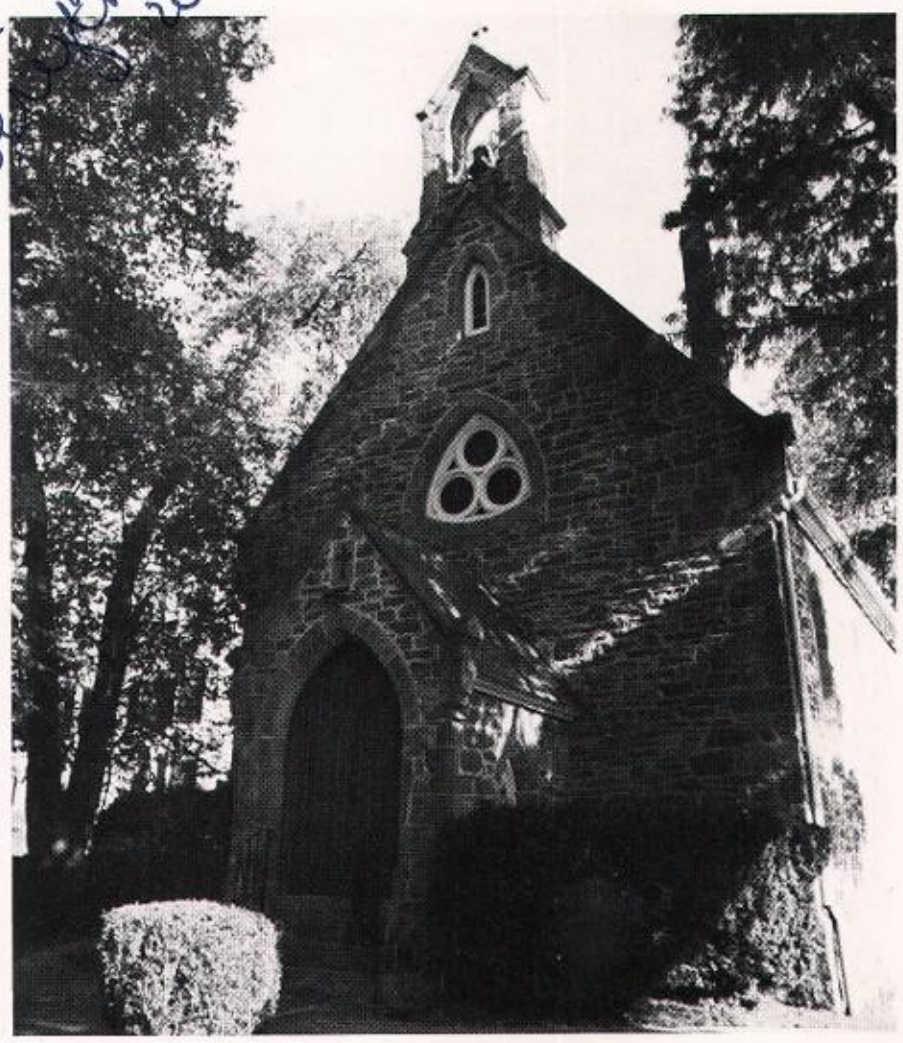
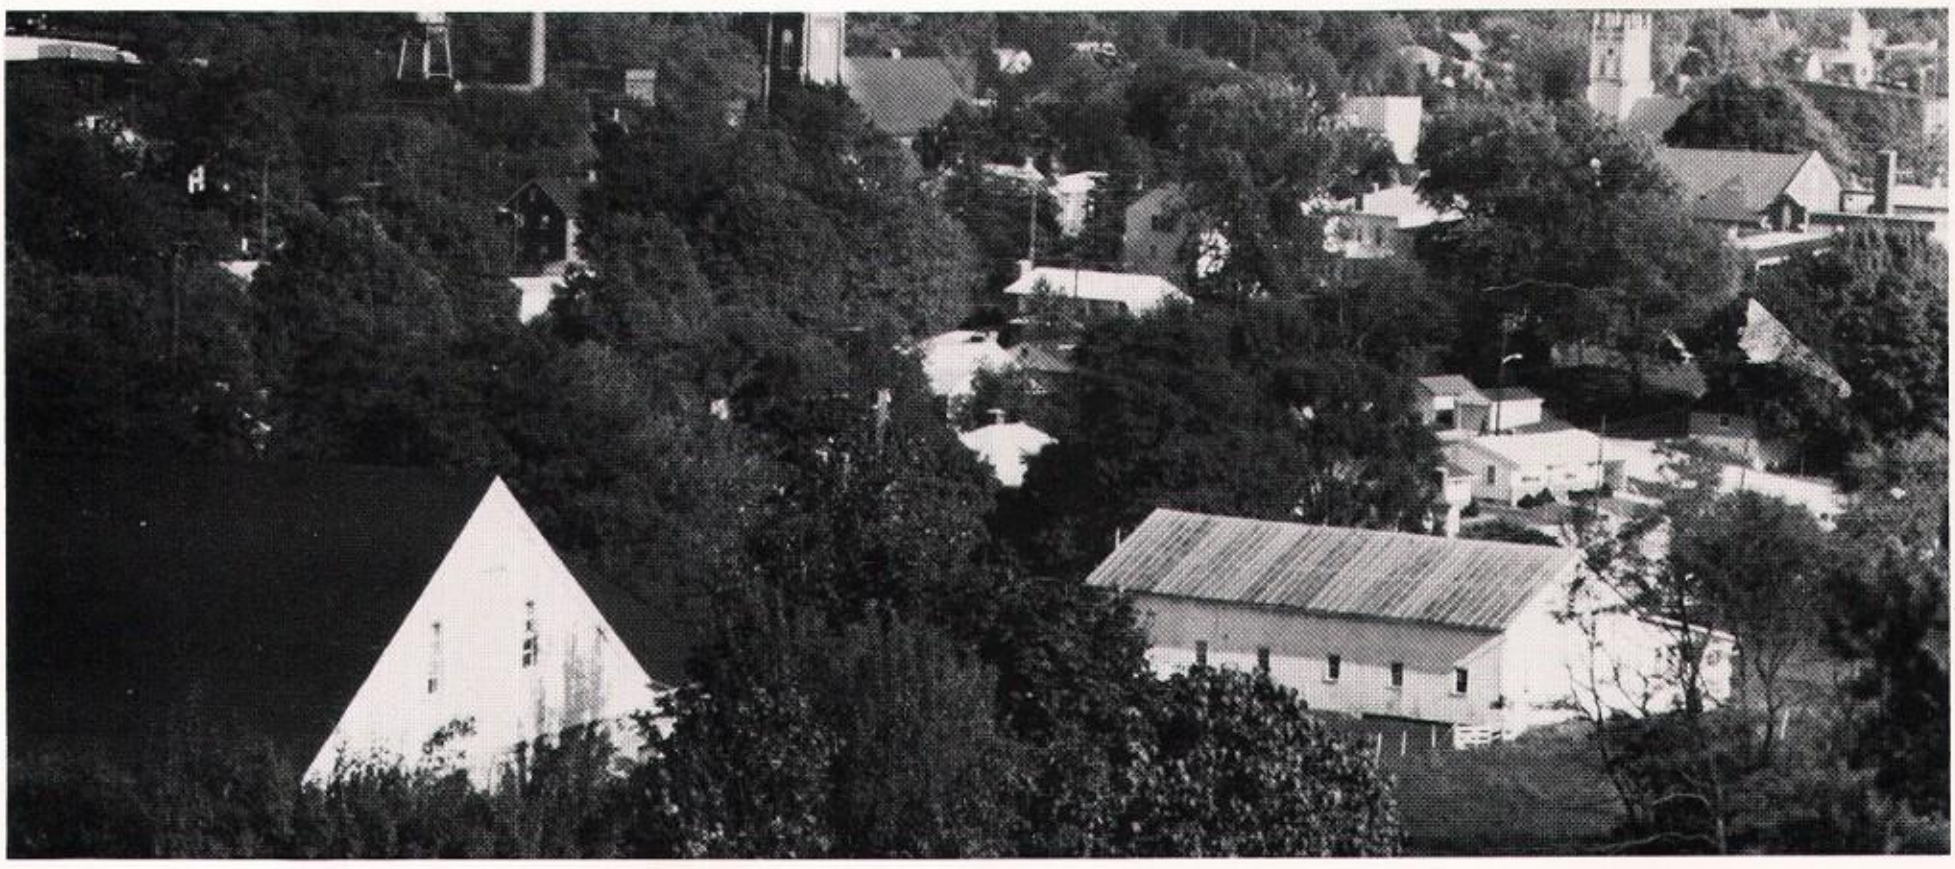
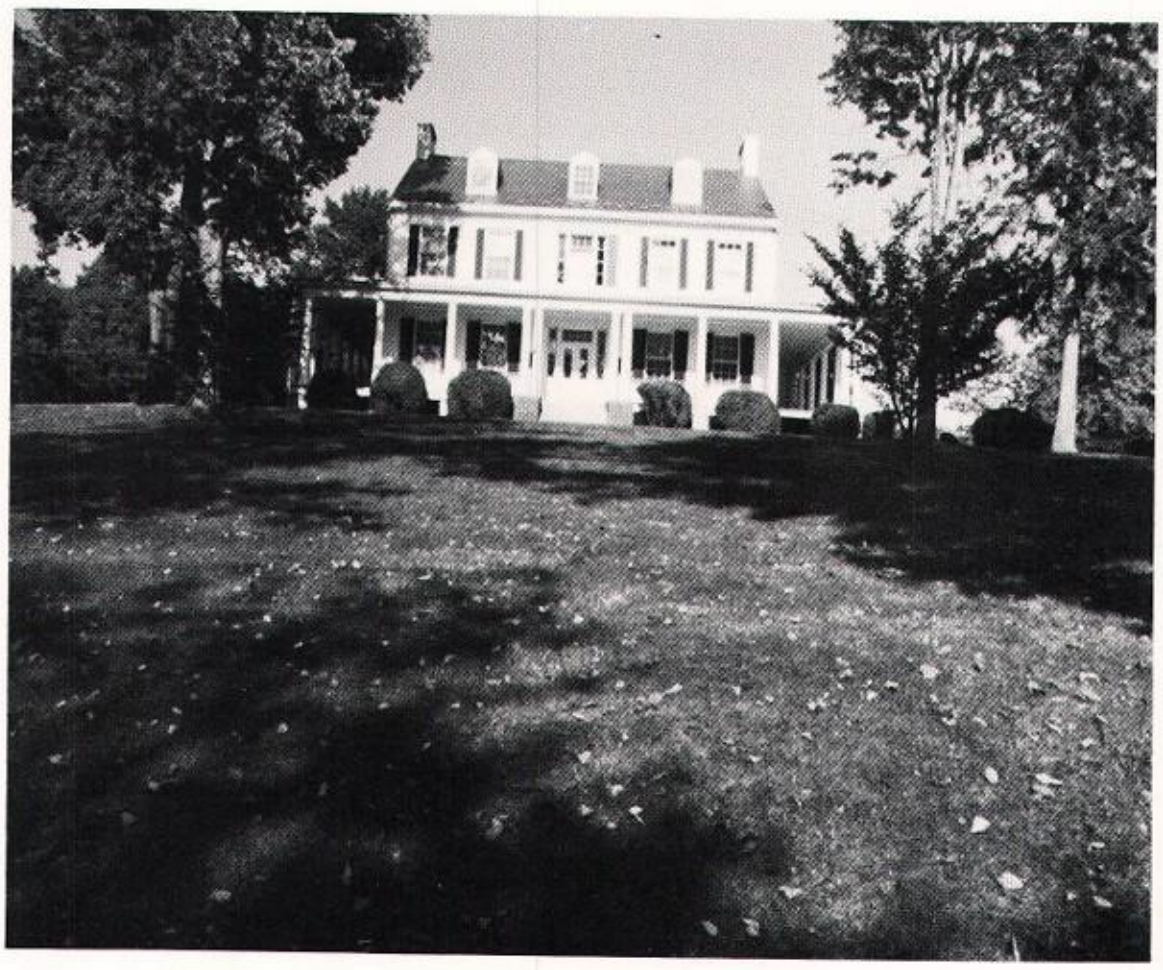
A lone courageous man, searching aimlessly, ventured far into the wilderness of Maryland, to a land where no white man had ever been before. Here the air was fresh and clear, and cool streams babbled tranquilly as they wended their way over the gently rolling countryside. The land was covered with lush green forest where game abounded. He had found a savage paradise; a wild, untamed land, far from the civilization he had known. But this man could not be frightened. He claimed the land as his own, and upon it he built a crude log cabin. From this single man and his single cabin, grew what is known today as Westminster.







Once this first hold had been firmly established upon this wilderness, other pioneers followed the trail and settled themselves in the vicinity. They began cultivating the fertile soil and farming the land using all the precious resources provided by nature for their survival. Slowly, for over two hundred years, Westminster grew from a mere cluster of several log cabins to the Westminster of today, a thriving, prosperous city, populated by thousands of individuals, which still preserves its agricultural past in the sprawling farms and pasture lands which surround it and its historical past in the lovely homes and stately monuments, left to us by our predecessors.

Kim,
I really got to know you better this year. I'll never forget all of our discussions in Stenography. I understood the way you felt about Sam because I have felt the same way too. Just remember this: "Love is placed in the hearts of those who can except it." Memories of the past cannot be forgotten but take my advice and live for tomorrow. It hope I see you over the summer. Take care Always.

The Spirit of '76.

Motto for the Class of 1976

Two hundred years of American History are behind us
And America's future is in our hands
. . . We are prepared to meet the challenge.

The song of the Class of 1976
"A MEMORY WILL ALWAYS LIVE ON"

These past few years have led me to think
Just about what life is really made of
An experience filled with happiness and filled with hope
Then love and memories complete the rest.

Happiness, what's in a word like happiness?
Joy, maybe truth, maybe peace
Happiness may come from one you love
Or from someone you don't even know.

Hope, what's in a word like hope.
Maybe strength to look forward to a coming day,
Or could it be the power, the power to live on
To search and find another way.

Love, what's in a word like love?
An unselfish thing you give to another
It may be trust or truth or help or care
Or love may be the want to be there.

Memories contain all these things
The happiness to bring peace the hope to carry on
And love steps in and brings it all together
And a memory will always live on.

W. NORRIS WEIS

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Class of 1976:

I wish you well and share with you pride in your accomplishment as you have completed your career here at Westminster High School.

The bicentennial celebration year of our country is an especially appropriate time for each of us to celebrate the past, evaluate the present and set goals as we press on toward the tricentennial.

Parents, clergymen, teachers, and writers have all combined to point out to you worthwhile goals towards which you should strive and the best ways of achieving these. I am sure that you would not feel that you need such advice. But I am equally sure that you have good judgment enough to recognize that there is a significance in the term applied to Commencement Time. As emerging young adults, you will be beginning now a rather specialized academic career or you will be embarking upon a specific course in the world of work. So truly, this is just a beginning. The faculty, administrators, and other school staff join with me in hoping that you will steer your course toward the best star that you know and that you also will have the courage to choose the course which you deem to be correct, rather than the one which entices you because it seems easy.

If what we do is in conflict with what we know we ought to do, the decision should be quite simple. To do less than the best that we know is to cheat ourselves, our community and the age in which we live. I trust that no graduate of Westminster High School worthy of the great heritage of this fine school will ever do anything to bring discredit upon it and will ever make the choice which will be in harmony with those standards which he has adopted while here.

Good wishes and Godspeed to each of you as you seek to walk onward and upward, making your significant contributions to the world in which we live.

Sincerely,

W. Norris Weis

Incessantly ringing phones, concerned parents, and troubled students make up the world of the administration. Without these highly capable administrators, the finely precisioned machinery of what is WHS would come to a grinding halt. Their job is not an easy one, for it entails a combination of diplomacy, understanding, helpfulness, and iron-fisted discipline.

The Guidance Department is one of the most important, one of the most helpful, and one of the busiest departments in school. If a student is having a scheduling problem, needs help in choosing a college, or needs someone to listen to his problems, the counselors are at his disposal. Even though they are always pressed for time, the counselors do a great job in seeing all students individually, and in giving fair and helpful advice.

The English Department includes a wide range of subjects, from The Bible as Literature to Twentieth Century Novel, and from Business English to Drama. There are courses available to meet the individual needs and interests of each student. The goal of the English department is to help the student obtain an appreciation of both literature and drama, to expand our powers of interpretation, and to expound upon the creativity of the individual whether it be through the written or spoken word.

The relationship of man to man, and to himself is the basic unifying factor of all the subjects covered by the Social Studies Department. The history of the ancient world, problems of the modern world, the evolution of man, and psychology are some of the topics which are probed.

Especially in this bicentennial year, we should be concerned with the history of the U.S., both past and present. It is through the courses in the Social Studies Department that WHS students are able to study our relationships with the rest of the world and learn from our past to make the U.S. a better place for tomorrow's generation.

Science

Many advances have been made in the scientific field over the past several years, and the Science dept. has kept up with them. With Precisioned balances, intricate chemical formulas, and equations, complex physical relationships and probes into the mysteries of life, both terrestrial, and intraterrestrial, the science teachers have taught us the need to explore; to investigate, and to view with awe the complex world around us.

Fine Arts

The Fine Arts Department emphasizes individual creativity and expression through a variety of media including painting, sculpting, drawing, and both vocal and instrumental music. Through the study of and participation in these great art forms, appreciation of art and an in-depth understanding of its true meaning are learned.

The enthusiasm of the instructors in the Foreign Language dept. is surpassed only by their knowledge in their respective fields. They not only teach the student a language, but they also acquaint the student with the people, history, and literature of the country. Today, when relationships with foreign countries are of the utmost importance, it is imperative to learn foreign languages and the history and culture of the peoples in different lands.

The work of the Cafeteria and Custodial staffs are, many times, taken for granted, but without them the school would be at a great loss. With untiring devotion the custodians work around the clock keeping the school and campus clean and attractive. They are also the handymen who make the many needed repairs around the school. The Cafeteria staff is responsible for feeding over a thousand hungry mouths each day. They supply an endless variety of food from fresh fruit to turkey and dressing to the ever popular "wackey cake." It is a difficult job to prepare new menus which are both nutritious and appetizing, but these ladies always come through.

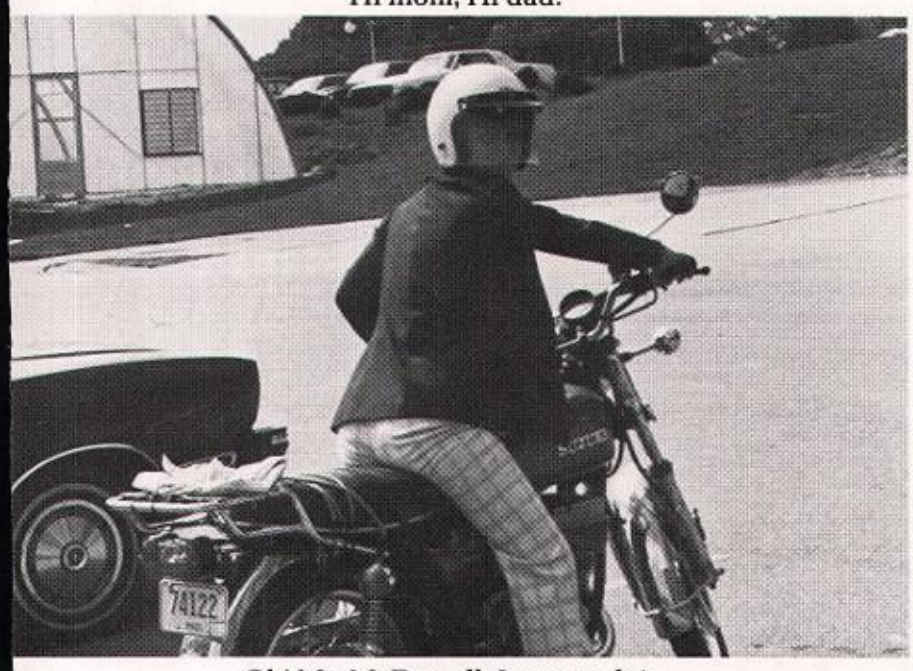
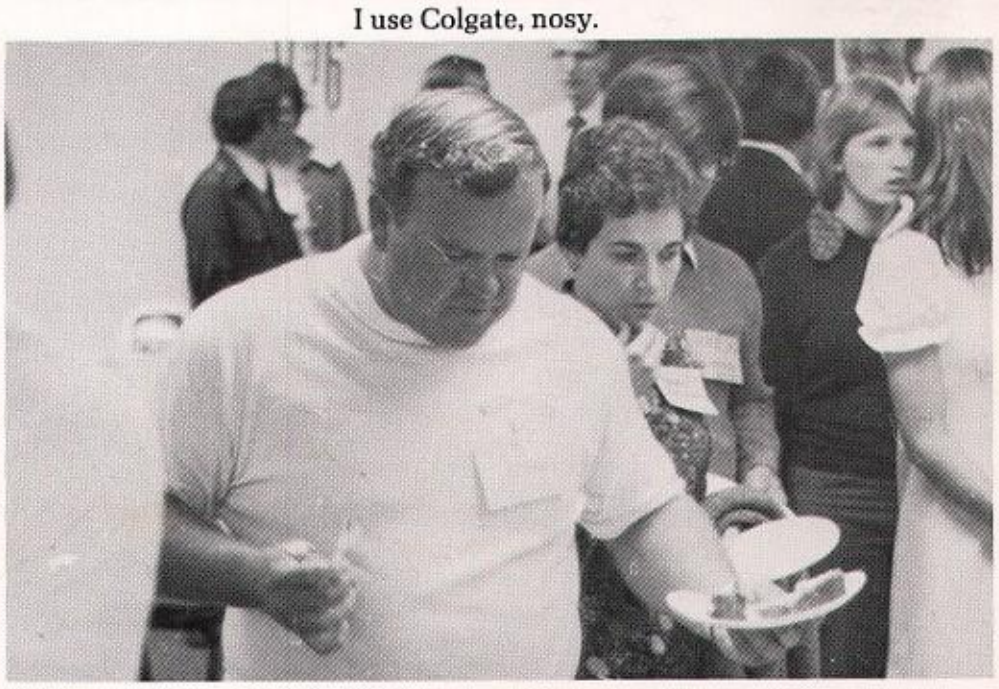
I use Colgate, nosy.

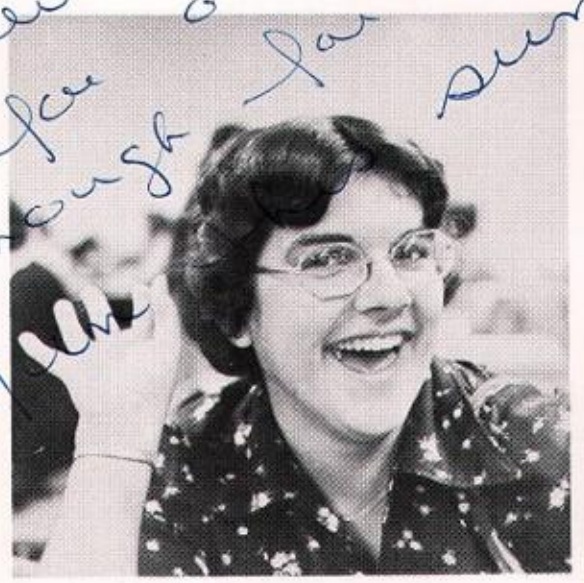


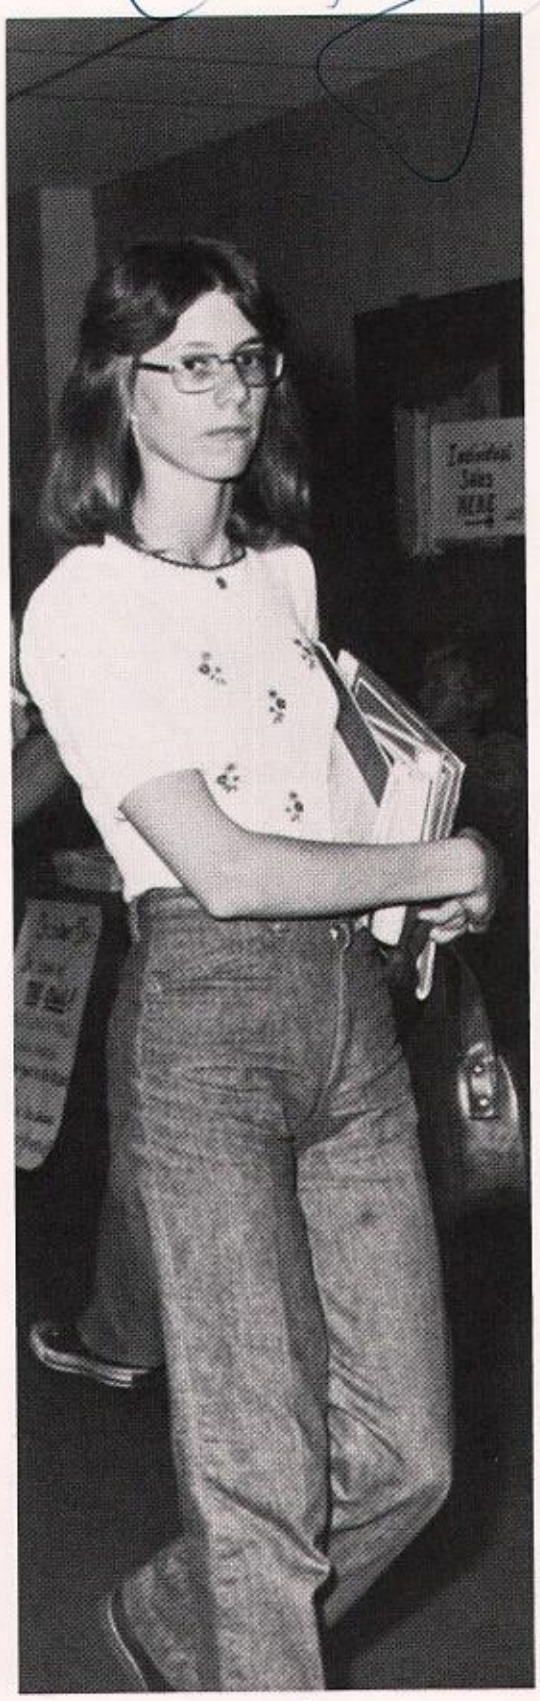
Oh! Mr. McDowell, I can explain.

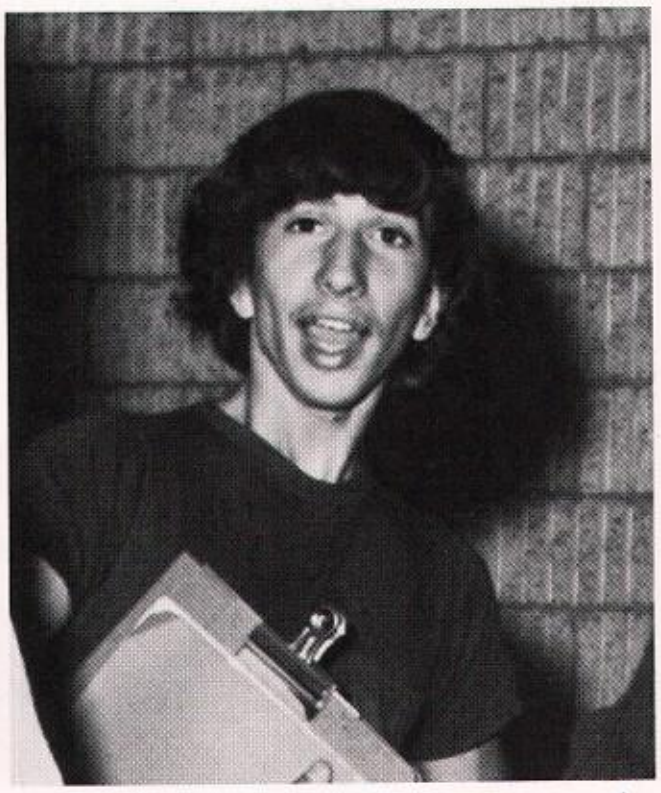


Glad I'm watching my weight.

Kim: To a super sweet guy in my Novels class. We'll never read another book a year. We just had five years. Have a good summer and enjoy yourself.
Love Cathy

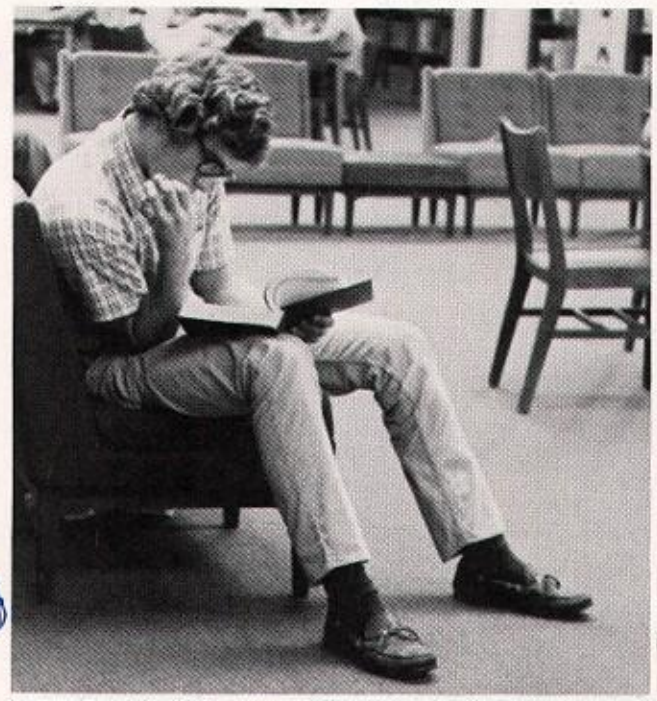






Shatz, Well this has been a hectic year, but one that's made us all look very forward to next year. I hope we get in some classes together cuz were two of the best "rowdies" there ever were! I wish you that D weren't so responsible for you and Sam cuz I feel really, really guilty. Maybe

Juniors



Kim,

To a real nice girl that I just got to know real well this year. I'm glad I did. You are a sweet girl and a true friend. Remember the "fun" we had in Gertsmyers class. She really got to me. Also don't forget Iber's class. Good luck to you in every thing you do. Keep smilin. behave and good luck with T.P. See ya.

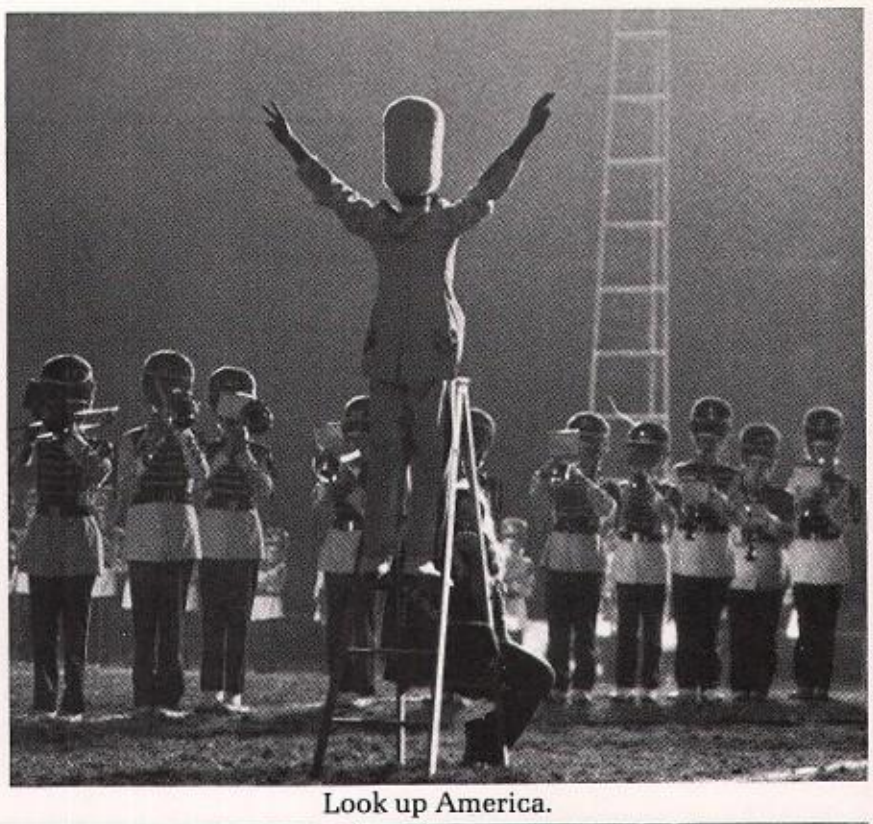
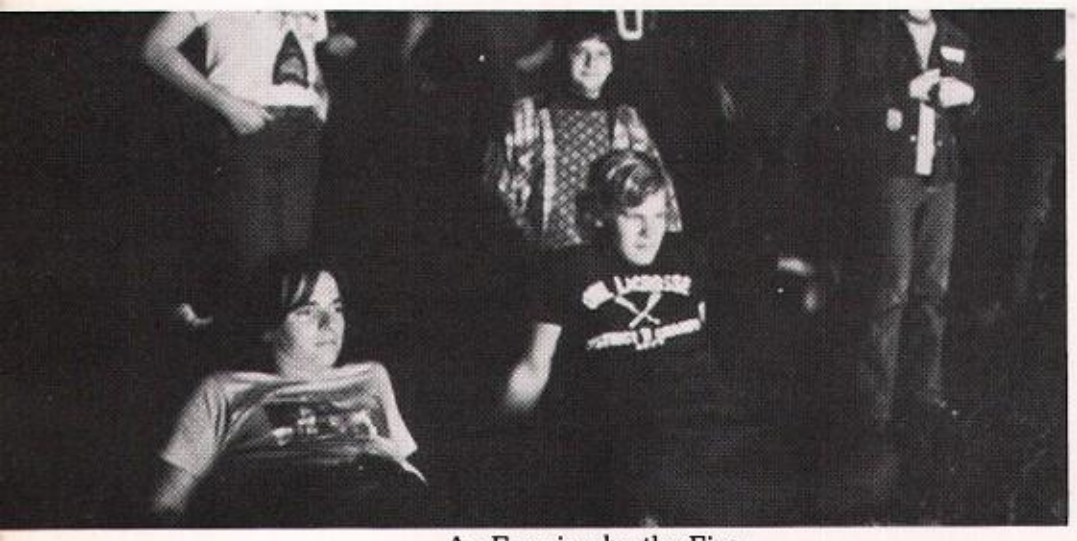
Homecoming

A scavenger hunt for the pieces of an owl jigsaw puzzle. True blue and pure white. A rambunctious parade though the streets of Westminster on a brisk, starry October night. A prize winning float created by the class of '76: The Liberty Bell. A bon fire crackling softly in the frosty breeze of autumn. A traditional car bash and pep rally. A hard fought football game against Thomas Johnson. Elated cries of "Beer, beer for Westminster High!" A perfect "76" formed by the W.H.S. marching band. This was Owlcoming '75. A time filled with wonderful memories for all.



Look up America.



An Evening by the Fire.

Executive Boards

The homeroom representatives of each class have the great responsibility of informing their class of the decisions made at class executive board meetings. They also staff special committees to plan for class activities such as proms, picnics, the Senior Mixer, fund raising dances, and contribute to such school activities as Homecoming, Christmas, and Bicentennial projects.

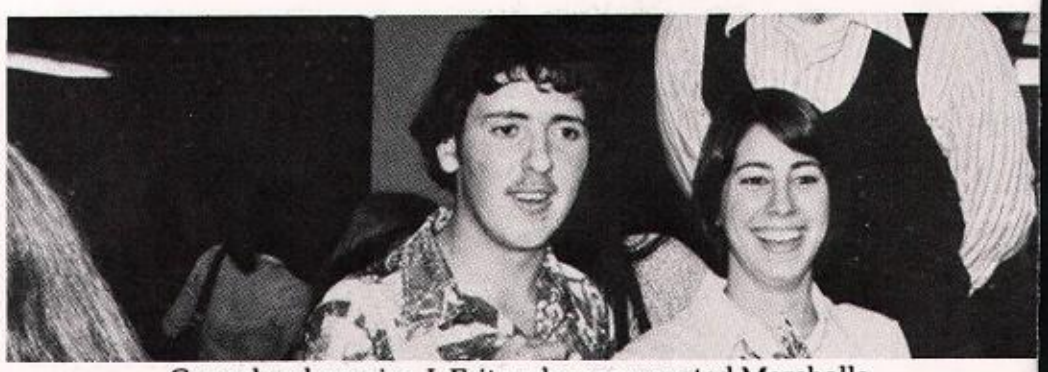
The Student Marshalls is a very important organization. The members do everything from ushering for public functions held at the school, to blocking stairwells during periods of testing, to providing guided tours of the school. If you are ever lost, don't panic. Just find a marshall and you are sure to be guided in the right direction.



Cupcake champion J. Fritz who represented Marshalls.

Youth and Gov't

The main objective of Youth and Govt. is to enlighten those students who have a sincere interest in government and governmental processes. The climax of the year is a trip to Annapolis where a mock session of the state legislature is held, which enables students to experience first hand, how law-making processes really work.

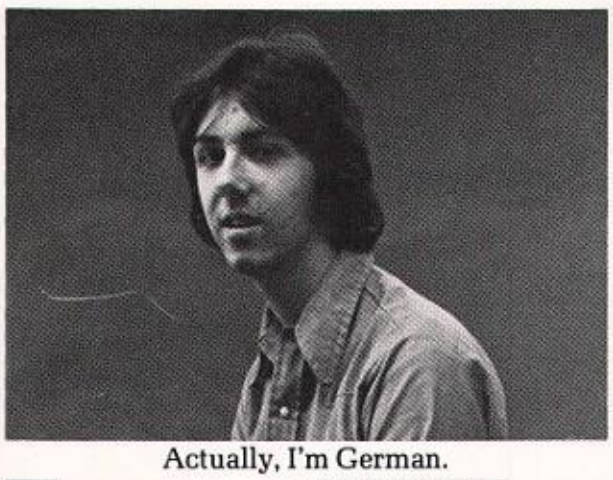
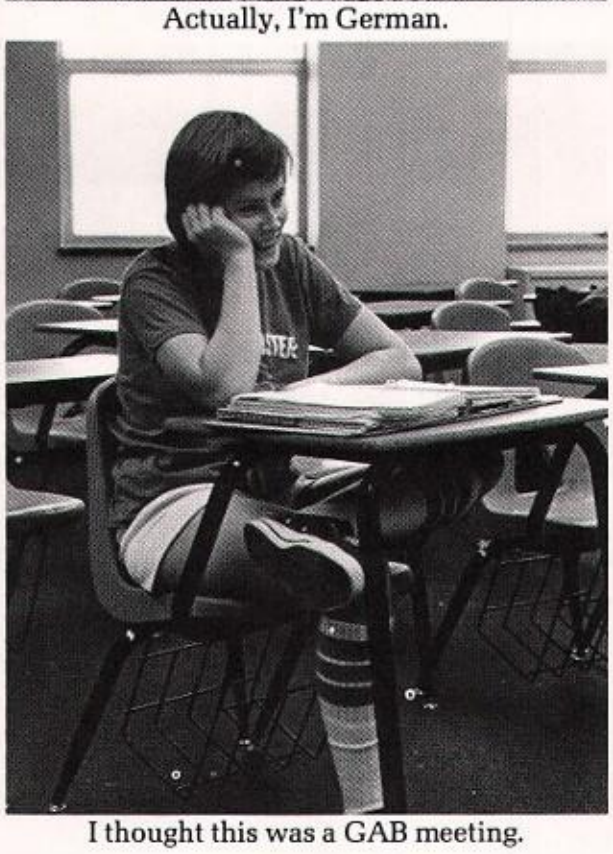
Stop laughing Leslie, I know I'm right.



Actually, I'm German.



I thought this was a GAB meeting.

Parlez-vous francais? The members of the French Club do, but they don't spend all of their time speaking French. They have many activities including Christmas caroling, in French no less, and a trip to an exclusive French restaurant where they taste some of the finest French delicacies. Don't snails dipped in butter sound delectable?

I still think I'm right.

Health Careers Club

Health Careers Club is an organization for those students who are interested in becoming involved in the health field as a profession. The club provides an opportunity for members to learn about such careers through speakers and field trips. This organization is also responsible for the Send A Mouse to College campaign and the Blood Donation Campaign.

Hey, dig the sexy doctor!

Ecological Science

Saving the world is hard work.

The Ecological Science Club is composed of those students who are deeply concerned with man's selfish exploitation of the environment.
Through the collection of paper, glass, and cans they do their part in helping to preserve the beauty of nature for the enjoyment of future generations.

Bio Aides

The Biology Lab Aides have many responsibilities. These include caring for lab animals, cleaning and putting away lab equipment, preparing materials for biology experiments, and setting up demonstrations for teachers. Without their assistance ,the biology teachers would feel a very definite loss.

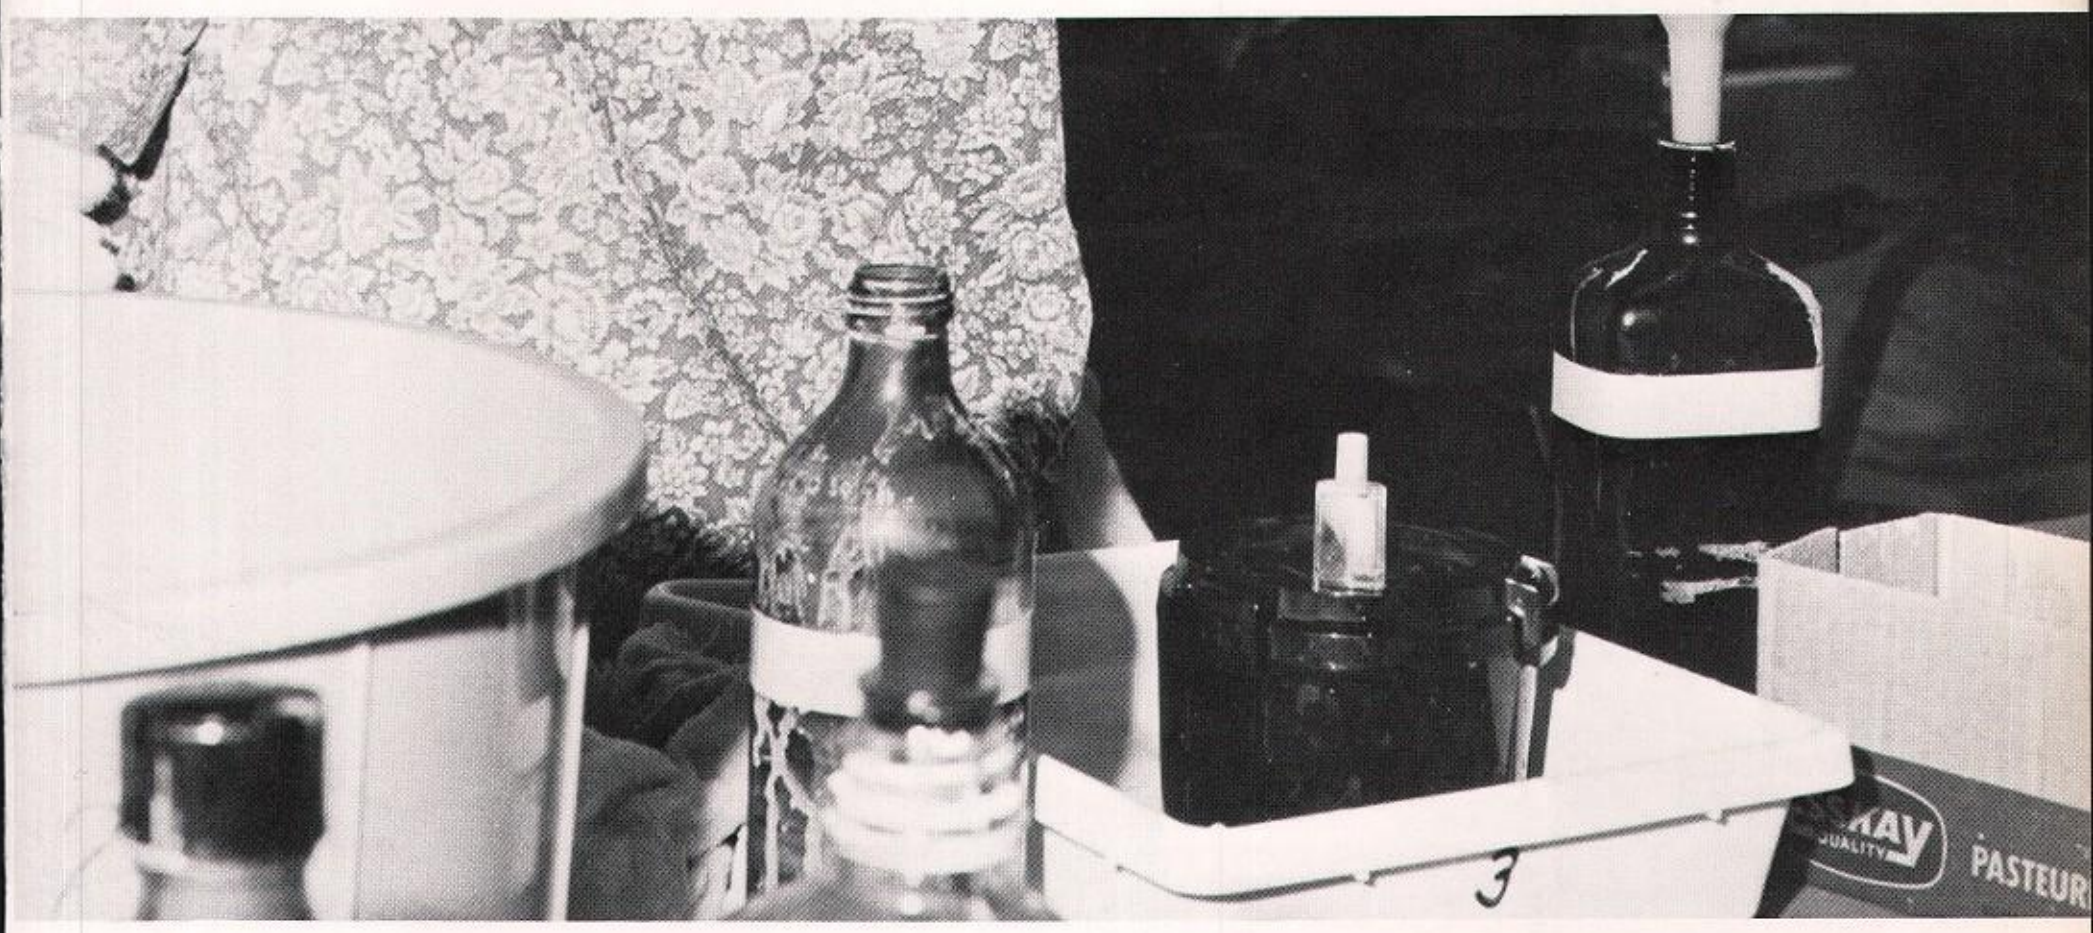
Chem Aides

The Chemistry Aides are our resident Merlins. They spend their free time stirring up eerie chemical concoctions whose purposes are unknown, and preparing elaborate labs for the chemistry teachers. Although they have not been successful in turning lead into gold, it has been reported that several students have entered the chemistry laboratory, and never returned.



Service Club

The Service Club is a group of concerned students who perform many worthwhile and helpful services for the community. One of their major projects this year was the provision of a Christmas tree, dinner, and presents to a local needy family.

SAE

"Our future is in our schools" is the motto of the organization Student Action for Education. In support of this belief the members of SAE helped with American Education Week by guiding parents through the school and by supplying refreshments. Members were also given the opportunity to visit a local college and investigate programs for careers in education.

Majorettes

Donning white tuxedos and blue sequins, the majorettes manipulate their spinning silver batons through intricate motions as they perform their routines during the Owl half-time shows. Their skillful twirling is the "frosting on the cake" as it adds zest and sparkle to the WHS Marching Band.

Captain Debbie Schaeffer

Co-Captain Cecilia Haislip

Marching Band

Neither fog, nor rain, nor cold of night can discourage the Owl Marching Band from performing at their very best. Whether they are at a football game, a parade or a pep rally, they always provide overwhelming enthusiasm and school spirit. This year their two greatest achievements, by far, were the Bicentennial half-time show where they executed a perfect 76 and their first television appearance, on "Almost Anything Goes." There is no doubt that they are very deserving of the pride of the entire student body of WHS.

Westminster Senior High School Concert Band

Concert Band

No matter what type of music you like, whether it be rock, jazz, classical or a rousing march, the Concert Band can play it and play it well. Their one major performance is a spring concert for which they practice diligently.

Someday I'll be in the Flute Olympics!

Band Officers: Row 1: C. Crowl (Uniform Cus.), S. Bauerlien (Uniform Cus.), D. Parish (Pres.), T. LiVolsi (Vice-Pres.). Row 2: P. Crowl (Sec.), J. LiVolsi (Drum Major), J. Armacost (Treas.). Missing: N. Boyd (Librarian).

Flag Corps

The Flag Corps added an extra bit of spice to the Owl half-time shows and parade performances this year, as they waved and twirled their flags of "true blue and pure white" which symbolizes WHS.

Patty's always the center of attraction.

Rifle Corps

Window wash, under Arms, triple throw, up, and the Thing may sound unusual but they are all maneuvers performed by Sugar Bear's "Raining" Rifles. They braved rain, fog and frozen fingers to march and twirl their rifles proudly, as they triple manualed their way into your heart.

"All together now."

Band Aides

Contrary to popular belief, the band aides are not those little plastic strips one puts on a cut. They are, in reality, the dedicated students who follow the band, wherever it goes. They perform many duties which include saving bleacher space for the band at football games, carrying coats and blankets and picking up music dropped by the musicians. So the next time you see a band member stand up and shout "band aide" you'll know that they don't mean Johnson and Johnson's or Curad.

Theatrics Unlimited

In actuality, Theatrics Unlimited is a fancy name for the good old drama club. This club serves as the starting place for drama students. From here join other groups such as Mime Troupe and Production Crew, wherever their interests may be. Eventually they can earn membership into the International Thespian Society.

Bottom Row: E. Myers, (Pres.); D. Hughes, (Vice-Pres.); L. Hofferberth, (Sec.); E. Shirley, (Treas.). Second Row: C. Mowbray, L. Frock, W. Palmer, L. Linthicum, S. Soine, B. Huber, T. Clark, K. Production and Lighting Crew

The members of this group are the "unsung heroes" of the stage. Without these loyal students it would be impossible for the actors in our school to perform. Whether it be an assembly, a theatrical production, or our annual Talent Show, Key Club Kapers, or the Christmas show, you'll find stage crew members standing by.

Chorus

The WHS Chorus is composed of over 100 students whose voices mingle to form one clear beautiful musical sound. Their two major performances are at the Christmas and spring concerts. Between these events, they spend hours and hours practicing. But the lovely music one hears at these performances makes all the hard work worthwhile.

Christmas Festivities

Cheerful smiles and warm hearts, the soft smooth tones of the bells, the joyous voices of the chorus singing awe-inspiring "Hallelujah Chorus," and six Peppermints dancing to the whimsical strains of "The Christmas Candy Calendar," as they "picked a purple tie for Uncle Lou." These were among the many sights and sounds of the annual Christmas program at WHS. This year drama, mime, instrumental and choral music combined to make a beautiful and inspirational performance. A performance from which emanated the true spirit of Christmas.

Excuse me, we're looking for a stable . . .

And now, back to the pit.

The Mime Troupe

The Mime Troupe is a group of students who use no words for expression. Instead they employ complex body motions and facial expressions to communicate with the audience. In this way, the troupe is able to present a message to which each individual viewer may find a unique meaning.

International Thespian Society

This is an honor society for drama students much like NHS is for academics. Members of the society must work very hard to get inducted. This year the troupe put on its first full length production, "Tom Sawyer." The troupe also kept busy performing for the Senior Citizens Supper Club every month and holding workshops.

AAG:

This year the members of the OWL band and the Fall Varsity cheerleaders, not to mention a cold yearbook photographer, traveled to Harford Community College to participate in the taping of the program "Almost Anything Goes." After weeks of training at the city playground, the team found themselves involved in such stunts as "Teddy Bear Tackle" and "Super Guy." Citizens from Westminster, undaunted by freezing temperatures and fierce winds, competed in various stunts as the cheerleaders and band members urged them to a rousing victory over Belair and Havre de Grace, making Coach Pete McDowell very proud. Next, the Westminster team traveled to Culpepper, Va., where they participated in the semi-final competition. However, in spite of the great support they received from both the band and cheerleaders, they were narrowly defeated. But, whether they were victorious or not, we should be proud of the citizens of Westminster, the band and cheerleaders of WHS.

The Valentine Spirit Strikes WHS With a Talent Show

The annual Valentine Talent Show, sponsored by the OWL newspaper, again brought unique entertainment to the stage of WHS. This production gave undiscovered performers the opportunity to display their talents. This year the first place winners were Larry Glick and Mike Marzullo for their popular Percussion Unlimited ensemble.

Yearbook

Snuff, Betpo, Dee Who? Do they sound like some new additions to the Seven Dwarves? Sorry to disillusion you but they're not. In fact they are just a few of the many spirits who haunt the Yearbook office both day and night. Reports have been made that loud groans and screams of terror and agony have been heard coming from this room. But these reports are unconfirmed since they are only heard upon the approach of Yearbook deadlines.

Quill and Scroll

To be chosen as a member of this honor society is a great achievement. This organization is one that recognizes those journalism students who proved themselves to have not only ability but creativity as well. The members are chosen in their senior year from the staffs of the three school publications, Sunburst, The Owl Newspaper and The Owl Yearbook.

Sunburst

The Sunburst staff is composed of the school's budding poets and writers. Their hard work and creativity culminate in the semi-annual publication of the WHS literary magazine. This publication gives those students with writing ability the opportunity to submit their works for publication.

Sports' Carnival

The GAB Sports' Carnival is an evening of fun with games, food, and other activities organized by various school clubs. Among the many events are Tour de France (a tricycle race), the Haunted House, Cabaret, and a pie throwing contest. The climax of the evening is the crowning of the King and Queen of sports.

WOWL

"Good morning, this is WOWL singing on." These are the cheerful words which greet you as you enter the school each morning. They are intermingled with the strains of the latest hit records, the music from which resounds through the crowded halls and homerooms to boost your spirits, enabling you to face another hectic day.

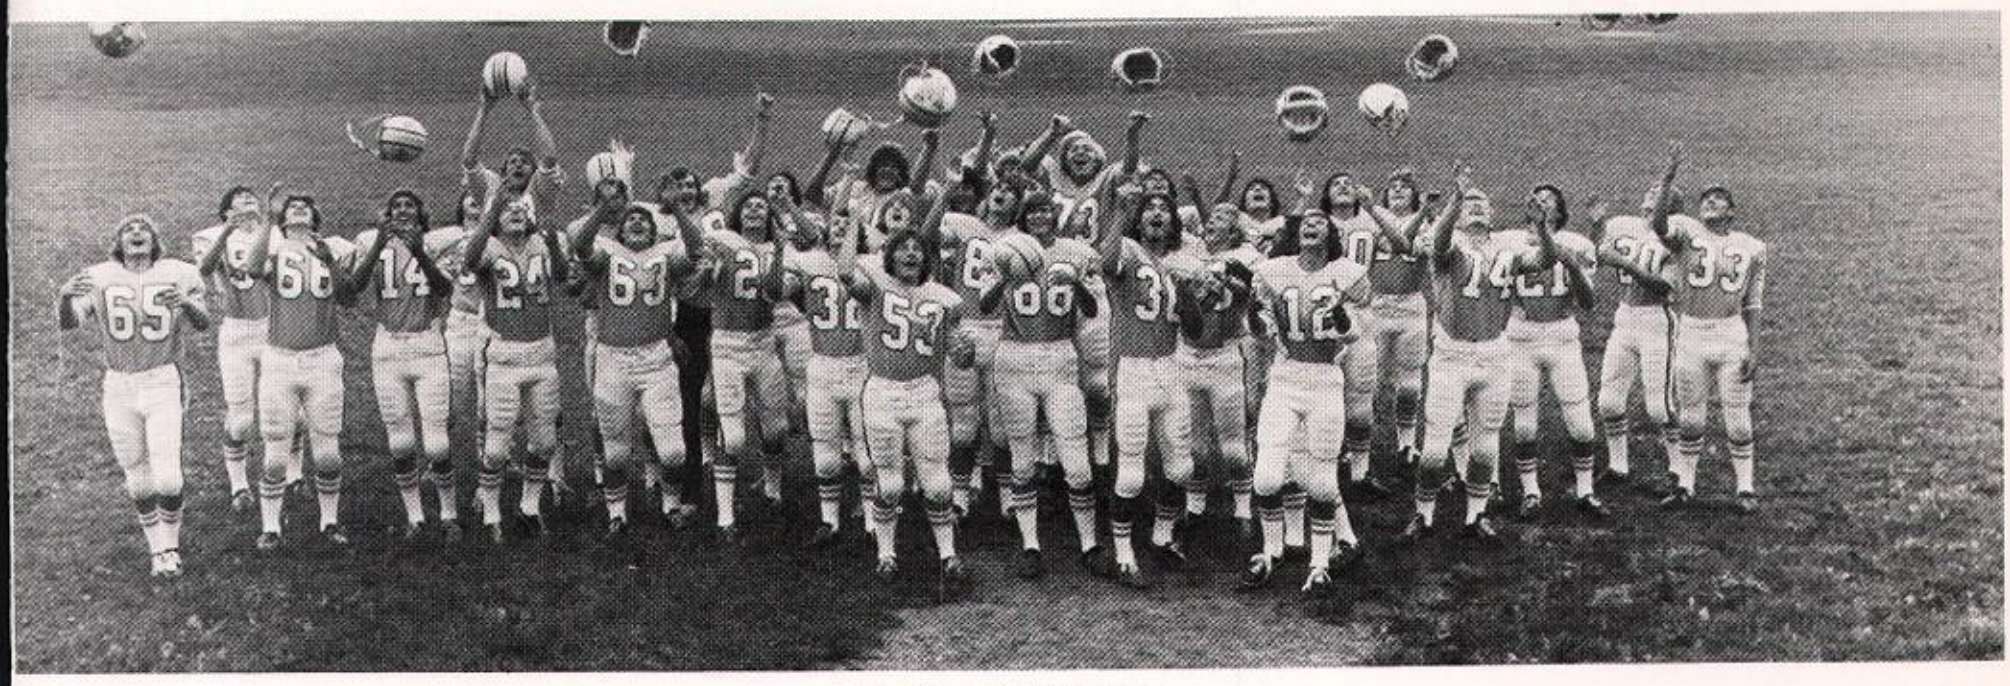
The dauntless Owl football team proved their perseverance and enthusiasm again this year as they braved all obstacles set before them in their quest for victory. Neither drenching rains nor thick clouds of fog could dampen their fighting spirit as they "held that line" all the way.



Up, Up, and AWAY???

J.V. Football

The J.V. and 9th grade football teams both had impressive seasons, with the Junior Varsity closing the year with 6 victories and only 1 loss. Both teams possess excellent abilities, which should be a great asset to next year's Varsity team.

Despite the final scoreboard, the Varsity Soccer team had what they considered, a successful season, losing most games by only one goal. Captain Mike Lord led the offense in goals and assists. The defense led by Scot Conley, allowed the fewest goals of any team in the past five years. So, all in all, the games were well worth the price of admission.

Austin on his way to a victory.

One, Two, Three and they're off.

There were no seniors on the Cross Country team this year so the runners worked exceptionally hard to compensate for their lack of experience. All of this work paid off for they received high standings in both the County and District championships.

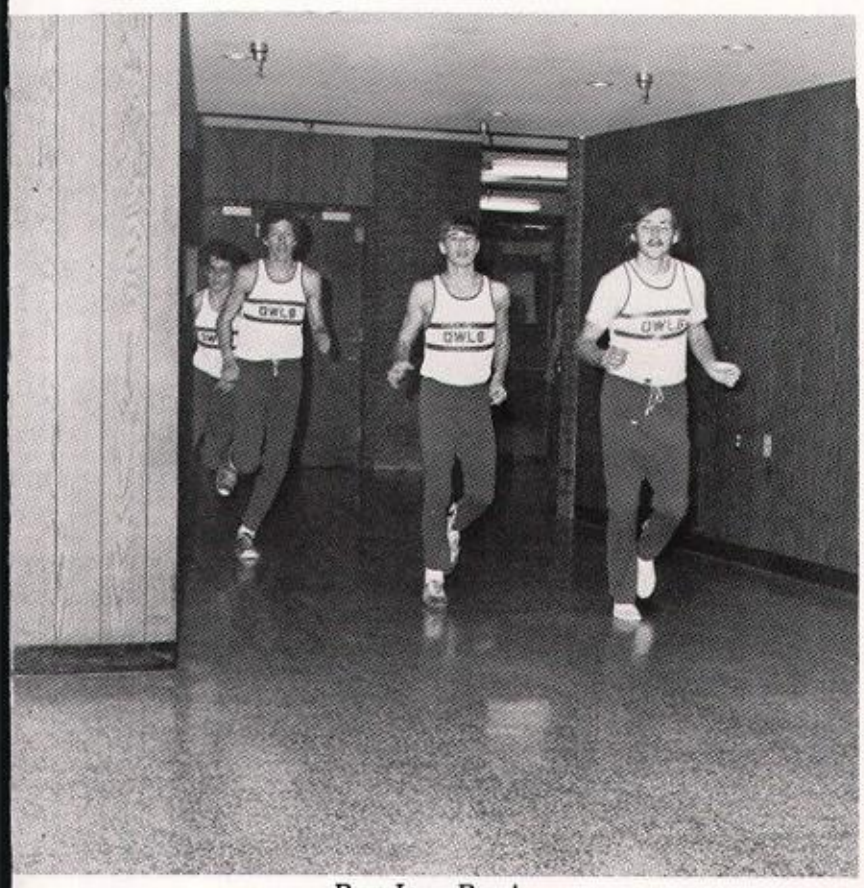
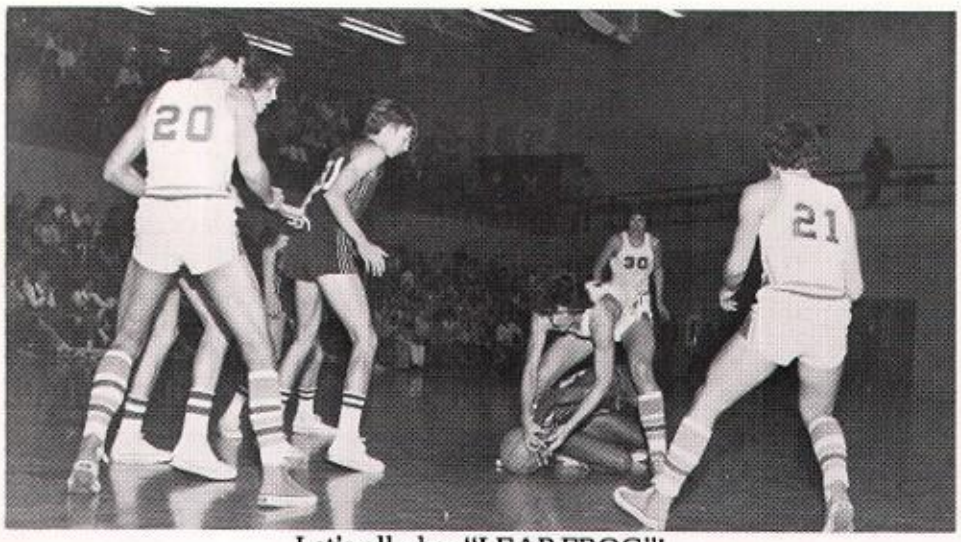
Put that down!



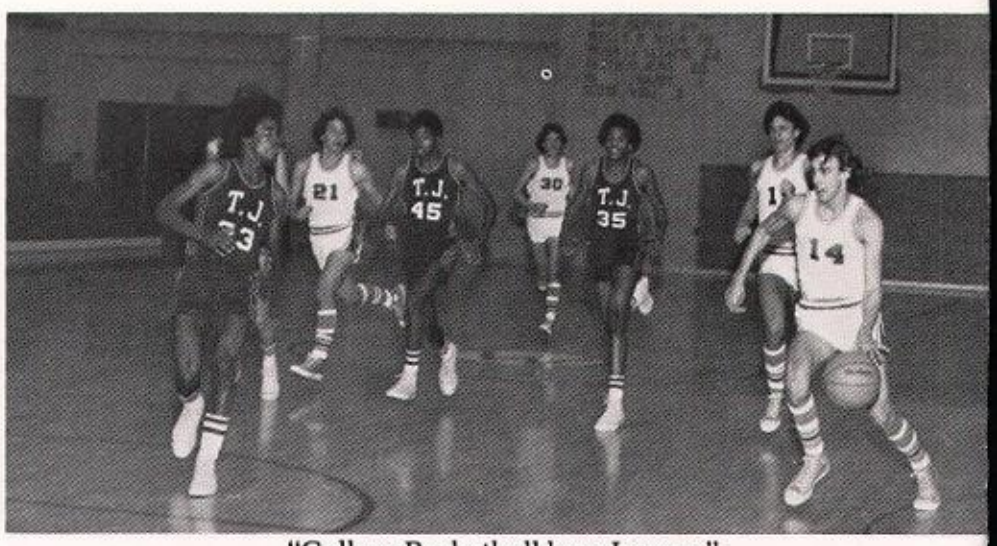
Run Joey Run!

My leg's higher than your leg.

Running in the lobby is against school policy unless you're in "Indoor Track." The Indoor Track team is "Faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive, and are able to leap tall buildings in a single bound."



Let's all play "LEAP FROG"!



"College Basketball here I come."

Boys Varsity Basketball

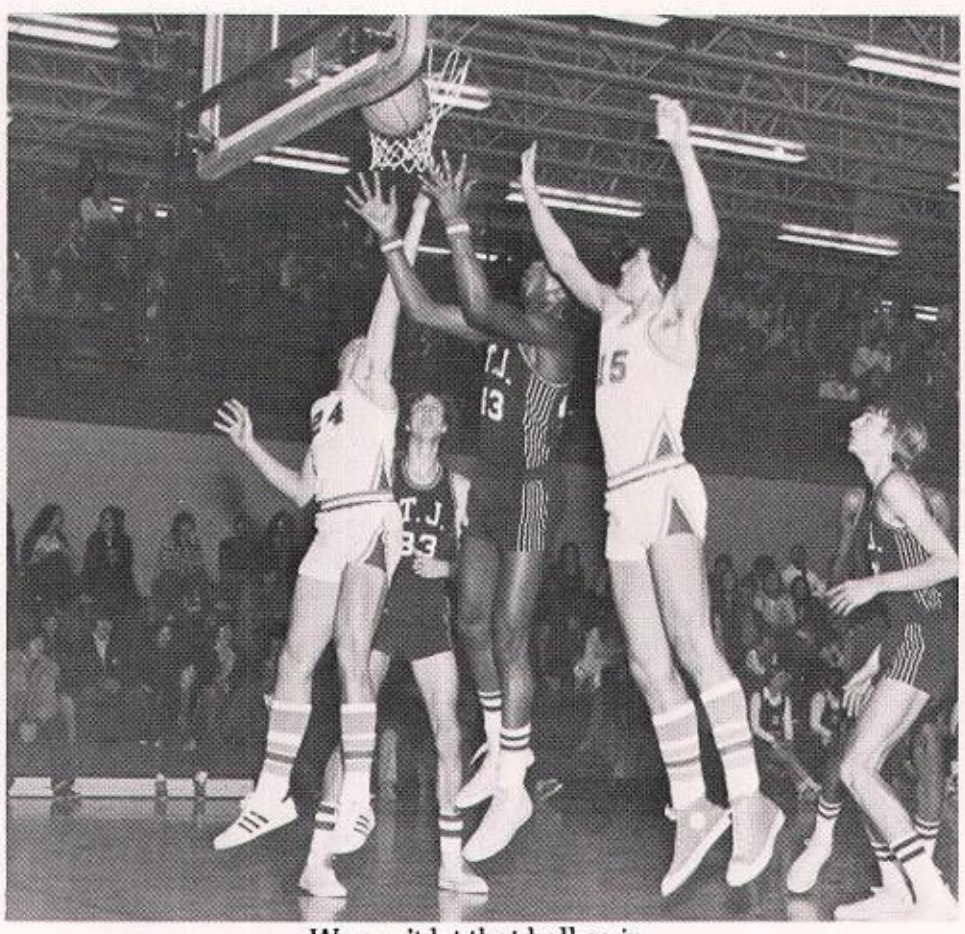
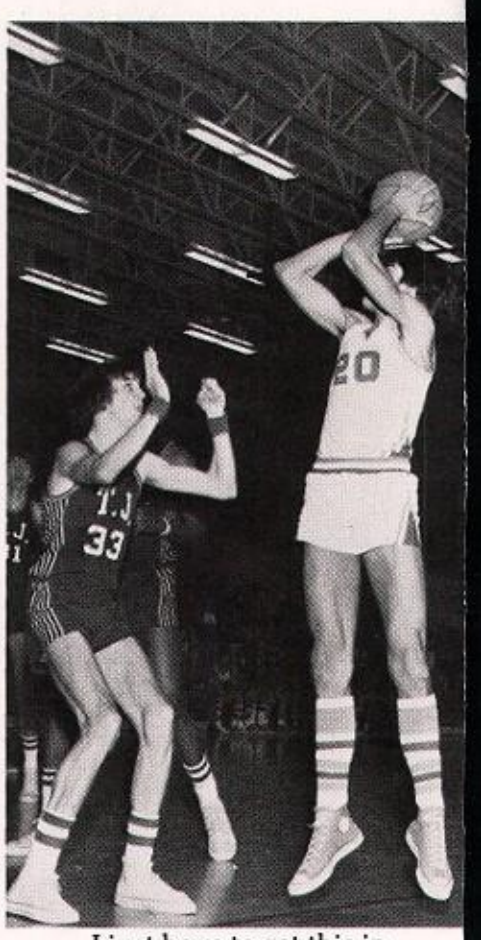
Basketball is one o the most exciting and quickest moving o American sports and the Owl Basketbal Team has certainly shown why. Thei effective offense defense and ball-han dling skills were evi dent as they improved their season over las year.

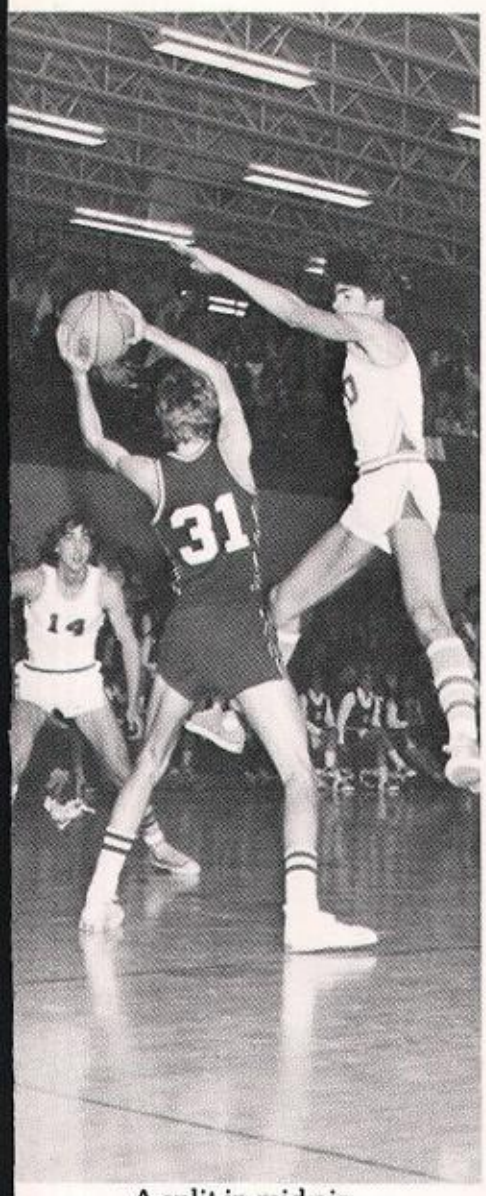
I didn't know you could jump that high.



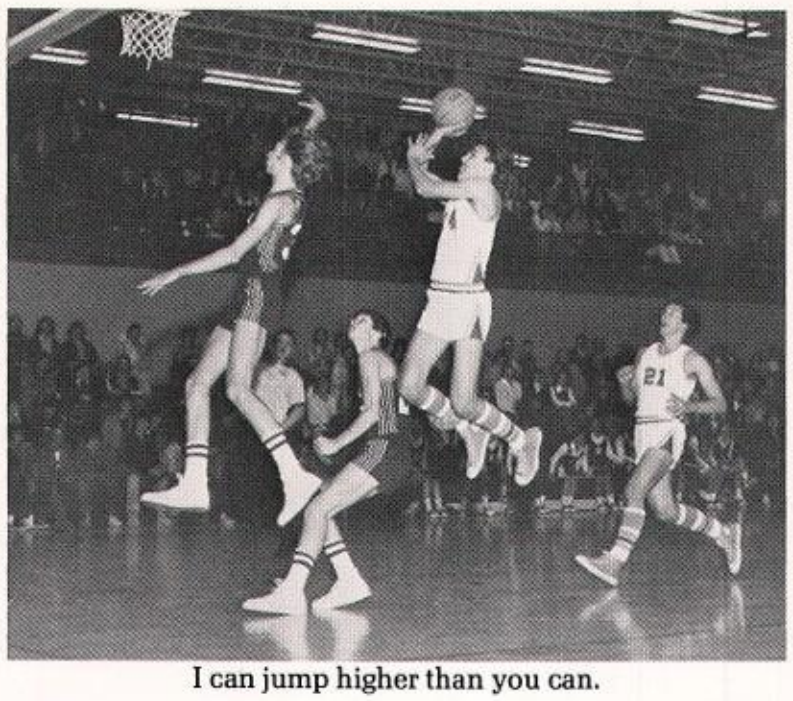
We can't let that ball go in.



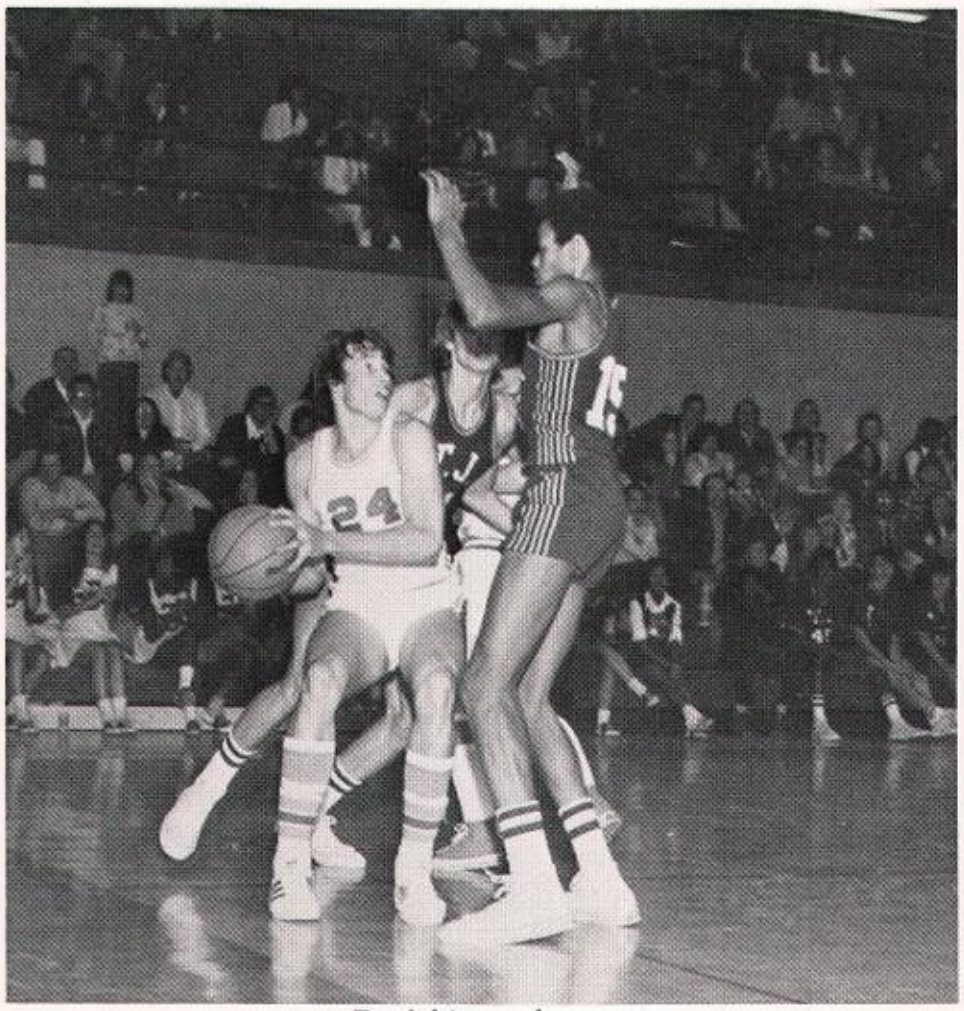
I just have to get this in.



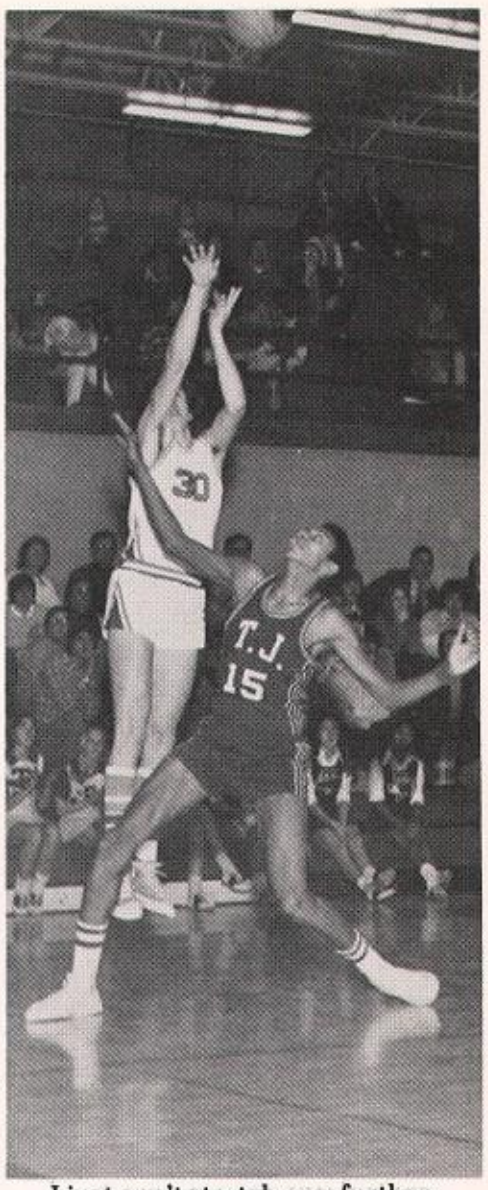
A split in mid air.



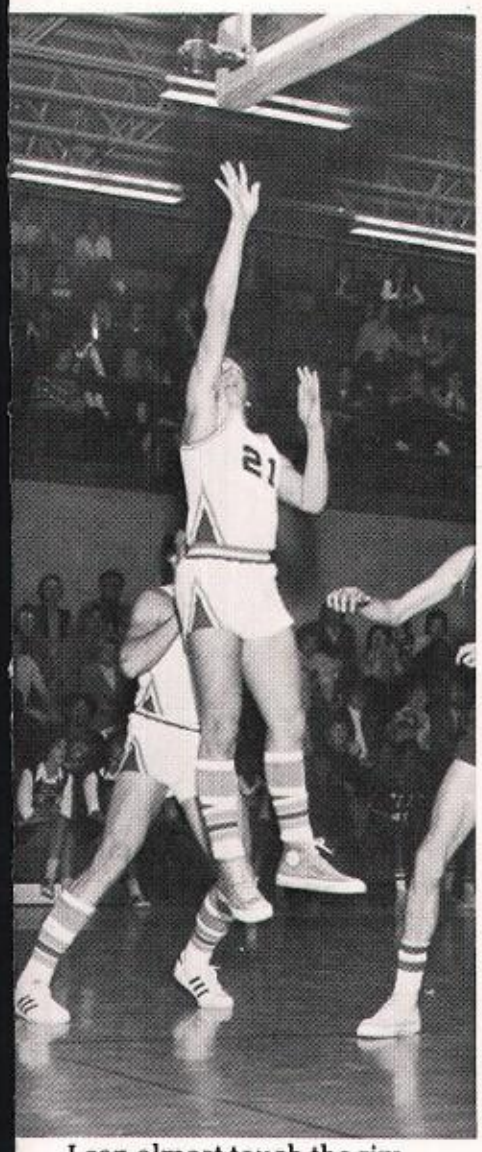
I can jump higher than you can.



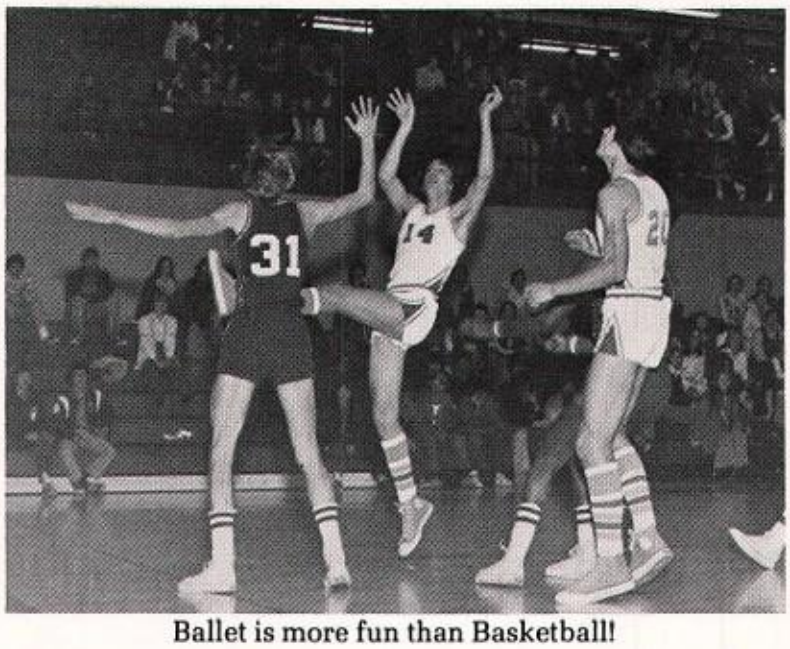
Don't hit me please.



I just can't stretch any further.



I can almost touch the rim.



Ballet is more fun than Basketball!

I'm going to throw the ball around you, not in the air.

J.V. Basketball

The J.V. Basketball team showed through their determination and hard work that they are a truly winning team. Their sportsman like qualities both on and off the court will surely make them welcome additions to next year's Varsity team.

J.V. Head Coach T. Bordeman.

(front) J. Moss, J. Baer. (back) R. Shaulis, W. Frisby, C. Biggus, J. Petrella, B. Springer, R. Dell, B. Bowerso M. Keener, B. Lichtfuss, M. Berkowitz, W. Johnson.

9th Grade Basketball

This is suppose to be basketball not KARATE.

Whether playing offense or defense, or shooting or dribbling, the 9th grade Basketball Team always exhibits its best efforts. Their perseverance and hard work are two essential factors to the formation of a winning team.

First Row: O. Norris. Second Row: M. Jones, B. Baumgardner, C. Snyder, R. Lord, M. Strine, D. Lewis. Third Row: B. Shook, G. Robinson, S. Quinley, S. Nevin, P. Bowersox, W. Johnson.

And he wins again!

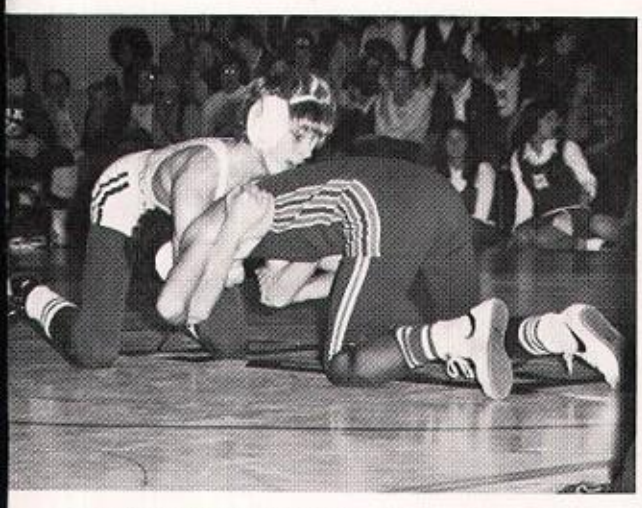
The J.V. wrestlers learned the strategy and skills which are many times needed to overtake a heavier and stronger opponent. They also perfected wrestling techniques so that next year's varsity team will be a strong one.

I thought you said I was the best.

9th Grade Wrestling

Tie-ups, leg dives, sit-outs, and pins are just a few of the holds learned and used by the 9th grade wrestlers. Through much practice and rigorous physical conditioning, they have proven themselves to have the elements of a winning team.



There's just no way I can turn him over.

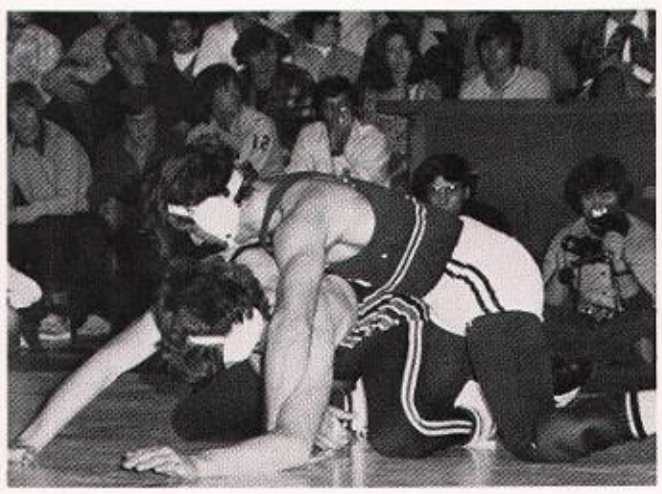
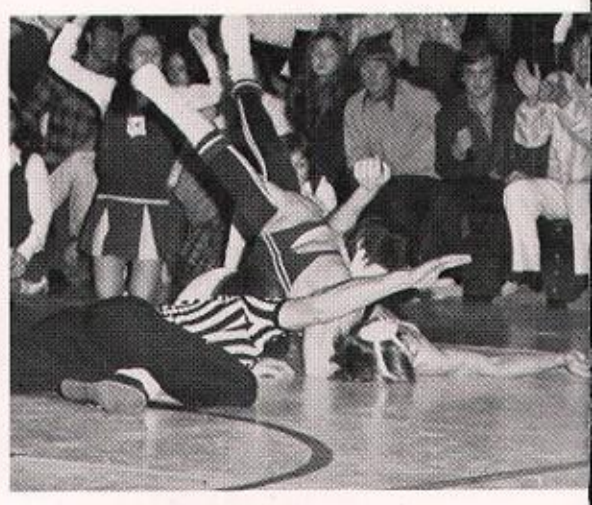
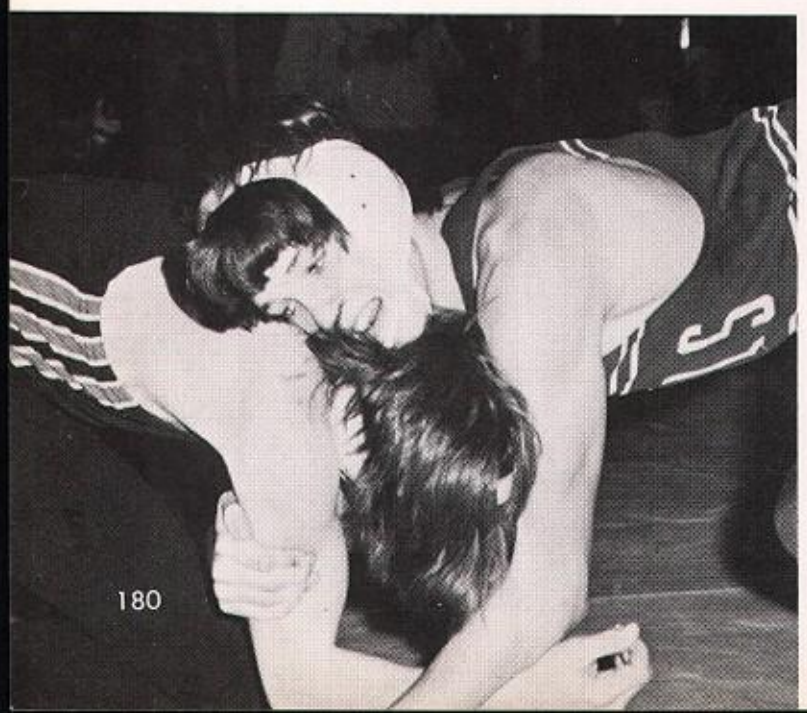
Ouch! You're hurting me.

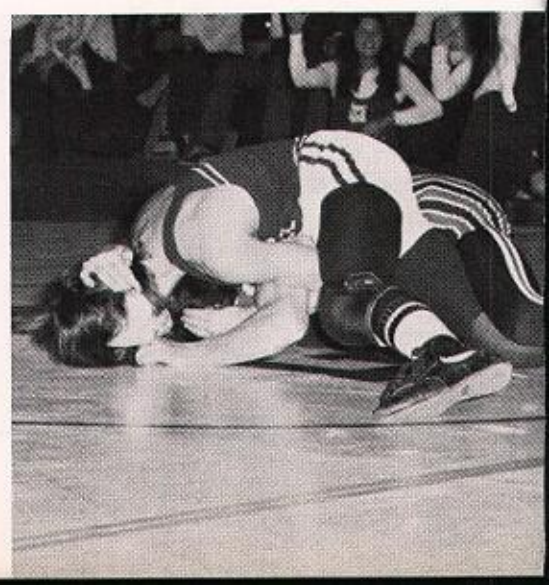


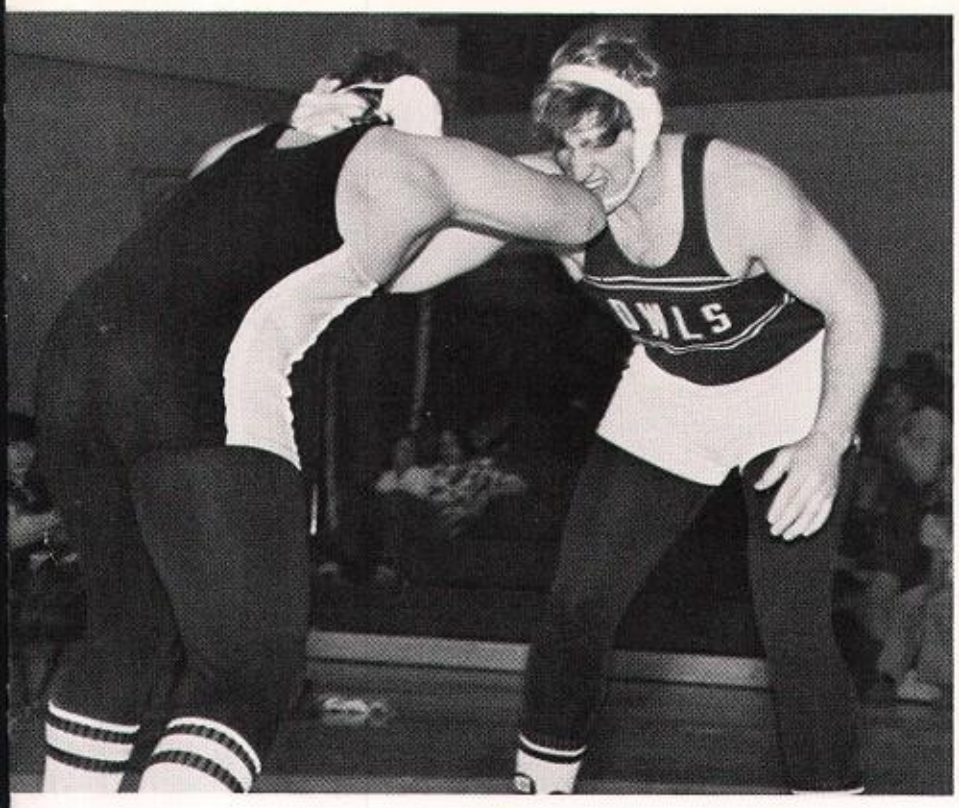
I just can't make it.



Westminster about to make another pin.

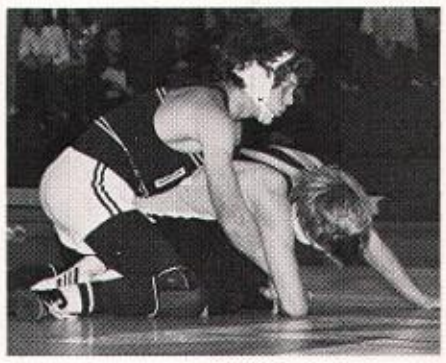




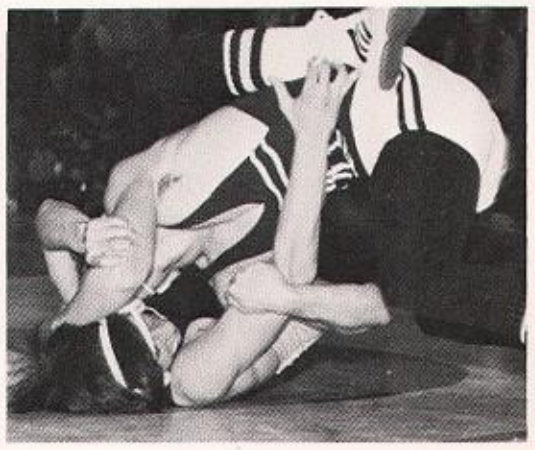


Don't bite me off.

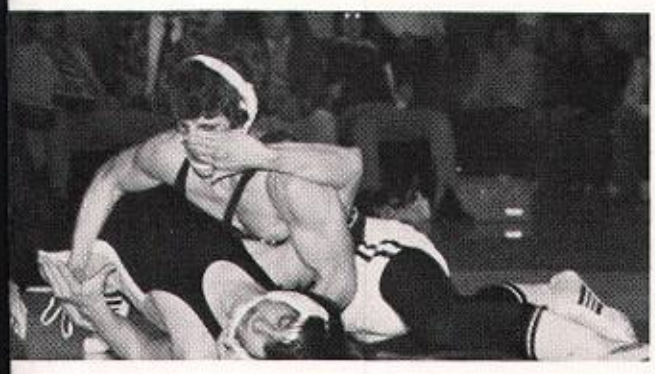
Let's stick to wrestling!



Harry's always on top of everything!

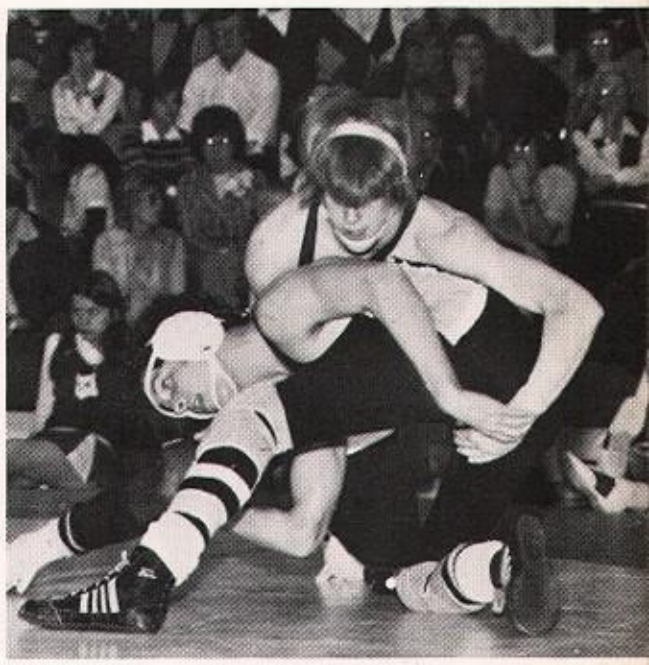


"The Tumblers."



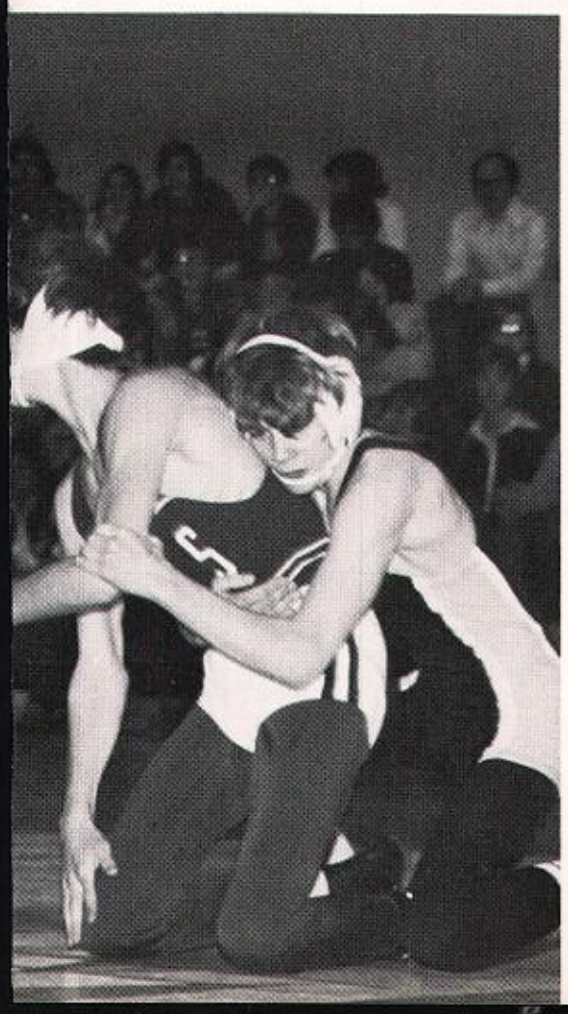
Thanks I needed that!

The Cheerleaders celebrate Parents night.



Hey don't hurt my arm.

Will the clock ever run out?



The Varsity Wrestlers again proved themselves as members of a consistently outstanding team this year. They literally kept the opposition pinned to the mats through the use of excellent wrestling techniques and skilled maneuvers.

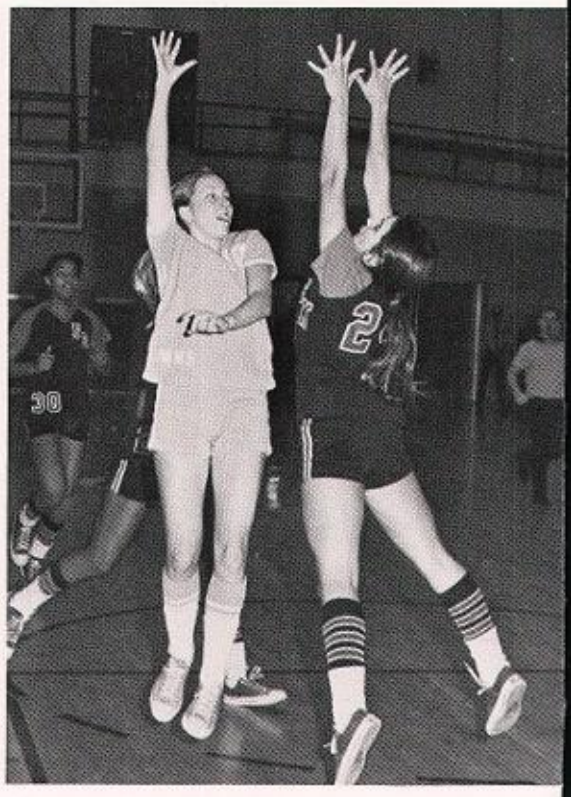
Girls Varsity Basketball

(sitting) C. Hoddinott, D. Ripley. (kneeling) E. Long, B. Martin. (standing) Coach D. Cook, K. Hale, J. Settle, D. Kram, G. Koontz, W. Beaver, M. Bollinger, J. Packer, S. Keeney, K. Kappes, S. Coffey.

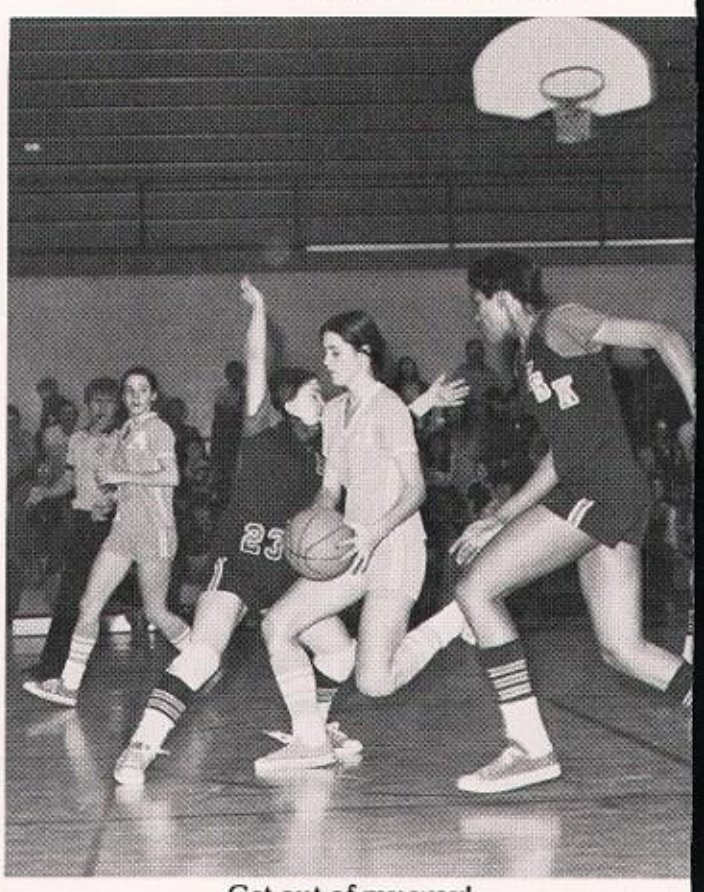


I can do anything you can do.

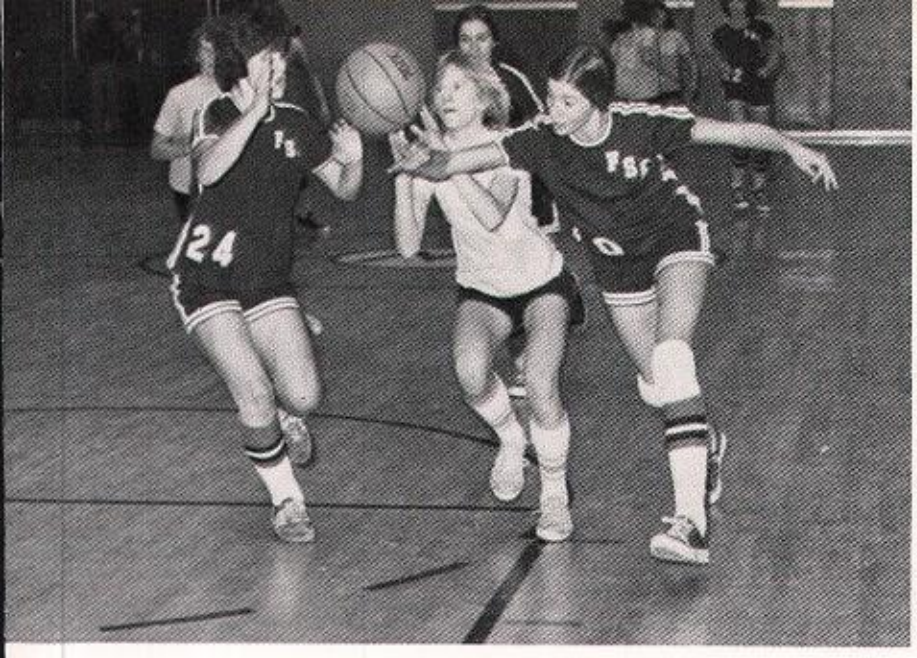
Move or I'll run you over.

Don't hold my hand.

The members of the girls' Varsity Basketball team spent hours practicing with diligence and enthusiasm for this year's season. Much hard work was put into the preparation of the team, and it paid off as their record shows. They deserve much recognition for their great team spirit and cooperation which are the marks of true sports women.



Get out of my way!

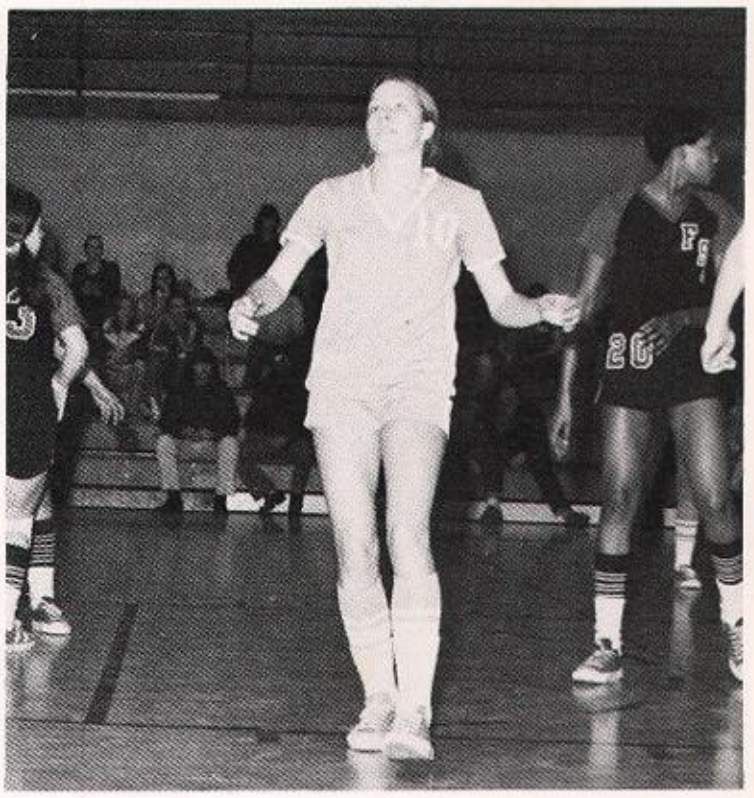


This is basketball not handball!

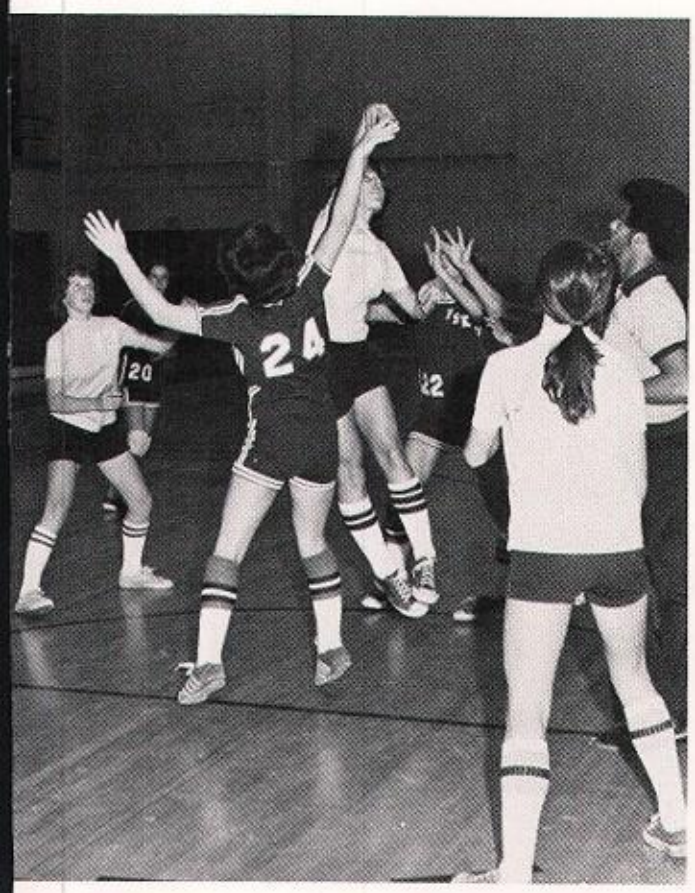
Team Strategy?

J.V. Girls Basketball

Top Row: N. Sackett, L. McDaniel, C. Grove, W. Peters, B. Luers, S. Cook, K. Finch, C. Hoddi-ott, M. Hoskins. Lower Row: D. Little, J. Langford, L. Bowers, K. Head, L. McIntyre, C. McGee.

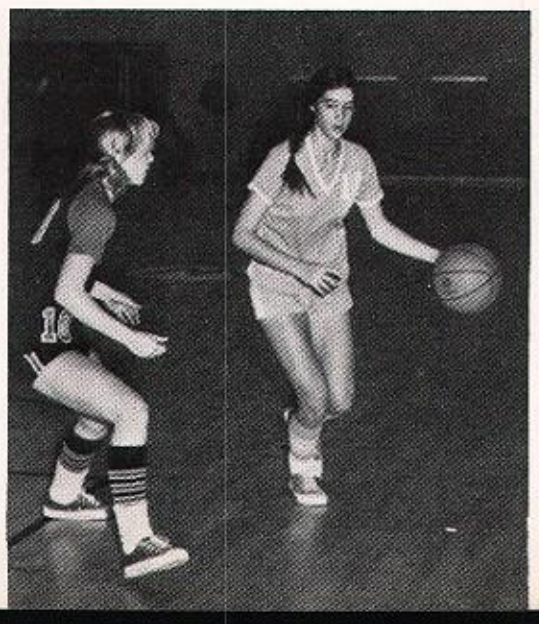


Someone up there hates me.



Where's the ball?

Rebounds, foul shots, lay-ups, and hooks. These are among the many skills which must be mastered by a basketball team. The girls Junior Varsity team worked hard to perfect these skills, so next year's Varsity Basketball team will be as victorious as this year's.



Peek-a-boo anyone?

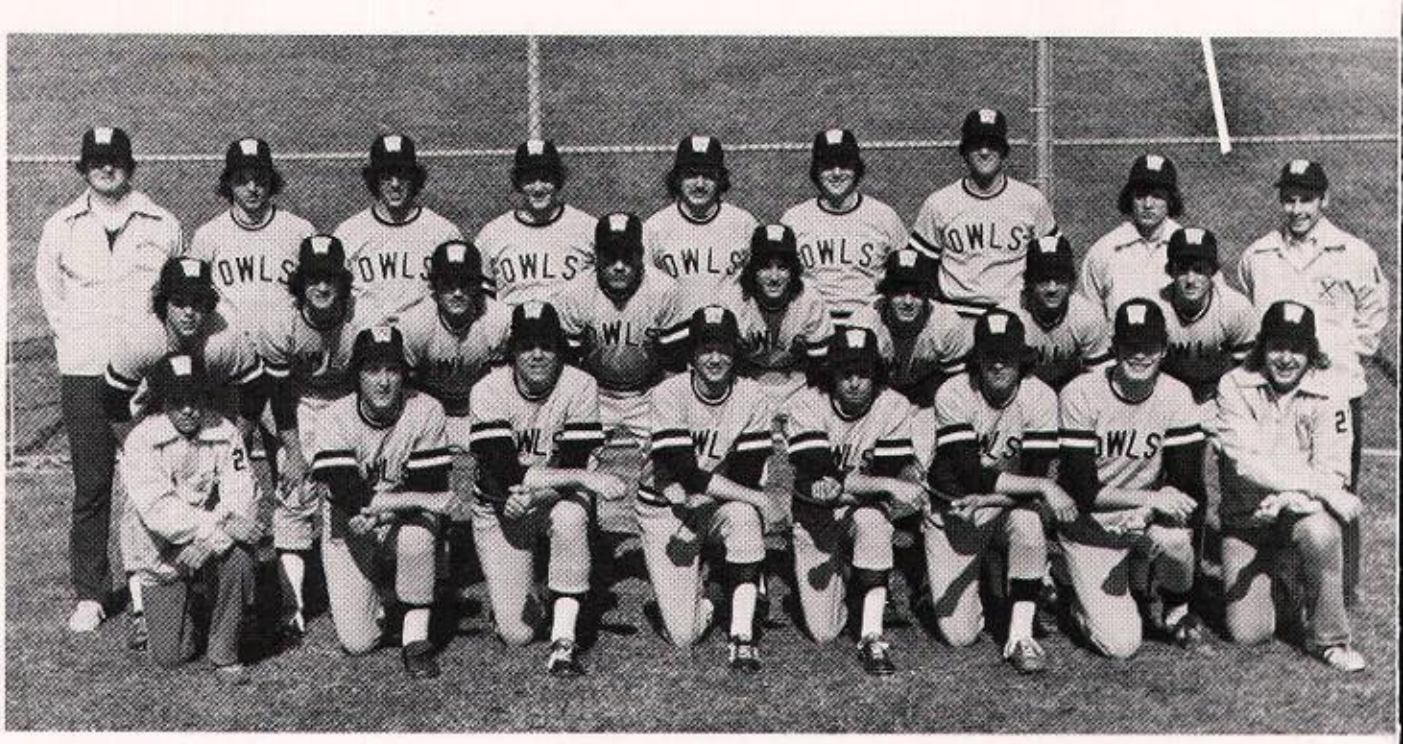
Patty-Cake.

Is this what they mean by a POP fly?

Awaiting execution.

Baseball

Like Mom and apple pie, the game of baseball has become an American tradition. The members of the Owl Baseball Team proudly uphold this tradition through their excellent fielding, batting, and over all playing. So "Batter Up!"



First Row: D. Taylor, B. Frick, M. Peeling, M. Godwin, J. Shugars, B. Harman, S. Young, M. Bayline. Second Row: M. Blackman, J. Moss, M. Schaeffer, J. Baer, D. Bair, D. Tibbs, T. Stullar, B. Move out of my way, I'm coming home.

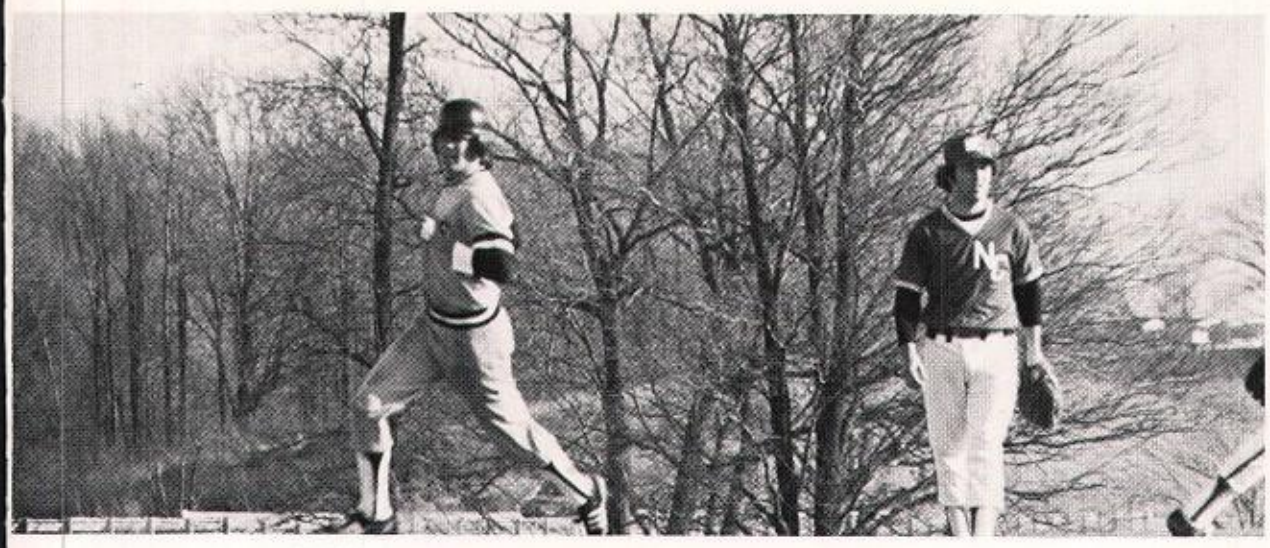
Get up, you fool!

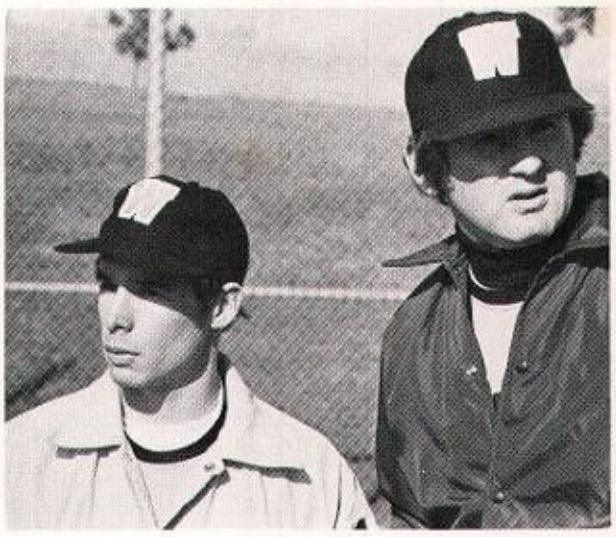


He'll be coming round the corner when he comes . . .

Seniors

Where are you going?

Brooks Robinson II



Which way did the team go?

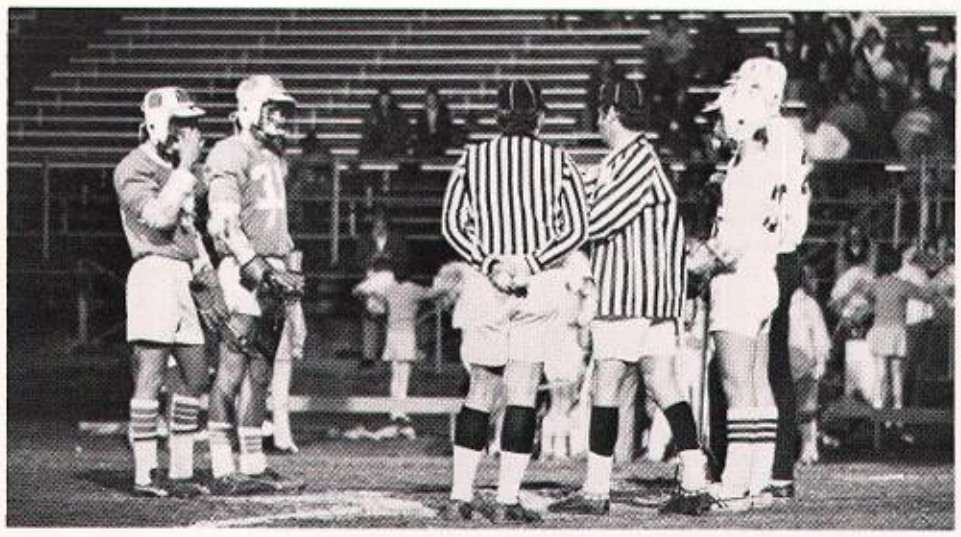
And for my next act . . .

Through wind and sun!

I'm ready and waiting.

Oh, that was a good one.

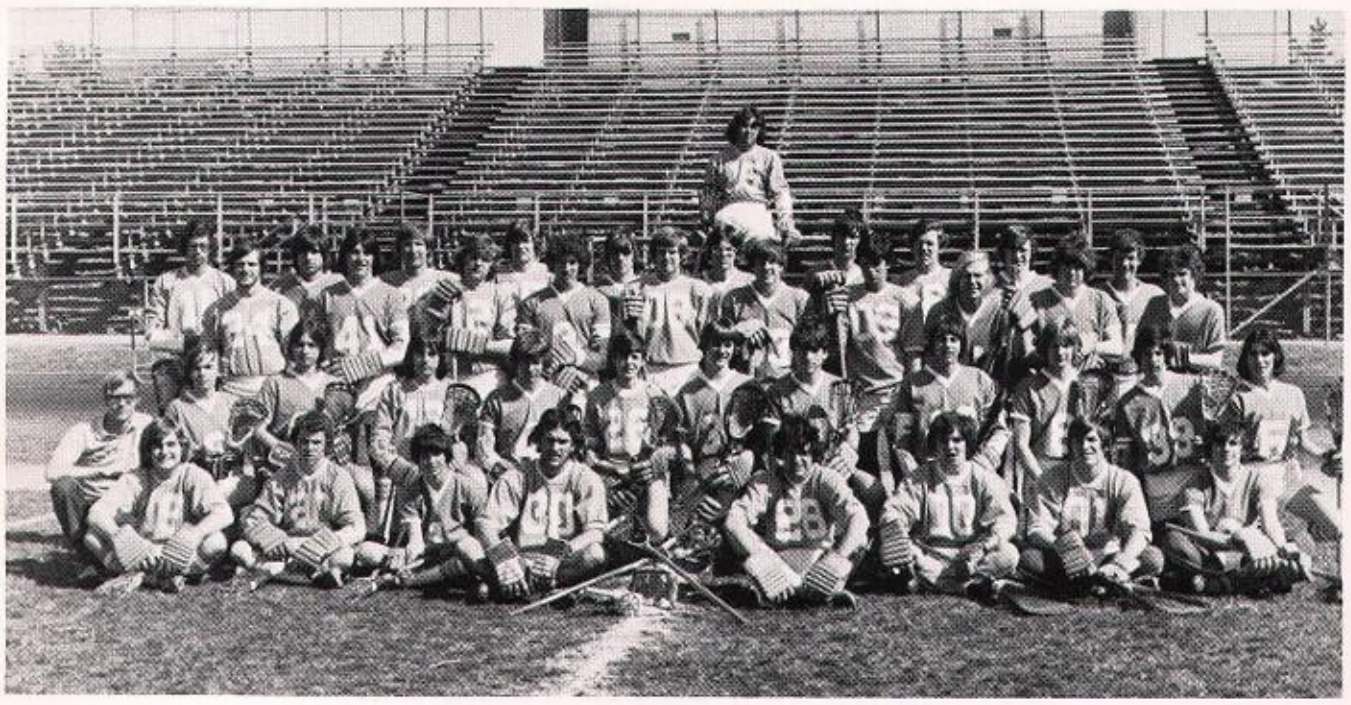
Here comes #4 to the rescue.



Captains Mark Piavis and Mike Lord.

As they anticipate the win.

Lacrosse



Front Row: K. Pieper, D. Zauche, R. Jones, M. Piavis, M. Lord, D. Widdowson, B. Seipp, G. Robinson. Second Row: Coach R. Luers, B. O'Meally, T. Lee, V. Fiocco, R. Lord, M. Murphy, P. Bowersox, S. There's no way past me.

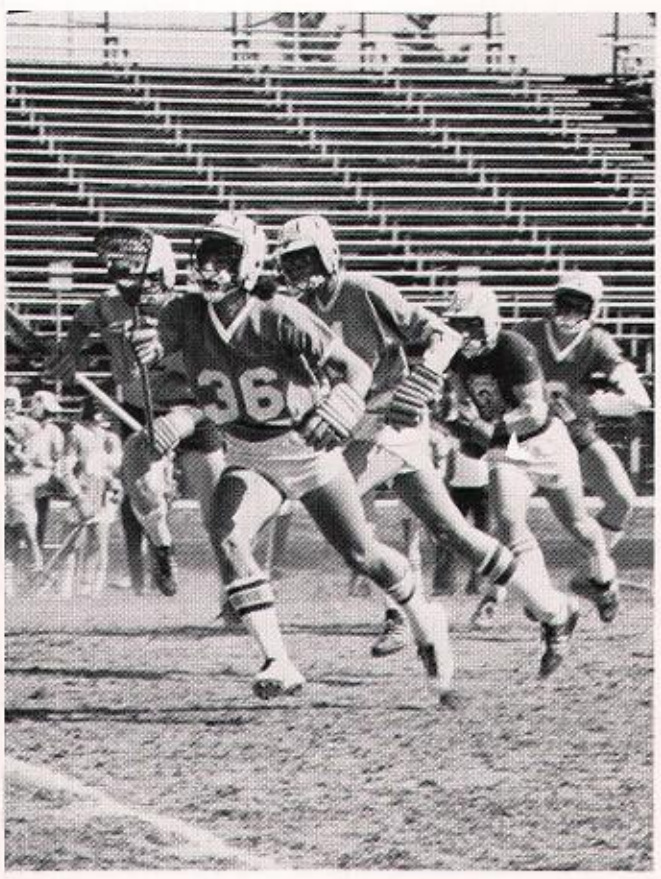
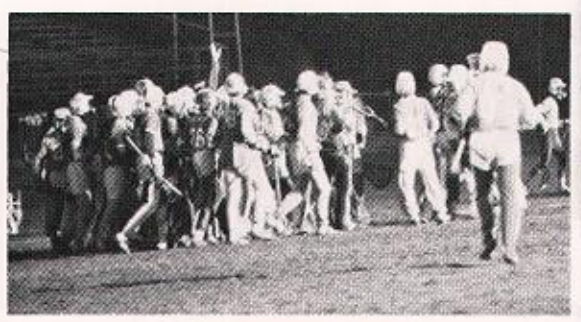
Come on you can do it.



There's no stopping me.



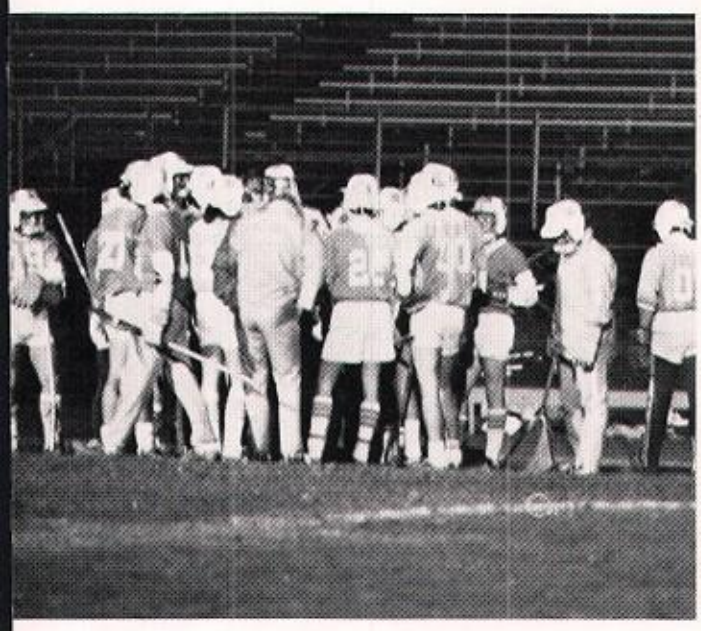
The winning spirit.

Lacrosse is one of the Worlds roughest and fastest moving sports. It takes much coordination, endurance and strength to make a successful lacrosse team, and the members of the WHS Lacrosse Team have exhibited all of these qualities.

Statisticians, Managers, and Coach.

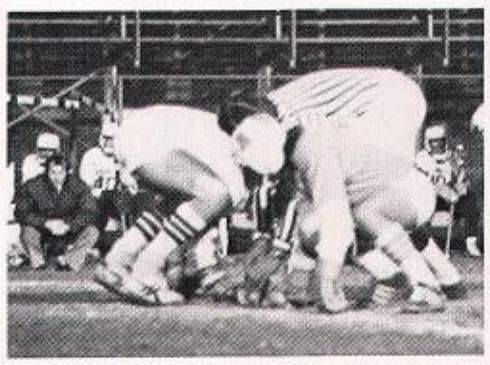
Piavis taking a trip.

Seniors



Right coach!

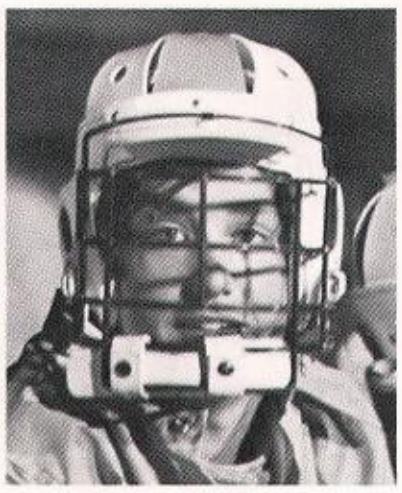
A coming star.



And the start.

Patiently waiting.

And the next midfield awaits.



A Prisoner?

Stick up for Lacrosse!

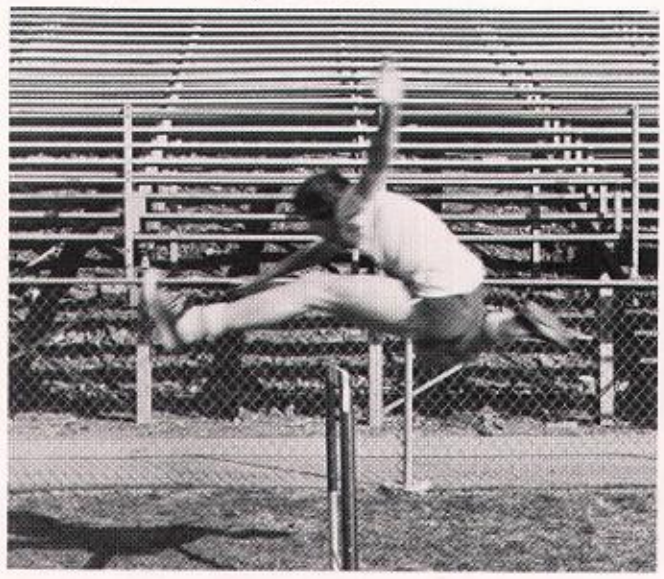
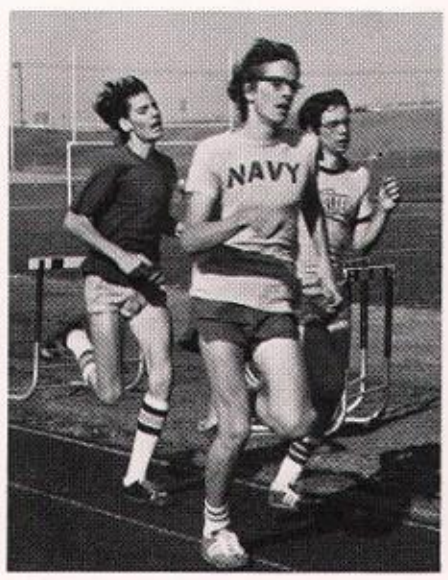
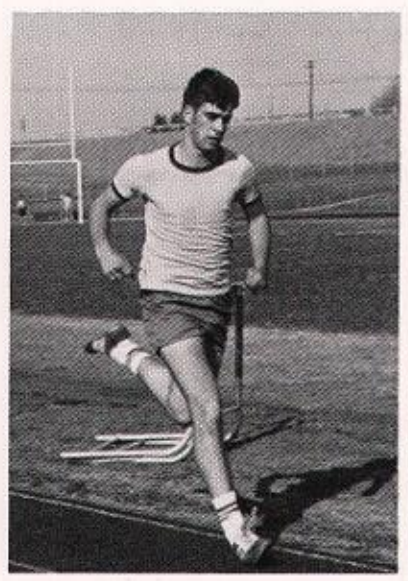
Who is faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive, and able to leap tall buildings in a single bound? No, it's not Superman, it's the mighty Owl Track Team. Their speed and agility, and competitive spirit have made them a consistently superior team.



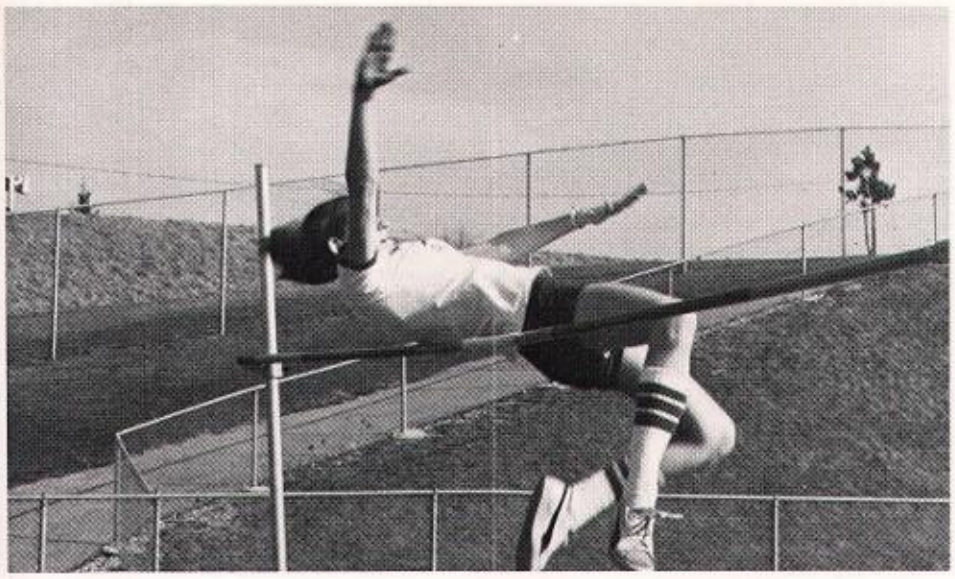
S-T-R-E-T-C-H!



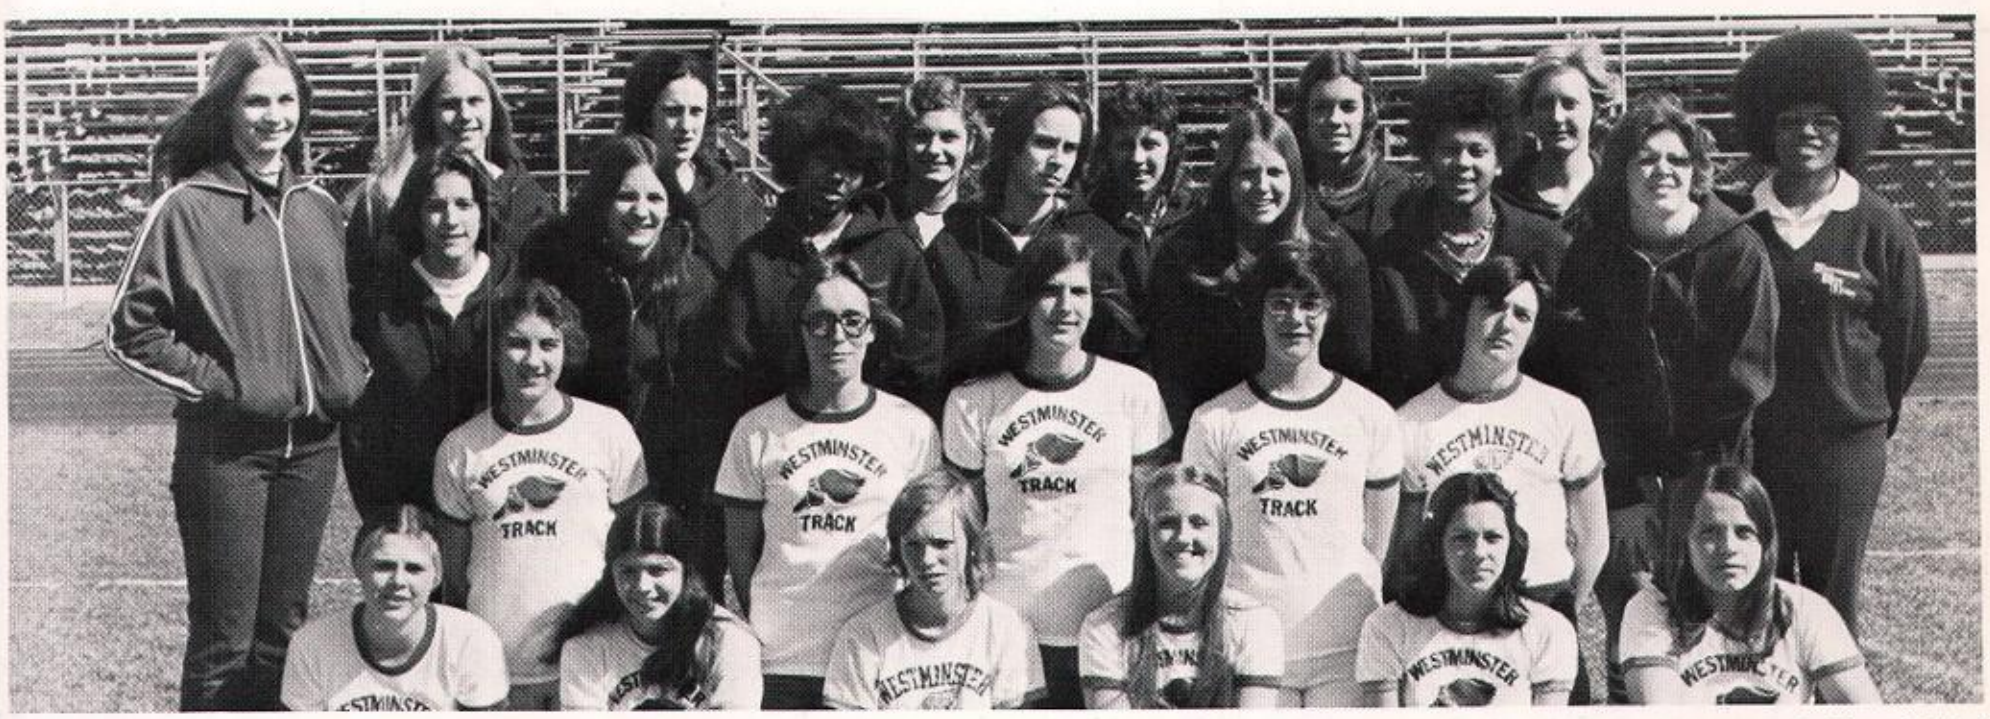
The air is too thin.



Going good!



Girls Spring Track



Front Row (left to right): T. Barnes, L. Baker, J. Settle, M. Davis, M. McIver, B. Study. Second Row: T. Coppersmith, B. Martin, L. Bowersox, L. Clear. Third Row: J. Teeter, S. Tall, M. Smith, L. The hurdles, the broad jump, the discus, and the 440 relay are just a few of the many events in which the Girls' Track Team excels. The ever important qualities of perseverance and self-discipline are shown through their constant practice to become stronger athletes.

I can fly!

Laura CLEARS another record.

Keepin pace.

They fly through the air with the greatest of ease. Not the daring young on the flying trapeze but the members of the team as they perform flying dismounts from the horizontal bar, or intricate manuevers on the flying rings. In all of their performances they exhibit strength, flexibility, agility, and control.

Simon says "reach for the sky."

"Alright you numbskulls, cheer."

With boundless energy and enthusiasm, the Fall Varsity Cheerleaders gave their overwhelming support to the fall varsity sports teams. With their undying school spirit, they cheered W.H.S. on to another season of "Victory!"

Put'em up — This is a raid.

Cheerleaders are always together?

Are they dancing or cheering?

"Have you got the school spirit?" There is no need to ask this question of the Winter Varsity Cheerleaders. The answer is evident in their morale boosting enthusiasm and school spirit.

Fall J.V. Cheerleaders

First Row: C. Steel, B. Bode, B. Long. Second Row: C. Bodden, D. Bode, N. Sackett, T. Richards. Third Row: D. Armacost, R. Bartlett.

How can we cheer when the team all qui

It takes alot of hard work an dedication to form a successf cheering squad. The J.V. Chee leaders have these qualities alon with the energy and enthusias with which they cheered the Ow on to another Victorious season.

Winter J.V. Cheerleaders

The J.V. wrestling and basketball teams are among those urged on by the J.V. Winter Cheerleaders. With their synchronized motions and loud, clear cheers, they exhibited overwhelming support for the Owls.

Only our team can win this game.

Spring Cheerleaders

With their jubilant cheers and precisioned movements, the Spring Cheerleaders provide an extra bit of zest and color to all spring sports events, and their presence boosts the spirit. Thanks is due.

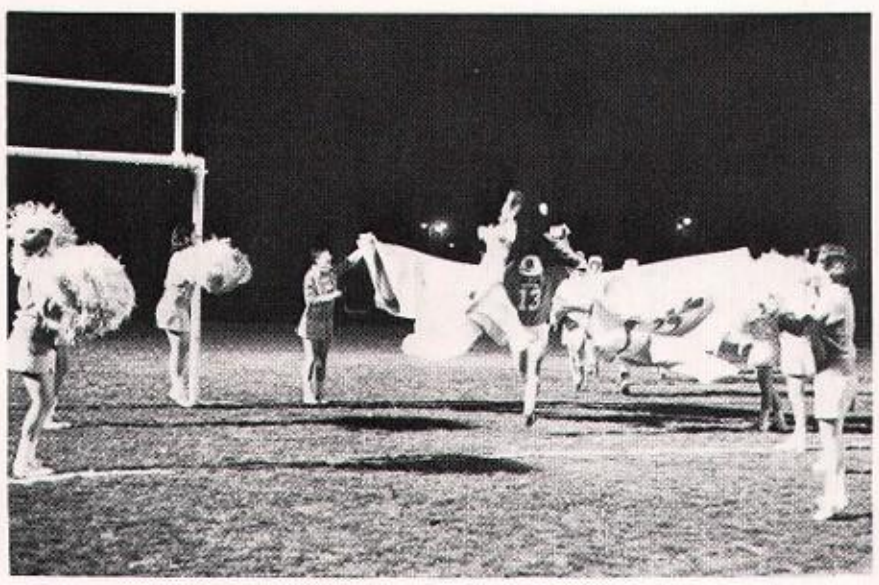
It looks like he'll make it!



Owls break into a great season.

Sylvia Crouse

Now what?

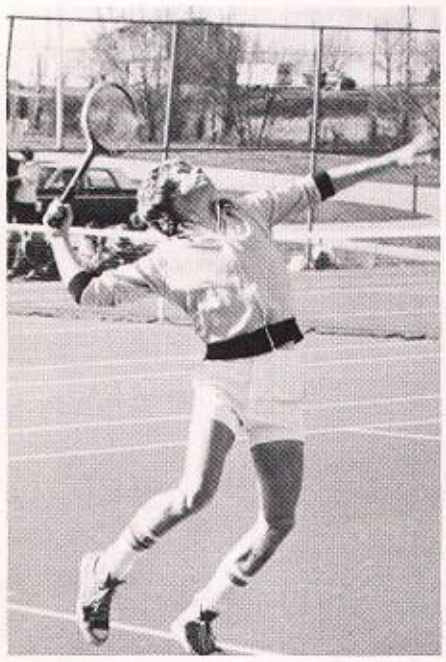
R-A-H!

No thanks I'm already going to the Prom.

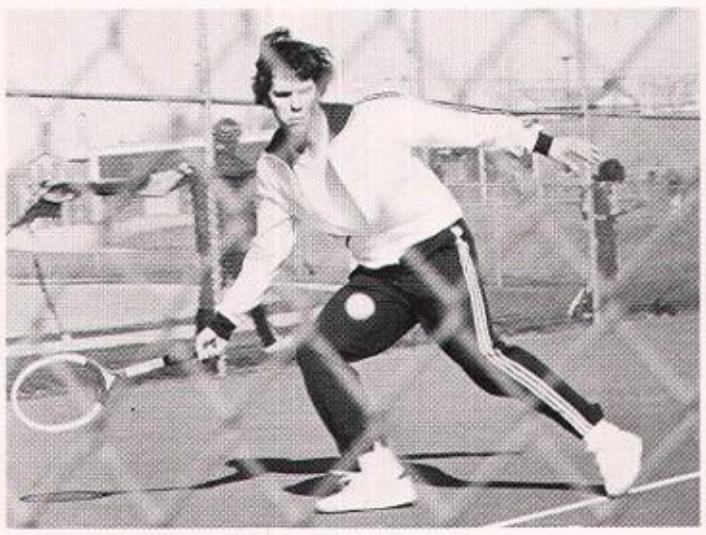
Tennis

In the past few years, tennis has become one of the most popular sports in America. The W.H.S. Tennis Team has shown why the popularity of tennis has grown, through their speed and skill, in both team and individual play, as they spun their way through another victorious season.

First Row: M. Makovitch, J. Alexander, F. Coleman, C. Hoddinott, J. Haifley, M. Dull, L. McIntire, E. Flanagan, M Jones. Second Row: C. Hoddinott, S. Lawson, J. Jones, J. Eckard, B. Dayhoff, S. Hollinger, S. Sinnott, K. Apple, T Kuhn, T. Geiman, Coach S. Hooper.

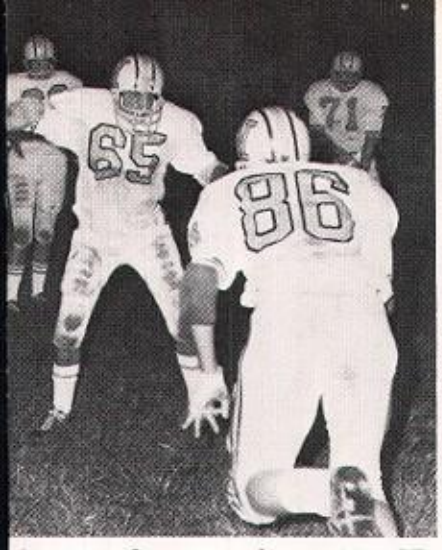


Newton's law of gravity defied.

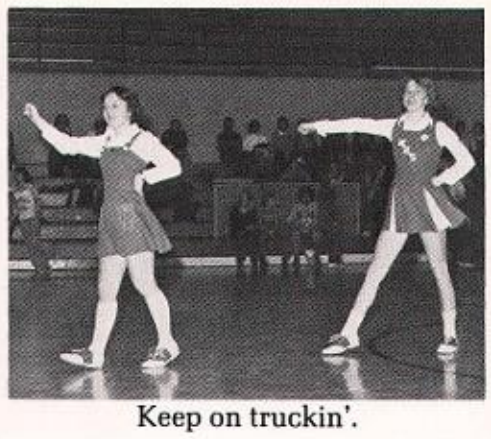


I've got skill!

Ball hog!



"Meaner than a junk yard dog."

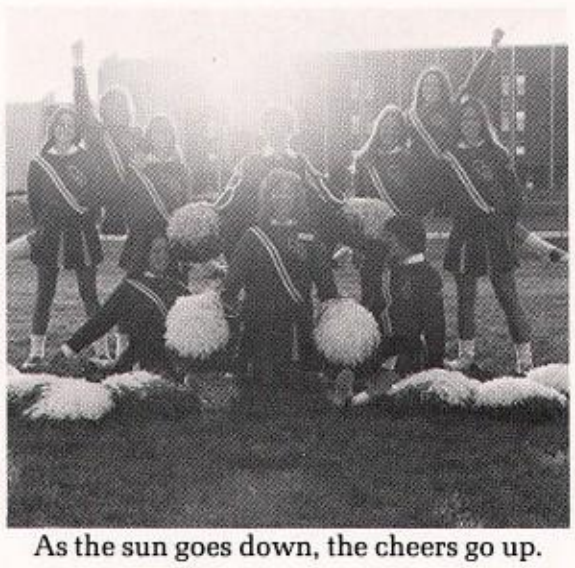


Keep on truckin'.

Fight!

Who says I can't play football?

Heads Up!

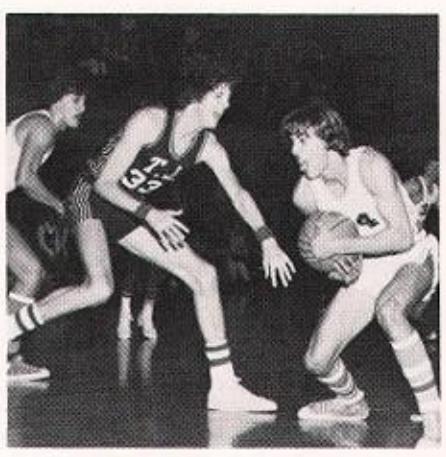


As the sun goes down, the cheers go up.

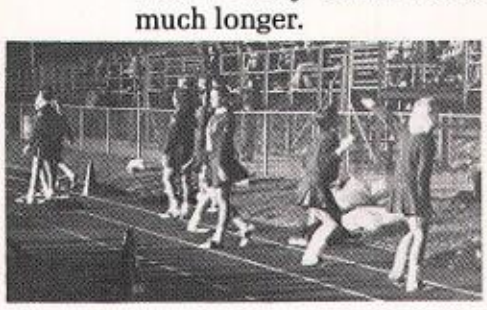
I can't stay down here much longer.

An enthusiastic crowd?

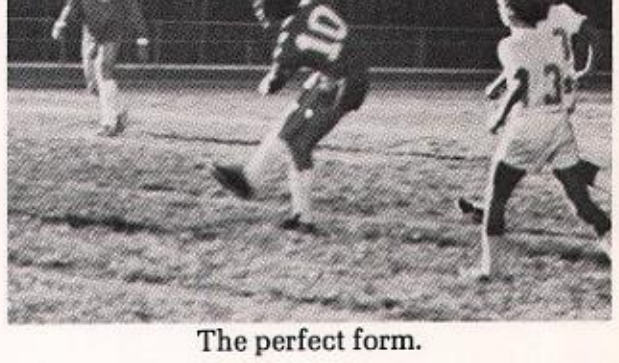
He cut him, too!



Na, Na, Na . . . it's my ball.



Cheerleaders aren't always together!



The perfect form.

Don't get all "Hoffy" cause you're not on top.

Get out of my way!

The winning spirit.

My leg just won't go any higher.

Jay is flying high.

Is he "Dead?"

Kim,
I'm really glad I got to know you better this year! We really had alot of fun in two oh novel, with Cutie, Val & Sharon! Those discussion groups were really fun; all those jokes & symbolism in those crappy books we had to read! If it weren't for your pretty face & body & personality I would have been bored to death! Two-oh Novel but now upon have your grades I'm sorry about your Sam Toddy Bear, & the guy from class! those guys, Mark & Peter! I don't ever forget this class! those reports! I'll never Virginia! how do you do it! those my topics! what you said all books! why take Playgirl Magazine & We really did you Lupus & Peter! I hope that Playgirl things! crazy

To see you next year! Good luck in all your love affairs! Call me 876-1639!

Love

Pete

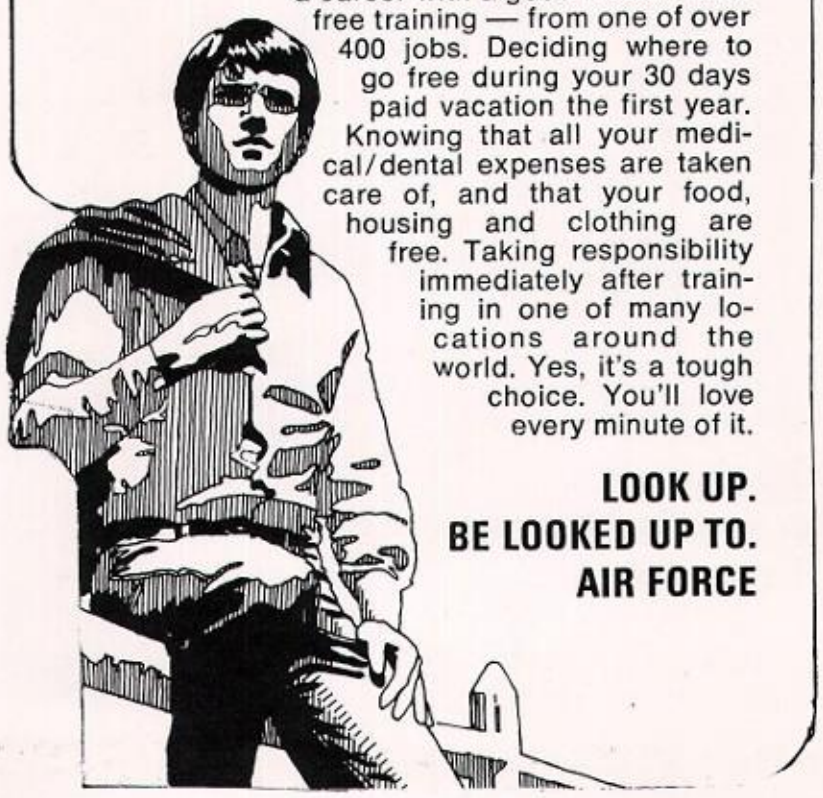
GRADUATE: IF YOU'RE WONDERING...



You have a tough choice. Picking a career with a good future—with free training — from one of over 400 jobs. Deciding where to go free during your 30 days paid vacation the first year. Knowing that all your medical/dental expenses are taken care of, and that your food, housing and clothing are free. Taking responsibility immediately after training in one of many locations around the world. Yes, it's a tough choice. You'll love every minute of it.

Kim,
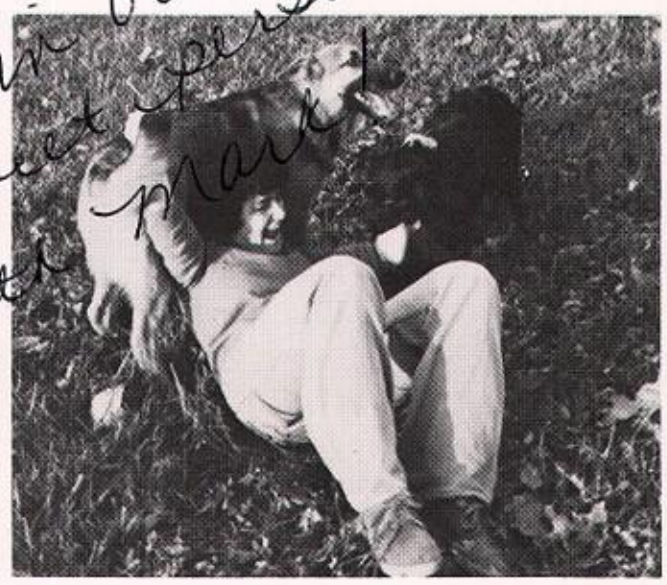
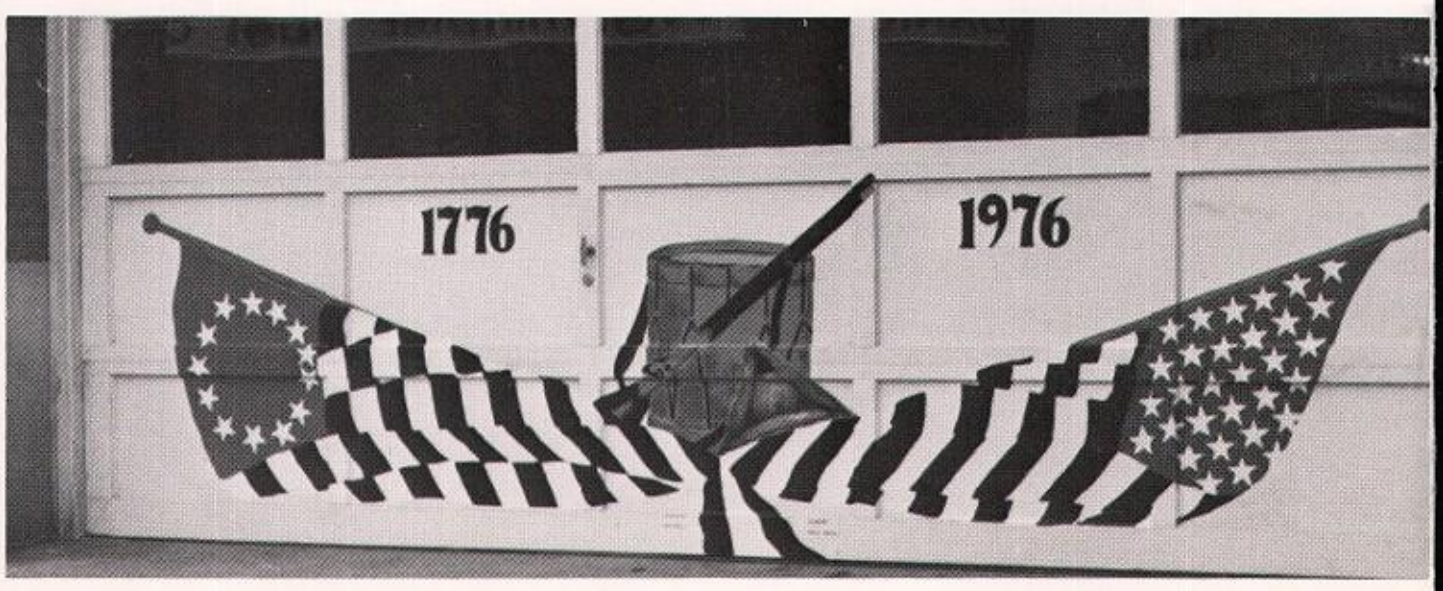
I'm really glad I got to know you a lot better this year in Steno. What a class. We just can't forget dear Amelia. We had some really nice talks though didn't we. We were either cracking up over a problem. Thanks - for always listening and I hope you have a really great time. It was nice to see you sometime. Hope you and I hope to see you next year in Pre-Law, too! Stay that same sweet person you are and good luck with your career!

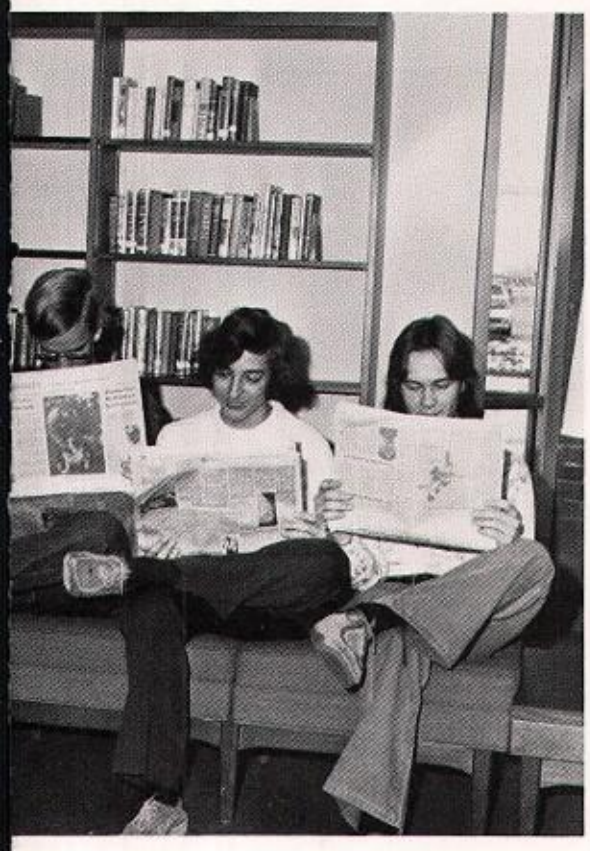
Love,
Brenda

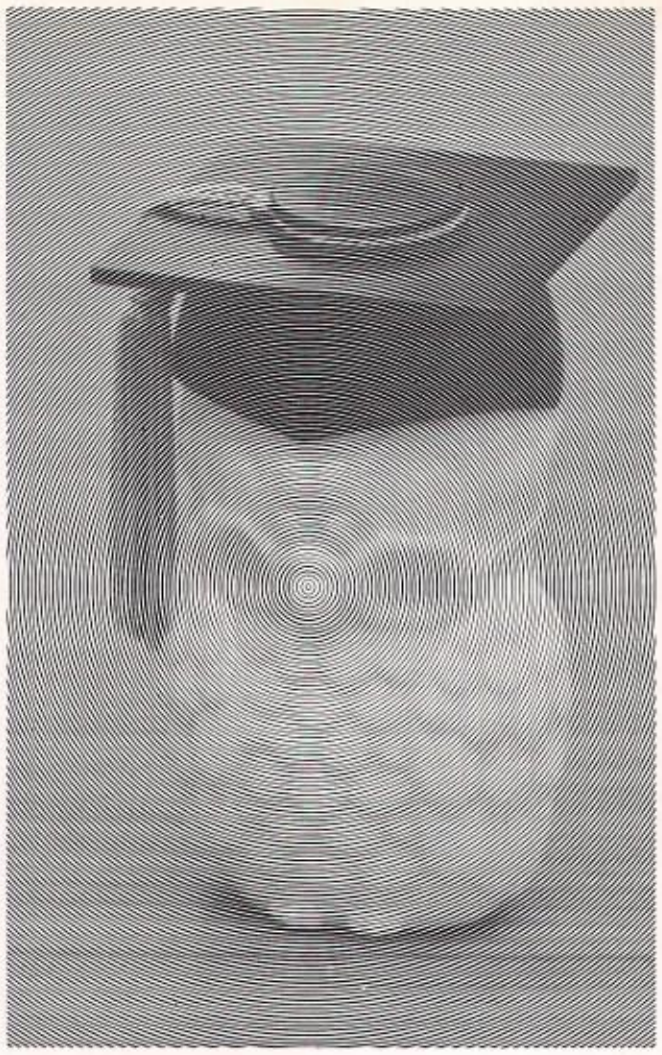
'77

This year we are not only looking into the past accomplishments of our country's heritage, but also in that of ourselves as ambitious individuals. With pride, we thank those who have made our past a prosperous and memorable one. Our past accomplishments will be an asset to our future success.

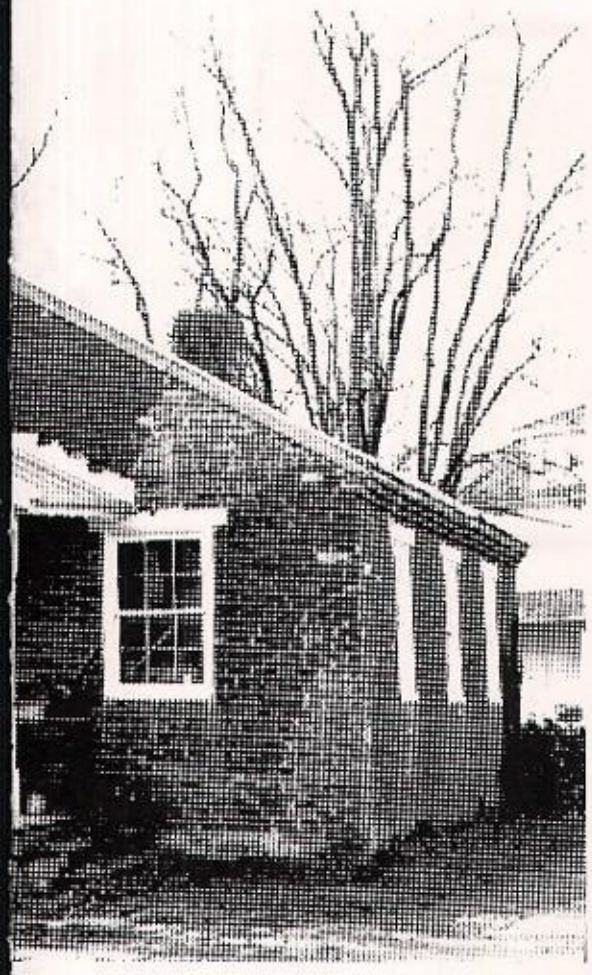






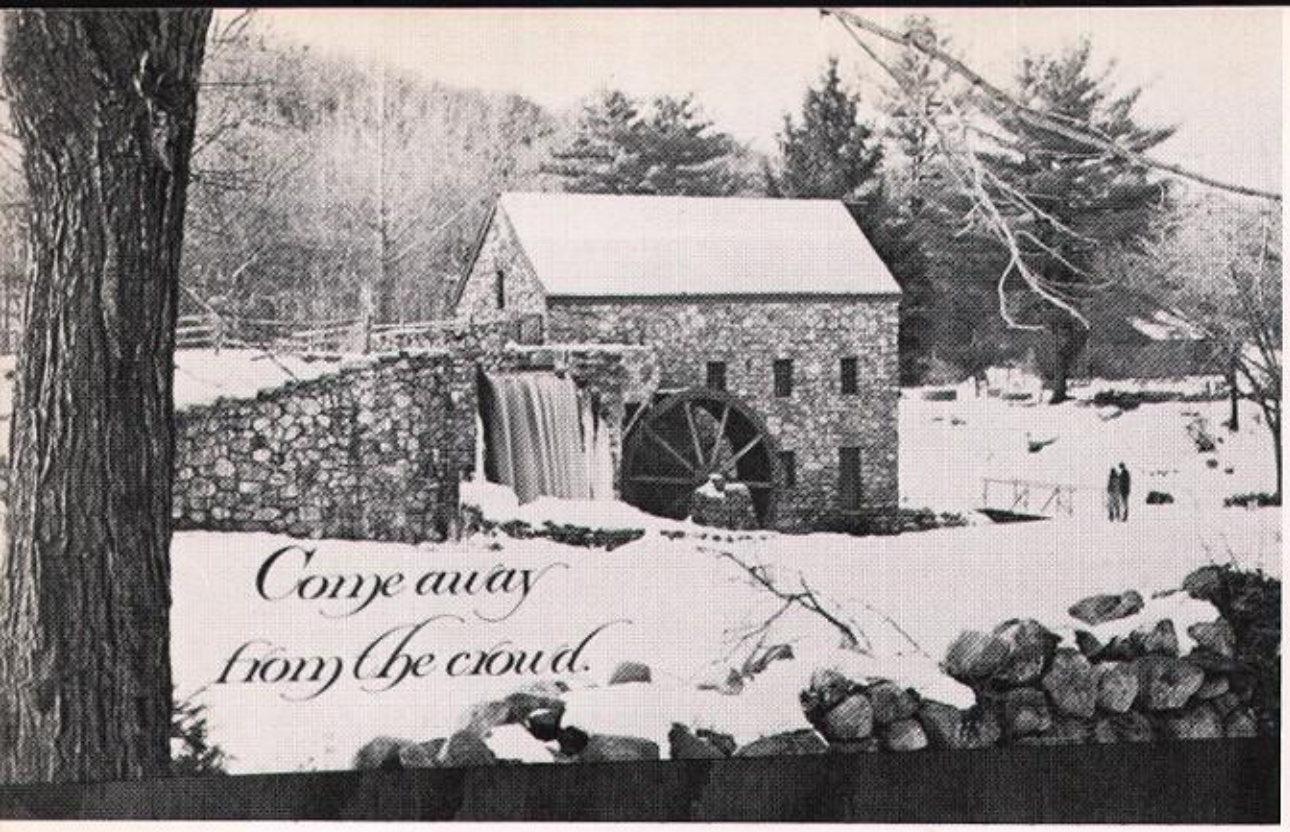


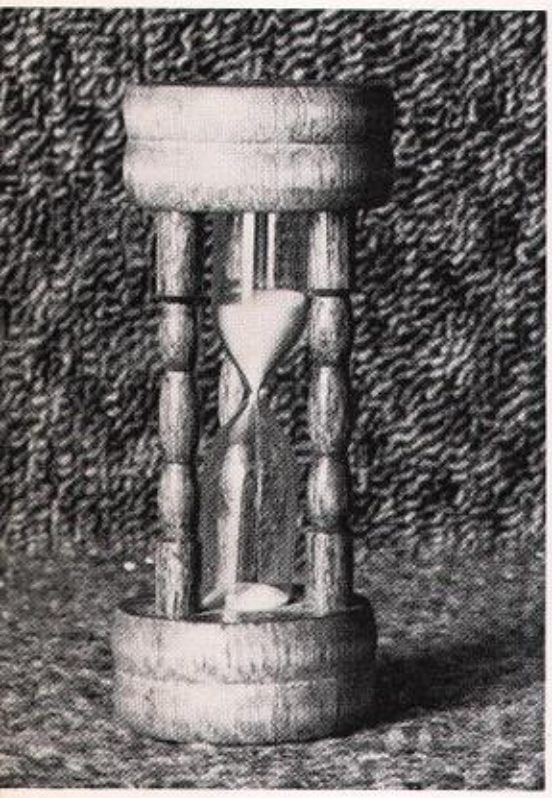
We will long remember those golden days that often centered around school activities. Just as we ran for shelter from the pouring rain in the middle of a football game, we soon find we have to leave these sheltered secure lives we have lived to fulfill a life of challenges toward shaping new tomorrows. We will be the leaders of tomorrow. We have progressed from the times of yesteryear with beliefs in Santa to focusing on more cultural, sophisticated subjects like Chemistry and Calculus. At one time all we hoped for were those fun-filled high school years.

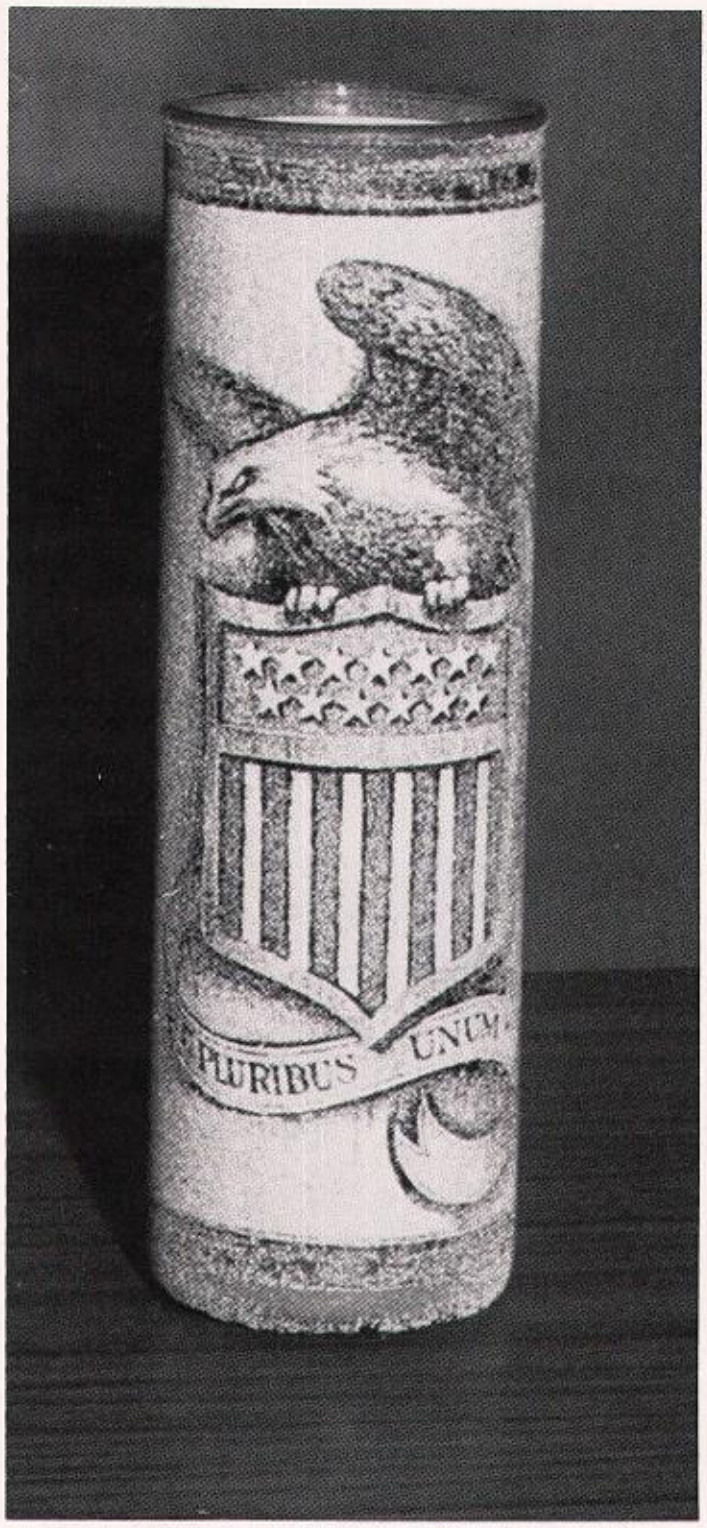


Kim:

Hey Remember all the good-"Great" times that we had together. Hope we can re-do some of our memories. So you come up to the house this summer and we'll go swimming and drive-Ride around and look at the guys. Be good and Best of Luck to ya. See ya around and Remember that you're still my "Blood" sister and I want you to be my close sister. See ya. Luv ya, Cindy

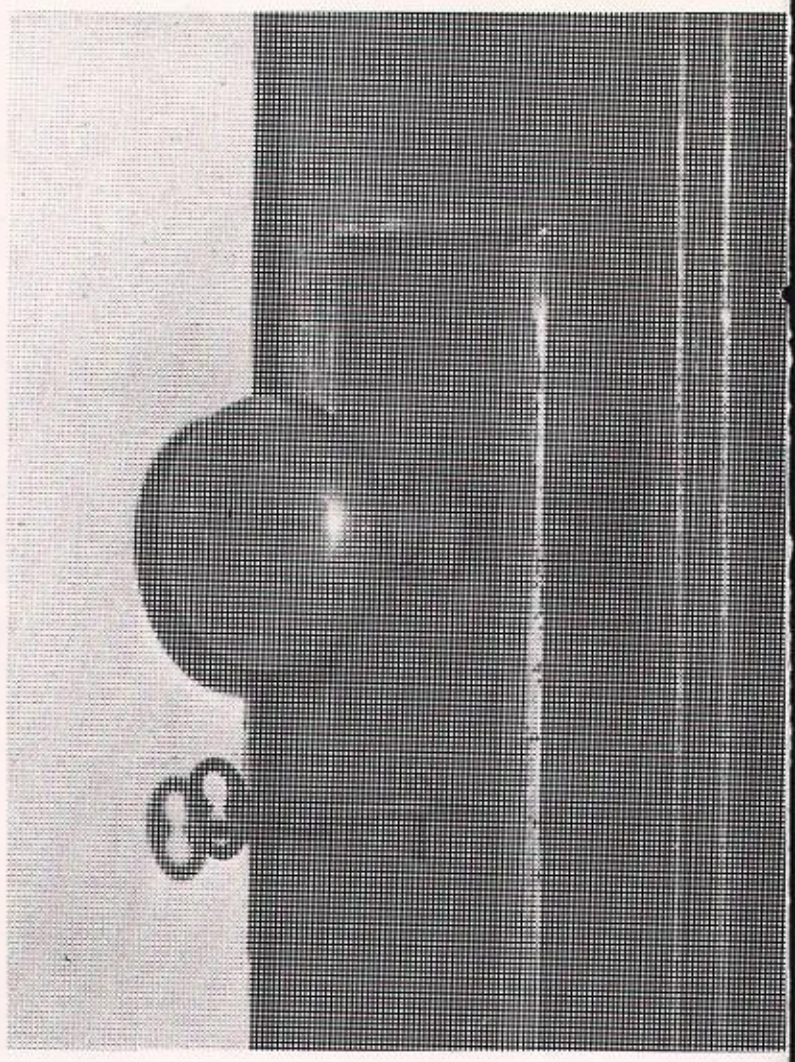


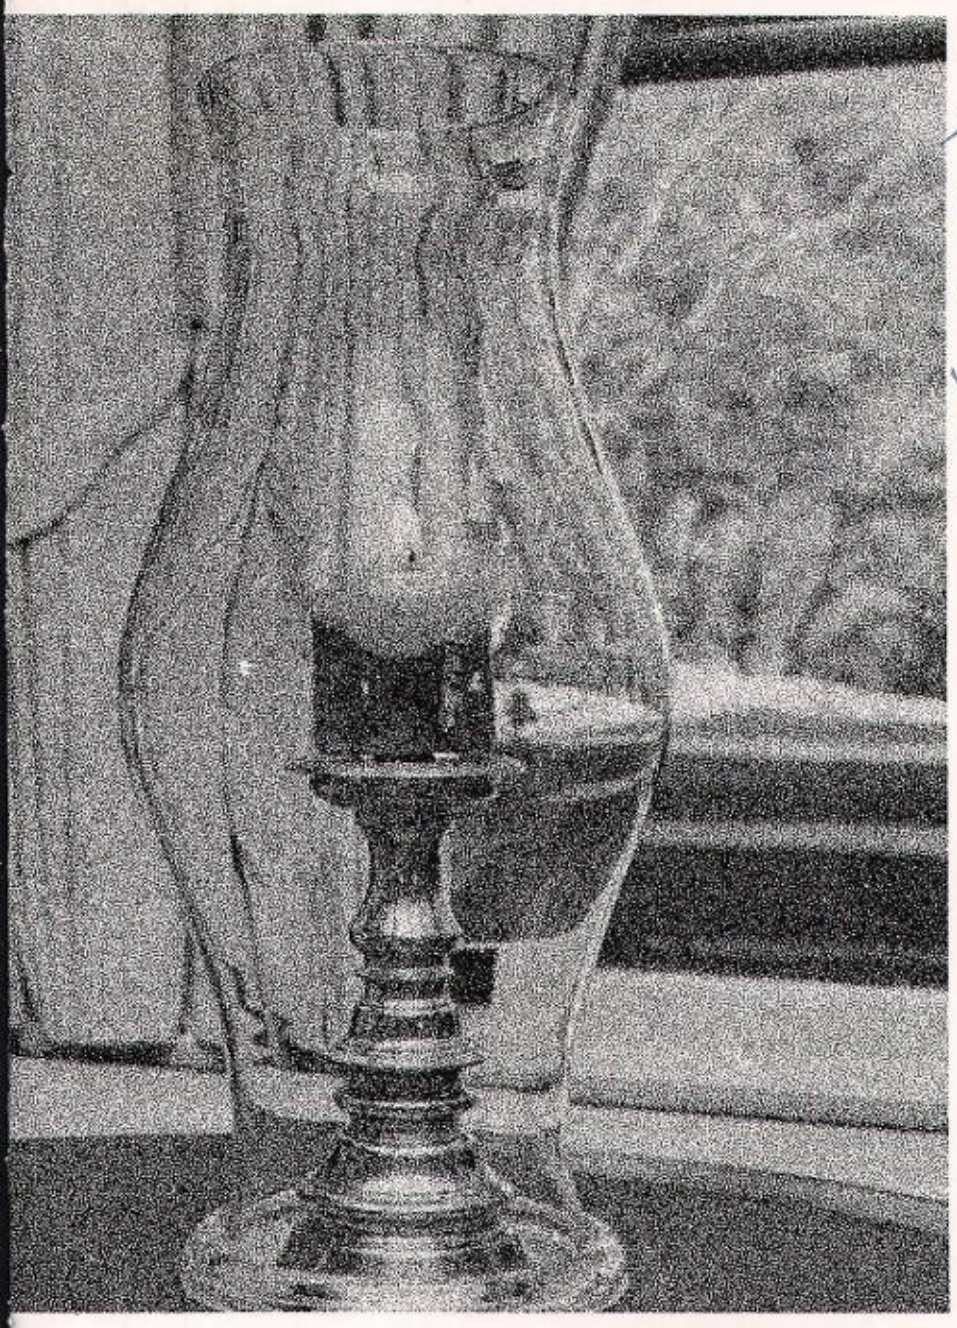




We need to face the future with courage and hope to build even better tomorrows than those expired that we hold in our memories today.

Change is an important part of our anticipations. We have had to make due with the change of faculty participation in extra-curricular activities, but then we welcome changes that have come about in areas such as sports — more records set for future athletes to overcome.

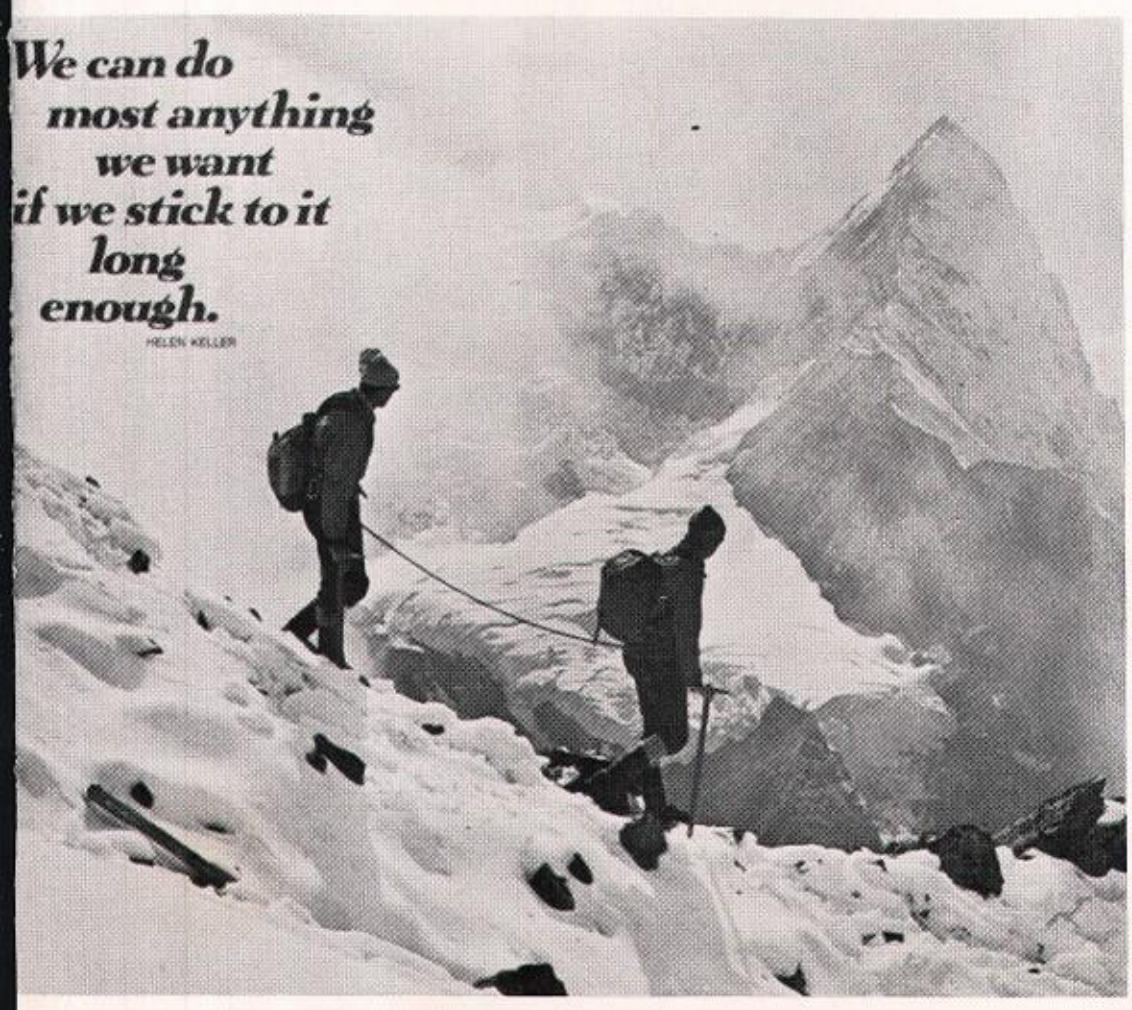




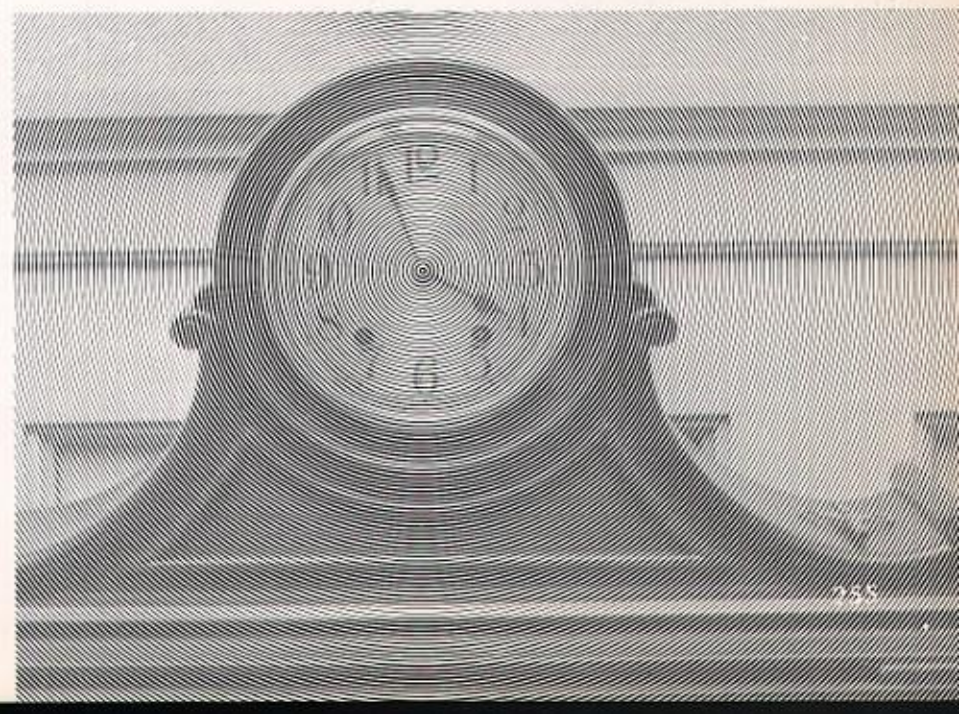
Kim,
To a nice girl that I met this year. I hope maybe one weekend we can get together. We would have fun. Be good. Stay cool and I hope to see ya over the summer and maybe next year.

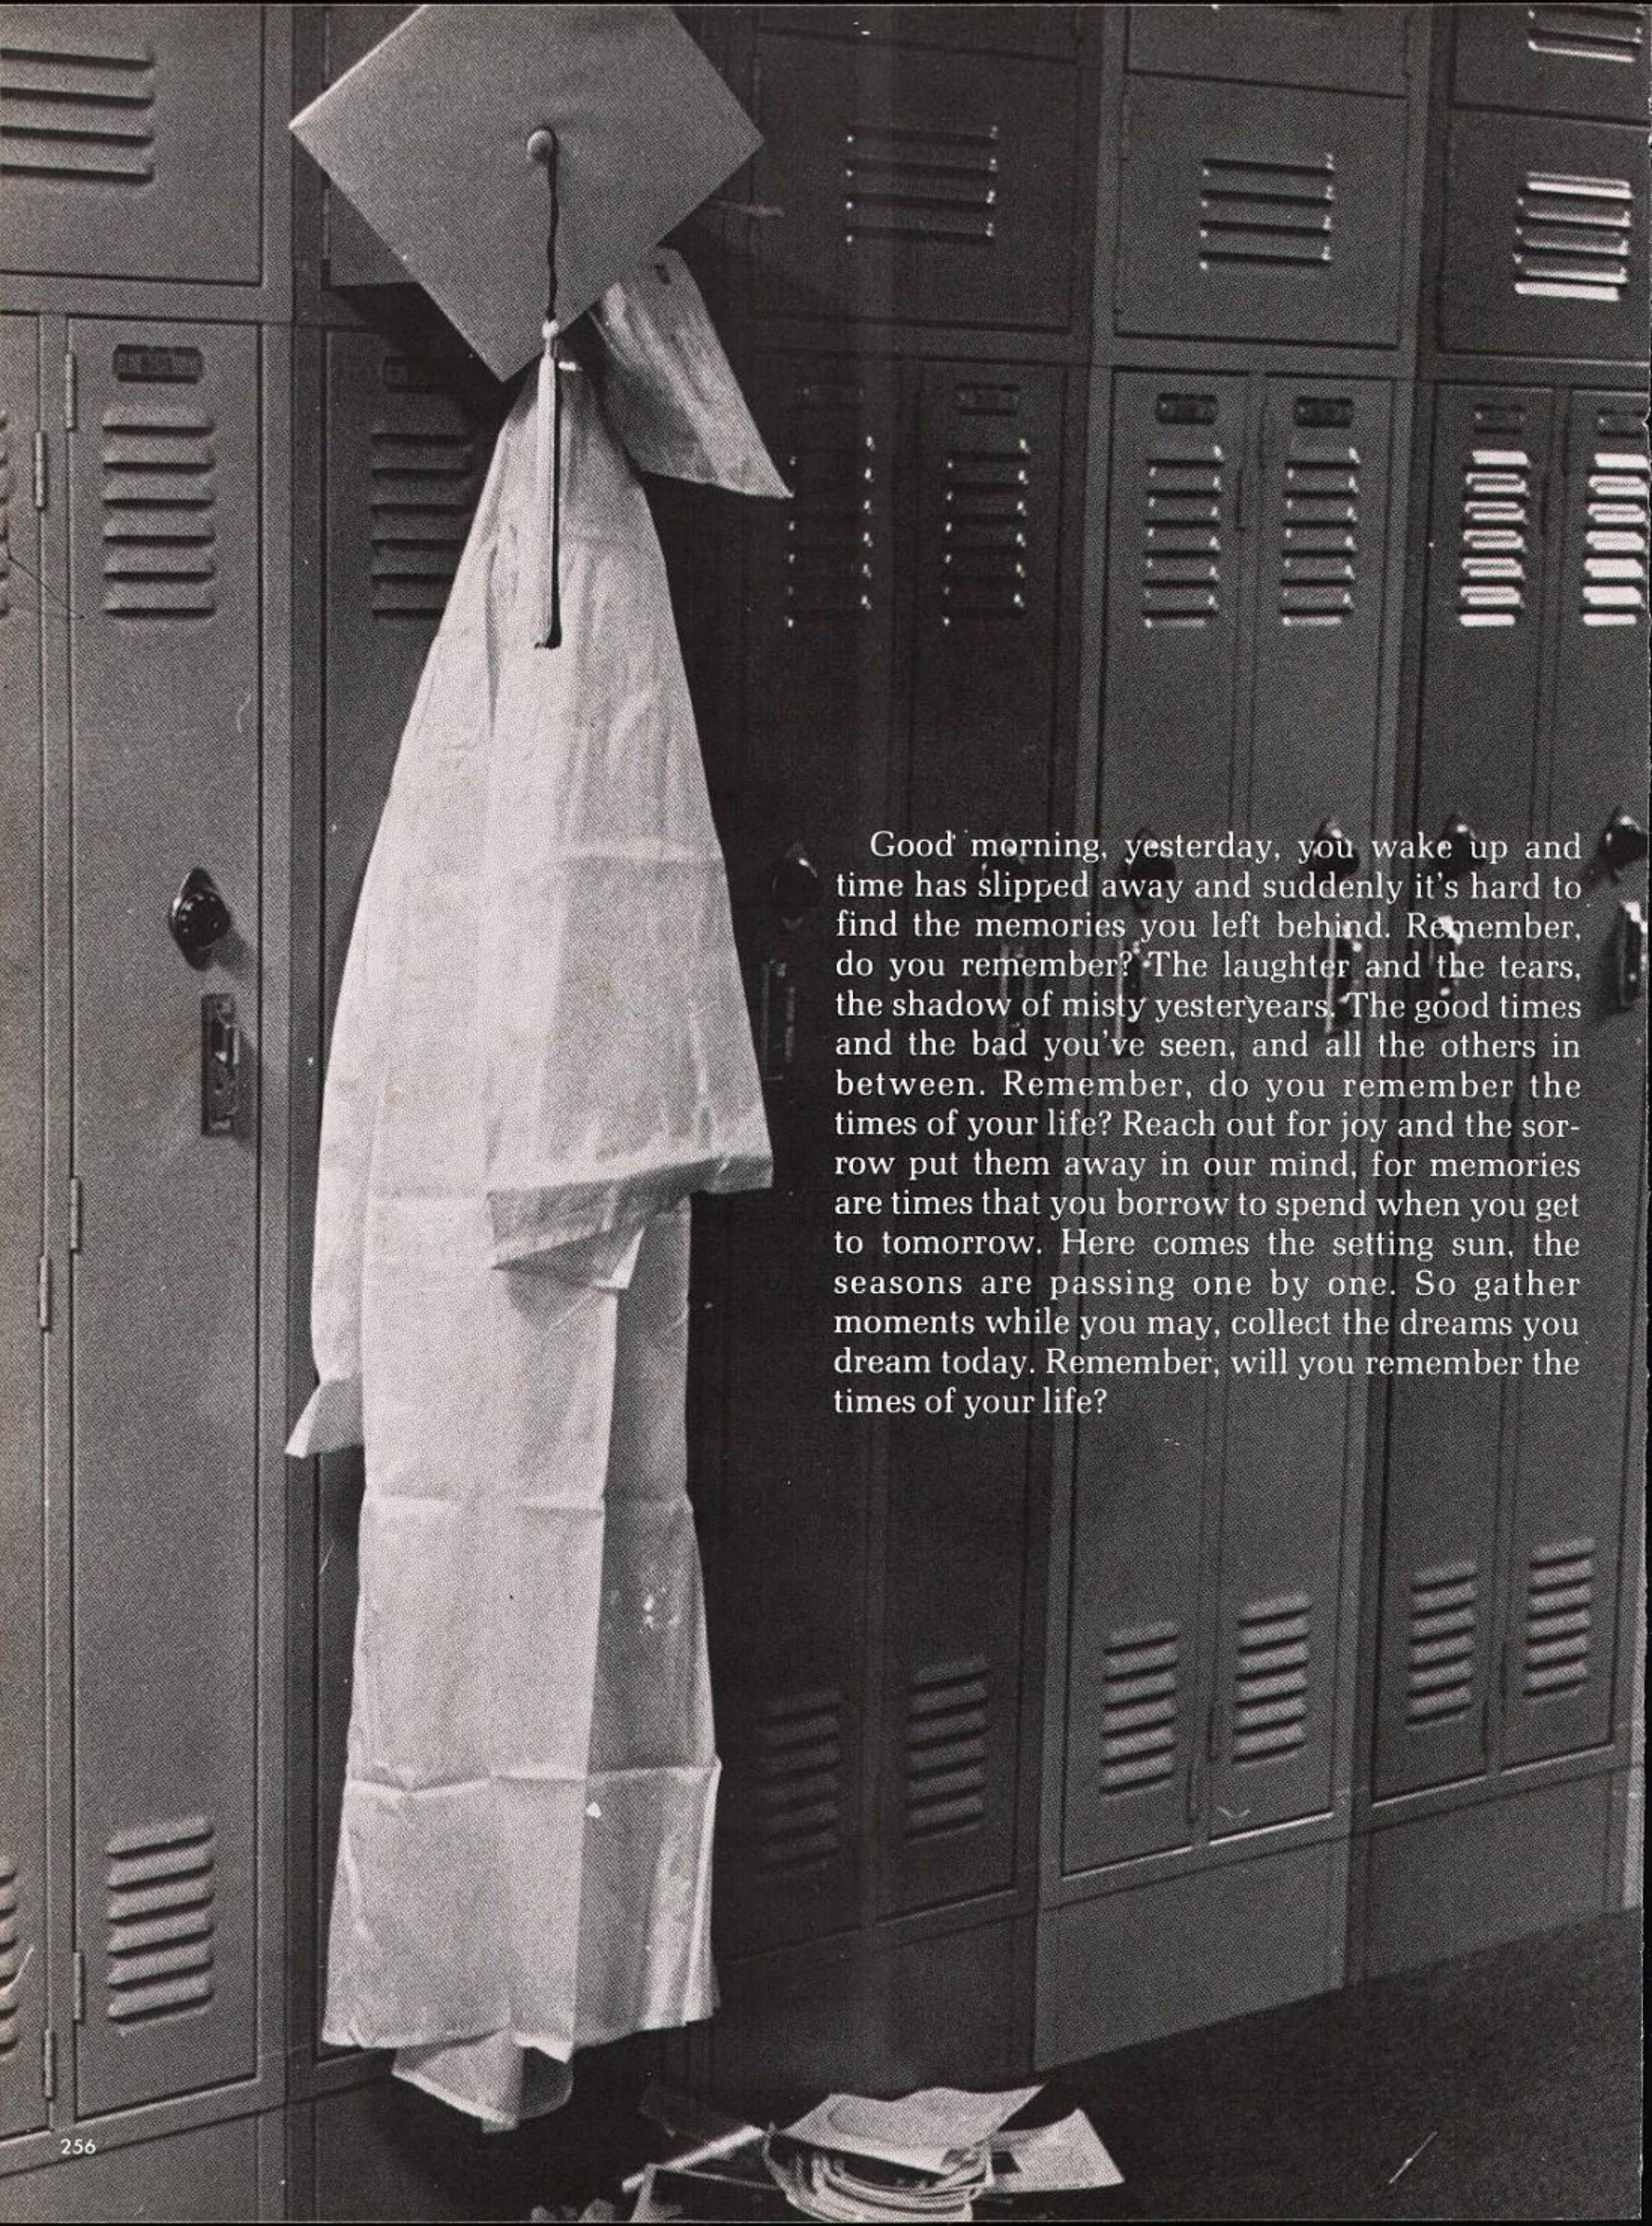
Best wishes,
Sarah Abell

All of these things are parts of the mirage we call memories. We look at the ravages of time to new eras of anxiety yet not quite sure of where we will find ourselves tomorrow. We will not lose the sunshine of yesteryear, but rise to glorious new dawns. Leaving behind many friends, experiences and smiles, we work toward achieving dreams having . . .



PRIDE IN OUR PAST
FAITH IN OUR FUTURE.





Good morning, yesterday, you wake up and time has slipped away and suddenly it's hard to find the memories you left behind. Remember, do you remember? The laughter and the tears, the shadow of misty yesteryears. The good times and the bad you've seen, and all the others in between. Remember, do you remember the times of your life? Reach out for joy and the sorrow put them away in our mind, for memories are times that you borrow to spend when you get to tomorrow. Here comes the setting sun, the seasons are passing one by one. So gather moments while you may, collect the dreams you dream today. Remember, will you remember the times of your life?

To Kim,
My dearest friend,
I cannot believe that you're Bruce's sister, your
a very nice girl and he's so,
well, you know?!!!
We've had a good time(s) in
